9/28/2010, DT10-RS10, Fenway Park

Career ERA leader Striker Mariano Rivera now leads in career GR (872) and saves (429).

---

10/28/2010, BV10-SS10, Busch Stadium

Mike Dickinson's Beverly Hillbillies captured their 3rd TML Championship in defeating Hank Pedicone's 'Skayuna Squires in the TML World Series. The Hillbillies rode the arms of their deep starting staff in the early rounds, sweeping Toxic Waste and then coming from behind to beat Valparaiso to get to the World Series, where their clutch hitting took over when the pitching faltered. 'Skayuna had been on a roll, upsetting Walla Walla and Danny Way, on their way to what they had hoped would be their first TML World Series appearance.

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 54 Occupation: Financial Analyst

The Season Story

The Avalanche ran as hard as they could, but still were outclassed by nearly everyone in the TML field. 210 steals paced by league leader Hanley Ramirez (51) and Chase Headley (45) were not enough to offset anemic hitting and charitable pitching. There were a few pleasant surprises. Headley batted .295 and scored 102 runs. Matt Kemp hit 32 homers and drove in 109 runs. The pitching was bad. Only Fausto Carmona pitched well as a starter (3.55 ERA), and that could only net him 10 wins. The closer by committee approach left rookie Chris Sale with 10 saves. Bronson Arroyo capped his AV career with 11 wins, but was traded for his efforts. Lots of decent picks this year for Albany could jump start the rebuilding process.

AMSTERDAM Yankees

Manager: Joel DiTata

Age: 24 Occupation: Graduate Student

The Season Story

While Amsterdam fell short of it's goal to make the playoffs in year number two of TML Baseball, they did take steps in the right direction. They will strive for the same goal again next season while attempting to become younger through the draft. With several players in the prime of their career, Amsterdam will have a great blend of veteran players along with up and coming young talent to hopefully take winning to the next level.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 68 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

After a stretch of strong seasons, including one title, Travelers start a rebuilding process and suffer grievously. The future looks brighter however as a young, promising group heals and gains experience.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

TAL Champion

Age: 42 Occupation: Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Hillbillies spent the much of the season underwhelming and underperforming remaining on the outside of the playoff chase through August. The team's fortunes changed in September when everything clicked offensively and defensively resulting in a charge for a playoff spot. The team continued the hot play in the playoffs on the way to an unexpected World Series title. The Hillbillies calling card is a strong pitching staff with Justin Verlander, Roy Halladay, and rookie Tommy Hanson anchoring the rotation. Rookie flamethrower Kenley Jansen and veteran Huston Street kept the bullpen together. Joey Votto and John Buck led a solid offensive attack. Management hopes the run of success continues as the pitching staff looks to be even stronger next season. The Hillbillies will spend the offseason looking to add offensive help to support another title run.

BRANDON BigWeezMachine

Manager: Kyle Weisser (Lisa)

Age: 41 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The first run at a .500+ record for Brandon falls a game short by losing the last three games of the season. Torri Hunter lead the way with a solid season, ripping 31 homers with a .302 average. The remainder of the offense did fairly well with respect to power but fell short on average and on base average. The real disappointment came from the starting pitching staff which significantly underperformed. Only one starting pitcher came in below 4.00, Kershaw with a 3.96. Not to mention Heath Bell's 11 blown saves which really left a dent in the final record. While this season looked like it could be THE season for Brandon, results were much lower than expectations. And unfortunately next season looks like the skill levels will fall back to previous years leaving Brandon once again building for a better tomorrow.

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 62 Occupation: Field Supervisor J.C.I.

The Season Story

The high point of the year was the draft in landing Buster Posey. In spite of his real life injury the front office would do it all over again. And the much criticized pick up of Freddy Garcia worked out a tad better than the trade for Felipe Lopez. The old Costanza 50/50. A long, long season and it is lonely at the bottom of the barrel. Things will be much better offensively next year with Ellsbury rebounding after a disaster filled 2010. Now, if we can keep more than a few of the parts healthy, Burleigh might inch up a spot in the 24 team standings. Thanks to Mike and Pat for keeping the ship of state sailing smoothly and Goodbye to ManRam. Miss you big guy!!

CAROLINA Crawfish

Manager: Carl Schreck (Mary)

Age: 30 Occupation: Research Meteorologist

The Season Story

After their thrilling World Series run, this year was a bit of a let down in Carolina. Just six games below .500 was enough to plummet the Crawfish into the basement of a tough Gatto division. The biggest drop off came in the pitching staff. "Ace" Brett Anderson was dogged by injuries as he went 6-8 in his sophomore campaign. John Lackey (3.21, 11-6) stepped it up this year, but he didn't have a lot of help. Carolina fans still have plenty to keep them hopeful though. Captain Joe Mauer had another solid year, while youngsters Justin Upton & Jay Bruce continued to grow into their roles. With the Gatto division not getting any easier, the Crawfish will be happy just to be back in the chase for the wildcard next year.

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 53 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Thanks to a deep bullpen lead by Rafael Soriano (32 SV) the Crabs had a respectable season, finishing above .500 and contending for the Gehrig Division title, coming up 5 games short. Jered Weaver (3.63 ERA, 16-15 in 34 starts) was the workhorse of the starters. Adam Dunn (36 HR) had a productive year but otherwise the offense didn't scare anybody, with a paltry .250 BA and .329 OBP. These guys look like one-year wonders, however; next year looks bleak, with Dunn's collapse and 3/5ths of the bullpen on the shelf.

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 64 Occupation: Program Manager

The Season Story

Offensive explosion in the Diamond Park led the team to a league best record 103-57, with a road record 9 games better than their home record. MVP candidate Josh Hamilton led the league in hitting at .383 but the team as a whole led the league in hitting at .281, obp .355, runs 961, 2bs 363, rbis 931, walks 634, and tied for HRs at 211. Hamilton wasn't a one-man show as Cano led the league with 148 RBIs and Werth scored 141 runs. Four players had more than 100 RBIs and 3 players scored more than 100 runs. Longoria led the league with 62 2bs, and Longoria and Werth tied for the league with 93 xbase hits. Danny Way's pitching staff was led by league leader Adam Wainwright with a 25-4 record. The rest of the staff was unremarkable and relied on the Diamond's 6 runs a game offense to secure their winning records. It was a remarkable offensive season.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle

Age: 47 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

A disappointing season for Duluth. Although it was known that the move to Petco would hamper offense, it seemed that Duluth's hitters (with the exceptions of Miguel Cabrera and Ian Kinsler) were especially chilled by the park's dimensions. Duluth's pitchers did not seem to be helped as much as their hitters were hurt, as both David Price and Ian Kennedy disappointed on the hill, with Price suffering from gopherball-itis early in the season. However, Mat Latos and R. A. Dickey had fine seasons, and Stephen Strasburg mostly impressed in his 12 starts. Neftali Feliz led all closers with 39 saves, while David Aardsma and Joba Chamberlain were fine setup men.

The Season Story

It was a nice rebound season as the Haymakers finished strong winning the division by 11 games. Pitching was the Haymakers calling card with Clay Buchholz leading the way with 15 wins and 2.17 ERA. Jhoulys Chacin chipped in nicely going 10-1 with an ERA under 2. Unfortunately pitching was not enough to advance in the playoffs as the haymakers lost to Valparaiso in 7 games. A return to the playoffs next season looks unlikely.

LAKE WOBEGONE Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 51 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The Lake Wobegone season was a travesty of statistics everywhere. With loads of limited players and no emerging outfielders, the staring rabbits ended up playing Mike McCoy and Luis Durango full-time. Staring was a good adjective for McCoy's batting style. He was so bad that Aaron Hill, not exactly Pujolsian, ended up in the top 5 of intentional walks. However, when they reached, these rabbits did far more than stare with three players over 30 stolen bases. With the player limits and the physical limits, as well as the God-awful starting pitching, it was a fun challenge to keep the team going. However, the deep bullpen, led by Fireman of the Year candidate Brian Wilson and his evil beard (35-37 in save opportunities, 0.89 ERA), and the constant pinch hitting kept LW close in many games. So, it was a fun year to over manage the team. Two studs have emerged for 2011, Matt Joyce and Lance Berkman. We'll see if the idiot manager actually keeps them.

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

The Season Story

It was a .500 finish for the Danes this year, but after trading for slugger Prince Fielder in the off-season, the team hopes to have more offensive punch in the coming years. The bullpen was Madison's biggest strength in 2011, with Soria, Loe, Casilla, and Thatcher really getting it done in the late innings. Certainly the highlight of the season was a perfect game by Roy Oswalt versus the division rival Strikers...only the third perfect game in TML history. In 2012, the Danes hope that their offense will pick up, which means they'll have to do better than playing someone like Justin Maxwell (.139/.274/.228) in CF for half their games!

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 15 Occupation: High School Student

The Season Story

This seemed like the Gators year to go to the playoffs. The Gators were leading the division until the last month, but they managed to blow it in the last month. This year there was a sign of life in the Gators pitching. Jonathan Sanchez was a 20 game winner this year for the Gators (20-8). Ricky Romero (18-7) led the starting staff with a 2.68 ERA. The offensive leaders for the Gators were Mike Stanton (.240, 29 HR), Alexei Ramirez (.304, 19 HR), and Colby Rasmus (.292, 22 HR). However, to go along with that .292 AVG for Rasmus were 150 whiffs! The Gators went from 56-104 to 88-72, a huge improvement over last year. Hopefully, with some young talent, they will perform even better next year!

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 61 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Vini, vidi, non vici. My apologies to those who can read Latin. But the point is, we came, we saw we didn't conquer. This team really put the mud in Mudville. Despite pre-season hopes of winning 80 to 82 games, it was not to be. We only missed by 20 games however, so next season may prove even better. Unless we have even more under performers next year than we did this year.

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 46 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was another long season for the Supercells as they limped home to a last place finish in the Williams Division. There were not many highlights, but Mike Napoli did connect for 34 homers and 106 RBI's, and Matt Holliday hit an even .300 for the season. On the mound, Matt Cain led the way with 10 victories, and Bobby Jenks recorded 20 saves, but both hurlers had ERA's over 4.

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

The Season Story

The Perth Diamond Cats' 2011 season wasn't successful, but it was a success! This season was winningest season under Manager Syzdek and Perth hopes to continue to move things in a positive direction. As expected, Carlos Gonzalez was the stud for Perth this season leading almost every offensive category. Zack Greinke was again Perth's best starting pitcher and Carlos Marmol was able to pick up 28 saves this season. Another milestone reached this season saw Manager Syzdek become the second longest serving manager in franchise history. Perth will continue to work on filling holes in the roster and continue looking for that second playoff berth in franchise history!

RENSSELAER Strikers

Manager: Joe Nocera (Donna)

2012 Team Name Change

Age: 36 Occupation: Scientific Programmer Vanderlyle Crybaby Geeks

The Season Story

It was a rough start and a rough end to the season in Rensselaer. Despite a weak-hitting offense, the Strikers were in 1st place heading into September. The wheels then fell off the wagon as Rensselaer went 6-20 (2-14 against eventual division champs Glenmont) in September and topped things off by having a perfect game tossed against them by Madison's Roy Oswalt in October. The starting pitching led by Carpenter (35 GS, 3.55 ERA), Lowe (33 GS, 3.32 ERA) and Cueto (31 GS, 3.55 ERA) was solid all season, while Mariano Rivera (2.10 ERA, 32 Sv) had another fine season. A relocation plan is in the works. The Rensselaer fans have had enough of this overpromising, underperforming team. Nevertheless, expectations are still high that an improved pitching staff will lead the franchise back to the post-season next year.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 45 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The arms of the staff (3.56 ERA) managed to carry an otherwise offensively mediocre team into the playoffs. However, the magic of the last two seasons was gone, and despite a heroic effort by the starters, the bullpen and bats failed like a Kim Kardashian marriage. Team MVP Delmon Young had a monster regular (.314 BA, 46-0-22) and post-season, probably because he didn't have to concentrate on fielding. Again, for some reason, the Chinooks did not like their new home digs as well as the road. As a result, GM Chapman was giving serious thought to scheduling all games next season on the road.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 61 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

The Squires took advantage of unusually good pitching (for 'Skayuna) to advance to a rare playoff appearance via the wild card, leading to their first-ever divisional series win, the Oceanic Conference championship and a trip to the TML World Series (losing in 6 to Beverly). No arms fell off as the staff posted a 3.52 overall ERA, good for 3rd best in the TML (and monkeys can write Shakespeare if they keep at it long enough!). Tim Hudson anchored the staff with a 2.67 ERA and 20 wins, while Billy Wagner posted 28 saves in his farewell season. Albert Pujols was again the key to the offense, despite having an "off" year, with 33 homers and 103 RBI, but only managed an anemic .262 BA. Management will be studying the field of available talent looking toward the future, as many of this year's squad will be moving on.

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 58 Occupation: Retired/Part-time Prof./Softball Player

The Season Story

What a bizzare season! Somehow, the Toxins managed to capture the Gehrig Division crown, despite having losing records to division rivals Chesapeake (6-10) and Traffic (7-9). Carl Crawford had a "career year," but was still afraid to attempt steals in the "DMB Universe." Just about every other regular did not take advantage of their home ballpark. The unlikely "Ace" of the pitching staff was Livan Hernandez (18-6). The rest of the starters had rough seasons. The road/home closer tandem of Koji Uehara and Brian Fuentes combined for nearly 50 RPs. The season came crashing down in the Conference Semi-final against Beverly, in what was the worst playoff appearance ever for this franchise. The Toxins managed only 3 runs in the 4-game sweep! Serious changes are in order, the first of which is to implode the home (hitters') ballpark and build a new more "neutral" one!

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 64 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT)

The Season Story

A Division contender for most of the Season, ultimately it was the lack of quality starting pitching and inconsistent relief pitching that led to the third place .500 Divisional finish for the Traffic Dodgers. The batting lineup remained fairly solid, with the aging veterans combining with the younger stars for a fourth place batting average finish in the League. Good news for the Dodgers is that the hitting should be as good or better next year; bad news is that just the opposite can be said for the pitching. As usual, the Draft and possible trades will determine how well and how long the Dodgers will contend next Season.

VALPARAISO Drench

Manager: Alan Srock

Age: 30 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Drench had an excellent regular season again, posting over 100 wins and the top record in the Atmospheric Conference. The team was led by Jim Thome, who posted a .351/.495/.810 line in the regular season with 36 HR, and an even better line in the playoffs! Adrian Gonzalez and Adrian Beltre anchored the corners, both in terms of fielding and batting. Solid starting pitching was led by Gavin Floyd and Felix Hernandez, while the relief core was anchored by Wilton Lopez. This team stays mostly intact for next year, so the Drench should stay in the hunt in 2012!

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 44 Occupation: Financial Advisor/Personal Trainer

The Season Story

Another 100 win season for the Wombats ended up in a quick exit from the playoffs from division runner up 'Skyuna in extra innings in game 7. The Wombats got a great season from Carl Pavano going 21-5 with a league leading 2.16 ERA. Jeremy Guthrie, Ryan Dempster and Cole Hamels all won more than 15 games as well. The offense was paced by Nick Markakis (.314/.391/.460). Alex Rodriguez (30/109) and Paul Konerko (38/100) both had over 30 HRs and 100 RBIs.

Stat Key

RC: runs created (RC = [A times B] divided by C), where,

$$A = H + W + HBP - CS - GIDP$$

$$B = TB + .26 \times (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 \times (SH + SF + SB)$$

$$C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF$$

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or fewer.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

◆ - TML Record

◇ - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a caret (^) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
