Carolina took out powerhouses Beverly and Toxic Waste, both in thrilling 7-game series. For the second straight TML World Series, Jeff Chapman's Rocky Mountain Chinooks saw the TML Champ celebrate on their home field. Rocky Mountain was also a "giant killer", having eliminated Arkansas and Walla Walla. This set up a "Cinderella" TML World Series with the two teams that had the lowest regular season wins of all the playoff teams!

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 53 Occupation: Supervisor, NYSDPS

The Season Story

Expectations were low in Albany, but the team hit better than expected and the Avalanche reached 84 wins. This team had more speed than had ever been seen in Albany. Hanley Ramirez, Matt Kemp and Carlos Beltran had 81, 51 and 33 stolen bases, respectively. Ramirez 109 runs, 52 doubles, .309 average, Kemp 127 runs, 27 doubles, 11 triples, 22 homers and Josh Willingham with 30 homers and 103 ribbies paced the offense. Kelly Shoppach with 19 homers in 233 at bats was the super sub. Rick Porcello was the staff ace, 14-6 with a 3.66 ERA. Peter Moylan had 24 saves despite an ERA of 5.51. With an ERA of 4.70 it was a down year for the staff. Pedro Martinez won 5 games in his swan song. Next year looks like a transition year. Much hinges on the draft.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 67 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

The last three years have been a roller coaster for the Travs...Champions in 2007, last in 2008 and back to the top (record wise) in 2009. 2009 saw great years for rookie Pablo Sandoval (.347/43/138), Shin-Choo Choo (.341/32/96/132 runs scored,), Josh Johnson (20-4/3.51) and Brian Bannister (19-3/2.78). We had our hopes high entering the playoffs but the Wild Card Rocky Mountain Chinooks had other ideas in the first round, galloping to a 3-0 series lead and winning 4 games to 2. We enter the off-season slightly uncertain of our direction, although tearing down and rebuilding is NOT an option. Building around a solid young nucleus seems the most likely road.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 41 Occupation: Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Another spectacular regular season for the Hillbillies ended in bitter playoff disappointment. The Hillbilly squad was led by superior pitching with Justin Verlander (22 wins), Dan Haren (20 wins), and Roy Halladay (18 wins). The bullpen was a solid one-two combination of Darren O'Day and Huston Street. No one offensive contributor stood out but Ryan Zimmerman and Joey Votto were solid while several players chipped in with great part-time contributions. As long as the BV pitching remains solid, BV has a chance to make another playoff run.

The Season Story

With a change in ballparks, a solid pitching staff and above average hitters, hope sprang eternal early in the season for Brandon who looked poised to make a run for the playoffs. Through August the case was being made, trailing Rocky Mountain by only 6 games. With a clubhouse full of smiles and hopes of better tomorrows, Brandon surged into the fall schedule. However, Hurricane Obama rolled in during the month of September, bringing a painful end to the BigWeezMachine's hopes and dreams. Alas, Brandon is always an alphabetical lock for first place. A few bright spots came with big performances by Ryan Braun and Prince Fielder, with 30 and 48 homers respectively and a .331 and .310 batting averages respectively. Pitching remains a mystery with subpar performances from the entire starting pitching staff..

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 61 Occupation: Retired; Minor League Stat Report mlb.com

The Season Story

A pathetic offense and a no name pitching staff that didn't do much shoved the Blue Jays to the bottom of the pack in 2009. Now that the GM has stopped trading his #1 pick away each year, the long slow climb can now begin. Once I figured out how to get Ellsbury to steal some bases, the second half of the season was much more enjoyable. Trevor Hoffman was superb handing the minimal opportunities he was given all season. A quiet and painless TML season for the Blue Jays. No complaints and congratulations to everyone.

CAROLINA Crawfish

Manager: Carl Schreck (Mary)

TAL Champion

Age: 29 Occupation: Research Meteorologist

The Season Story

A miraculous championship season for the "Cardiac Crawfish". Captain Joe Mauer and Ben Zobrist led the way offensively, while the newly drafted Ace, Brett Anderson, threw a league-leading 2.67 ERA in his rookie campaign. A wild wild wildcard battle came down to a one-game playoff with division mate Valpo where Brett Anderson out-dueled King Felix Hernandez. Brett would figure heavily in the post-season too, going 3-2 in 8 October starts. The Crawfish went on to win two heart-stopping seven-game series against Beverly and Toxic before topping Rocky Mountain in five. The team remains young, keeping the Carolina faithful hoping this is the first of many post-season runs.

CHETICAMP Micmacs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 52 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

As bad as the 2010 Micmacs were, they were only the seventh-worst team in the league, defying the conventional wisdom as the worst team in the league in Machine Gun Max's preseason prognostications. Other than that moral victory, the 2010 Micmacs were awful, with no starter with an ERA under 4.00. All the starters were at least one run over their real-life ERA, no doubt due to the team having the second worst fielding percentage. The offense had some punch with Dunn and Reynolds, but plenty of air conditioning, as Reynolds shattered his league strikeout record with 251 whiffs, followed by Dunn with "only" 206!

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 63 Occupation: Program Manager

The Season Story

Fantastic year for the Diamonds, 107 wins, cut short by a first round playoff loss. The Danny Way team was 2nd in runs scored, 5th in avg, 3rd in 2bs and HRs. They were led offensively by Evan Longoria who banged out 102 xbase hits, including 62 2bs and 38 hrs. He also scored 116 times and knocked in 131. Michael Young, .336, Robinson Cano 27 HRs and Carlos Lee 27 HRs also were solid contributors. The Diamonds also finished 5th in team ERA and were led by Wainwright 19-4, 3.36; Scott Baker, 22-7, 3.14; and Wandy Rodriguez 20-5, 3.30 and a deep and solid pen. The 2011 Diamond squad should be solid again, led by Josh Hamilton, Cano, Young and Longoria.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle

Age: 46 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

After too long a period, Duluth finally saw the sunny side of .500 and led the Gatto division for a good part of the year before faltering. This was pretty amazing when you consider that the best ERA among our regular starters was Kevin Correia's 4.55! Starting pitching was much worse than expected across the board, no doubt aided by Angel Field's "Devilishly" strong winds blowing out every day. When the team led late, David Aardsma and Neftali Feliz were reliable in protecting the leads. Brad Hawpe and Miguel Cabrera led the hitters, and Ian Kinsler also hit 30 HRs. Ageless Scott Podsednik proved a capable leadoff man with a .371 OBP. For next year, the pitchers signed a petition asking to move to PETCO, and management dutifully accepted!

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 47 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

To paraphrase Dickens ... it was the worst of times for the Haymaker fans this season. Glenmont finished with a dismal 98 losses, 32 games out of first. Hitting wasn't the problem this season as Jason Kubel led the team with a .322 avg and Adam Lind slugged 31 homers. Unfortunately, the pitching was abysmal. Middle relief wasn't bad, but the starters ERA was north of five and my "closers" ERA was over six and blew half as many games as they saved! Changes are already happening as Gaylord Perry has been tabbed to succeed Ed Whitson as pitching coach with hopes that he can "doctor up" the staff.

LAKE WOBEGONE Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 50 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The Lake Wobegone mismanagement spent too much time planning a wedding and staring at Stephen Strasberg and not enough time paying attention to the games on the field. The team began 18-51 through early June, but then had a prolonged streak of over .500 (41-34). Then, the mismanagement traded away two key players, Jamie Carroll and John Buck, so EW, I mean LW, collapsed with a 5-11 finish. Team LVP was by far Daisuke Matsuzaka who lost his first 14 decisions with an ERA over 10, but “rallied” to finish 3-18 with an 8.23 ERA. Unquestionably, Felipe Paulino of Glenmont (4-19, 9.04) takes the Sigh Young. But, the wife had a nice wedding, a house, and a fireplace, so there’s plenty more to distract management!

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 27 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

It was a frustrating season for the Danes, finishing 20 games behind Rensselaer in the Robinson Division. One bright spot was Ichiro Suzuki taking the Triple Crown away from Albert Pujols in the last series of the season by winning the batting title with a .359 average. Ichiro finished with yet another 200+ hit season. Madison's bullpen was also strong, with especially strong showings by Mike Adams and closer Joakim Soria. The Danes look forward to next season, with a promising pitching staff, coupled with the wrath of 7th round pick, and starting shortstop Alex Gonzalez.

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 14 Occupation: Student

The Season Story

Where can I get started on how the Gators did? Well, let's see. This year the Gators went 56-104, last year they went 63-97. How much worse could they get? Probably the best batter with more than 300 AB was Alexei Ramirez (.274 Avg. 157 H 10 HR). Kevin Youkilis had a terrible year batting (.241 Avg., 117 H, 28 HR). I can also thank Mike MacDougal for our great run. He led the league in blown save percentage (.417). Another great statistic was his 20 wild pitches. How could a closer have 20 wild pitches? He had more than most starters! We're ready for the youth movement with the retirement of Griffey and Anderson, and some promising young starters.

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 60 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

The outlook wasn't brilliant for the Mudville team this year. After a 90 win season a year ago, it was back to the division cellar and the rebuilding table for the Nine. Looking for bright spots, they were a model of consistency going 34 - 46 both at home and on the road. Looking ahead, rookies Elvis Andrus, Josh Thole, and Julio Borbon show promise and CF Alex Rios is due to bounce back. On the pitching side, Brandon Morrow, Ricky Nolasco, and James McDonald may lead the way to a winning record in Mudville next year.

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 45 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was another disappointing season for the Supercells, although a strong finish allowed them to end up 2nd in the Williams Division. Kendry Morales was the offensive star, finishing with a .341 average with 34 homers and 111 RBI's. Mike Lowell and Matt Holliday both had solid, if not spectacular, seasons. Matt Cain led the pitching staff with 12 victories and a 3.96 ERA. Jarrod Washburn was the only other pitcher to win over 10 games, recording 11 victories. Bobby Jenks saved 29 games, but also had 9 blown saves. Dan Wheeler had a solid season out of the bullpen, and was 3rd on the team with 9 victories.

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 40 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Well, another year passed and the Diamond Cats found themselves in familiar territory, the litter box in the basement! Despite another poor finish, team management is starting to see some glimmers off of the jeweled cats. The pitching and defense this season were both much improved. Now, if management can just figure out a way to purchase bats that don't have holes in them or magnets the direct baseballs directly to the fielders, the Diamond Cats will be in business! There were some bright spots, Zach Greinke had a tremendous year on the mound and Freddy Sanchez lead almost every offensive (pun intended) category. Perth will continue to build on its every expanding core of young talent and hopes to be more competitive next season.

RENSSELAER Strikers

Manager: Joe Nocera (Donna)

Age: 36 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

Rensselaer's trademark "everyone plays" style led the team to the Robinson Division crown. Part-timer's Vizquel (191 ABs, .445 AVG) and Torres (197 ABs, 15 HR, 52 RBI) powered the offense v. LHP. McCann (99 RBI) and Pena (.379 OBP, 35 HR) led the offense v. RHP. The pitching was led by Carpenter (17 W, 2.70 ERA, 6 Sho), who was the only consistent starter, and Rivera (31 Sv, 1.97 ERA), who was once again a dominant closer. In the playoffs, Rensselaer fell in 6 to the mighty Toxic squad and their barrage of RHP which kept the Rensselaer bats in check. A playoff run next season is unlikely in Rensselaer. The pitching should be decent, but the offense will likely be lacking.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 44 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Asked before the start of the season, Manager Chapman laughed at the odds of returning to the Series. Well, who's laughing now? Not Arkansas or Walla Walla, each eliminated by the Chinooks! Despite a 4-1 thrashing by Carolina in the championship, it was by no means a disappointing season. The playoff run was fueled by late season MVP Delmon Young, and the arms of 20 game winners Lincecum and Kazmir. We celebrated the retirement of the last original Chinook, Gary Sheffield, whose locker is currently being decontaminated by the EPA. Lady Gaga and Justin Bieber have been signed for the gala opening of the new stadium next year. Unfortunately, due to the size of their egos, the outfield walls had to be moved out.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 60 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Two words describe the highlight of the Squires' season: Albert Pujols. The team MVP had a TML career year, narrowly missing the Triple Crown, with a .357 BA, 66 HRs and 162 RBI. The rest of the offense performed well, posting a .283 team BA, but the pitching was not quite enough to carry 'Skayuna past the Division-newcomer Wombats. Still, we gave them a run for their money, and look forward to coming back with a revamped staff next season.

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 57 Occupation: Part-time Prof./Meteorologist-Retired

The Season Story

The Toxins cruised to the division title on a strong regular season (104 wins) and managed to get past Rensselaer in the first round of the playoffs, only to run into the “Cinderella” (and eventual TML Champ) Carolina in the Conference Finals. Still, it was a great season. Newly acquired Scott Rolen (.328) led the team in batting, but it was Mark Teixeira (44 2B, 35 HR, 113 RC) who was the best offensive producer. Raul Ibanez (39 HR, 93 RC) and Felipe Lopez (49 2B, 99 RC) provided added punch. Carl Crawford continues to “fight” DMB, as it continues to hold him back in SBs. The “Hurt Man” award goes to DeWayne Wise, with a league leading 31 HBP in only 149 ABs! Javier Vazquez (22-6) was the “Ace” of the staff, followed by Mark Buehrle (18-11) and Andy Pettitte (16-4). Once we got Ted Lilly (14-7) out of Yankee Stadium (too many HRs), he settled down. George Sherrill (2.18) and “Fireman of the Year” C.J. Wilson (50 SV) secured many of the victories for the starters.

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 63 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT)

The Season Story

Another winning season for the Traffic Dodgers, but the second straight in which they missed the Playoffs. Poor play at Home hurt most, as they won only 36 in their park, while winning 46 on the Road. They were League leaders in Team AVG at .286, but 14th in ERA, with mediocre starting pitching and worse than expected help from the bullpen. Aging superstar Derek Jeter put up All-Star numbers once again, but a youth movement is in order for this franchise if they are to return to playoff contention.

VALPARAISO Drench

Manager: Alan Srock

Age: 29 Occupation: Grad Student/Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was a somewhat disappointing year for the Drench, as the playoff-caliber team barely missed a wild-card spot. Adrian Gonzalez was the star of the team, smashing the previous home run record and leading the team in nearly every batting category. Swisher, Bay, and Utley also contributed some excellent performances of their own. On the pitching side, the 1-2-3 punch of Hernandez, Floyd, and Gorzelanny kept the Drench competitive and in contention throughout, and a strong bullpen kept a lot of games within reach. With a few new faces already on the roster, the Drench will likely undergo a minor overhaul during the off-season to regroup and rebuild for a championship run in the near future!

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 43 Occupation: Financial Advisor/Personal Trainer

The Season Story

The year was a good accomplishment for the team, as it went all the way to game 7 of the LCS, unable to defend their title. Individually it was a season of disappointment. Clearly favored to win the division the Wombats limped through the season winning the division by 3 games over 'Skayuna. The pitching which was arguably the best rotation in the entire TML 1 through 5, was led by only one pitcher with an ERA under 4.00 (Cliff Lee 3.97) and featured a supposed number two with an ERA of 6.19 (Cole Hamels). Ryan Dempster led the club with 16 wins. The offensive story wasn't much different. Michael Bourn had an incredible year hitting .300 and stealing 85 bases. Russell Branyan hit a team high 31 home runs in only 414 at-bats.

Stat Key

RC: runs created (RC = [A times B] divided by C), where,

$A = H + W + HBP - CS - GDP$

$B = TB + .26 \times (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 \times (SH + SF + SB)$

$C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF$

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or fewer.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

◆ - TML Record

◇ - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a caret (^) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
