Traffic's Derek Jeter became the 8th member of the "3,000 Hit Club" now with 3107 hits. Valparaiso's Jim Thome moved to #3 on the career HR list (617) and #2 for RC (2007). Rensselaer's Mariano Rivera still leads in career GR (930) and saves (466).

10/28/2011, WW11-BV11, Comerica Park
Mike Dickinson's Beverly Hillbillies successfully defended their TML Championship, capturing their 4th TML Championship in defeating Bryan Sakolsky's Walla Walla Wombats in TML World Series in 7 games! G-7 was a 12-inning nail-biter, won by Beverly, 2-1. The Hillbillies rode the arms of their deep starting staff in getting by division rival Valparaiso in 6 games and sweeping Traffic in the Conference Final. The Hillbilly staff ERA for the entire post season was a stellar 2.28. Walla Walla had gotten a scare from Rocky Mountain in the first round, winning in Game 7, 7-0. Then, Walla Walla was taken to the full limit again by Danny Way, winning Game 7, 10-5. This was the first time since 2007 that the two regular season best record teams actually met in the TML World Series!

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 55 Occupation: Financial Analyst

The Season Story

The season was a pleasant surprise if any 72 win season could be called pleasant. Matt Kemp made a decent run at a triple crown before fading late. Chase Headley and Handley Ramirez turned in stellar half seasons. Old pro Josh Willingham hit 21 homers. Albany ran with abandon and broke the TML steals record *and* the TML caught stealing record because they were not particularly good at it. The less said about the pitching, the better. Less. Three pitchers won double digits in games despite ERAs ranging from 5.13 to 6.93. As I said, the hitting was nice. Next year Mike Trout, Headley, Willingham and Kemp will form a solid nucleus. At least we have two starters next year - Chris Sale and Matt Moore. A rise to .500 is possible. Here's hoping the draft is deep.

AMSTERDAM Yankees

Manager: Joel DiTata

Age: 25 Occupation: Graduate Student

The Season Story

Since joining TML, Amsterdam had their finest season to date by making the playoffs for the first time in their team history. Carried by Jose Bautista, Amsterdam finally made it to the postseason. Along with Bautista; Billy Butler, Carlos Lee, Edwin Encarnacion, and many other bats, led this team to great offensive output. While the starting pitching wasn't excellent, combined with an excellent bullpen, the Amsterdam pitching did an exceptional job. Amsterdam will continue to work toward becoming a better overall team and competing for more than just a playoff spot.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 69 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

Travs finished 71-89, not good but 10 games better than last year. The future looks better with promising youngsters Freddie Freeman, Kyle Seager, Ivan Nova, Ruby De la Rosa and other young veterans. With three early picks in the upcoming draft, Arkansas' future looks on the bright side.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

TML Champion x2

Age: 43 Occupation: Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Outstanding pitching and timely hitting throughout the season propelled the Hillbillies to the top record in the league. The trio of Halladay (26 wins), Verlander (23 wins), and Haren (18 wins) anchored the top pitching staff in the league. Kenley Janson and Huston Street led a solid bullpen. Offensively Joey Votto, Mike Morse and Jhonny Peralta led a solid lineup. The combination of great pitching and decent offense allowed the Hillbillies to win the TML Championship. The Hillbillies have had an amazing run but it seems that the team is headed on the downside due to age or injury. The challenge will be trying to determine if I can squeeze another playoff run out of the current group.

BRANDON BigWeezMachine

Manager: Kyle Weisser (Lisa)

Age: 42 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Another disappointing effort from the BigWeezMachine ending the stretch run with a terrible 2 and 14 finish. The teams two stars shined darkest this season with Clayton Kershaw posting a 5.00+ ERA and Ryan Braun coming in with a sub .300 BA and less than 30 home runs. For the most part Alexi Ogando and Alex Avila were the small bright spots on the team. Some big offseason moves will need to be made to bring any improvement to the struggling BigWeezMachine.

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 63 Occupation: Field Supervisor J.C.I. (soon to be retired again)

The Season Story

All in all, in spite of everything, it wasn't that bad. The long road back to respectability continued with the drafting for Brett Lawrie who should provide a nucleus with Buster Posey and whomever I am lucky enough to draft in February. All the years of bailing on the draft came back to haunt Burleigh this year. Jacoby Ellsbury had an expected good year and Casey Kotchman was a BIG surprise, but NO pitching surely showed but kudos to Sean Marshall for being a Rose among all the thorns. The final Diner Duke Off with Mike with half of Waterford watching was a blast!! Thanks to Mike for his firm and inspired leadership for the past 33 years and let us hope for 33 more!!

CAROLINA Crawfish

Manager: Carl Schreck (Mary)

The Season Story

A strange season in Carolina. The Crawfish broke 90 wins for just the third time ever, and still fell 4 games short of Valpo for the wildcard. In the madness, fans are begging the TML to add a second wild card -- How preposterous! Playoffs aside, the Crawfish really shined this year. Doug Fister anchored a strong rotation and set a franchise record with his 2.42 ERA. And the bullpen really came together around Hanrahan, Benoit, and Pestano. Joe Mauer was plagued by injuries this year, so he volunteered to share captain duties with Ben Zobrist. Carolina expects to keep most of their major pieces this off-season with the hopes of making another run at the playoffs--no matter how many wildcards there are!

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 54 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Alleged contenders as the season started, the 2011 Micmacs limped to a .500 record thanks mostly because they played Toxic Waste and Burleigh 32 times. The pitching staff was respectable, lead by Shields (17-9) and Storen (35 SV), although John Danks (5-16 6.01 ERA) was a disappointment. The offense had some pop (40 HR from Reynolds and 30 from McCutchen) but what did CH in was their fielding, last in fielding average and with 85 unearned runs allowed.

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 65 Occupation: Program Manager

The Season Story

The Danny Way offense carried the team in 2012 - they scored 860 runs the most in the TML American by 37 runs. However, they gave up 728 runs, most of all the playoff teams. DW finished third in the league in hitting at .282 and second in home runs with 198. Michael Young and Robinson Cano finished at .321, tied for second in the league. Cano led the team in runs with 114 and in RBI with 124. JJ Hardy led the team in HRs with 32. The weak DW pitching staff was led by Scott Baker who was 14-2 with a 2.99 ERA. The DW stopper, Ziegler had a 1.09 ERA in 48 games with 23 saves. Next season looks like more of the same with the offense being very good and the pitching weak.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 48 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

A good season but not enough to win a tough division. Miguel Cabrera was the key man on offense, but Duluth's strength lay in its moundsmen, with Price, Kennedy, Latos, and Collmenter all having fine seasons. R.A. Dickey threw too many gopher balls in lieu of knuckle balls; a better season by him might have made the difference in the team's final standing. Another key disappointment was Ian Kinsler, who just barely lifted his batting average to .200 in the season's final month, while also slugging and getting on base less than expected. One more potent bat, a reliable closer, and less homerun balls by R.A. are the keys for the Thundercats to succeed in 2012.

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 49 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

It appears that last's seasons first place finish is but a distant memory. The 2012 Haymakers finished last in their division and had the 5th worst record in the league! Haymakers batters were "Kingmanesque" as GL led the league in both HR's and whiffs. Team MVP Asdrubal Cabrera led the team with 27HR, 30doubles and 16SB. "Ace" Brandon McCarthy led the team with a 12-7 record and was the only starter with a winning record. Embattled Manager/GM Dave Vollaro tossed out these words of wisdom on next season.. "Hope and Change, "Don't stop thinking about tomorrow", and "Stay the course"... It must be Election season...

LAKE WOBEGONE Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 52 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Thanks to a nice deal with Albany, Lake Wobegon actually had talent on one side of the ball: offense. Both Lance Berkman and Adam Jones created 100+ runs (first since Lance Berkman in 2009) and Jones scored over 100 runs. Homer Bailey was an incredible workhorse, throwing 246 innings and actually posting a decent record (14-9 4.13 ERA) and Fernando Salas had a fine year in relief. Now, management has a choice to keep the strong offense and try and contend in the Gong Show Division or sell some guys high and retool. Thus far, general manager Weisman seems to be following the 63rd Ferengi Rule of Acquisition: do both and neither. (Thanks to Jim, Mike L., and Pat B., especially around draft time, for consideration while my daughter had multiple surgeries.)

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 29 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The playoffs were JUST out of reach for Madison this year, as the Danes won 91 games, but finished one game behind Vanderlyle in the Robinson Division. It all came down to two crucial October series, and a 16-inning loss against Glenmont sealed the deal. There were some excellent performances on the team this year, as Josh Beckett finished with an ERA of 2.72 and 19 wins, and new closer Mike Adams had 38 saves and a stellar 0.57 ERA. The Danes are currently without a shortstop, as Alex Gonzalez tore his ACL (who *didn't* tear their ACL?!), so the team will be shopping around this offseason and looking forward to next year!

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 16 Occupation: High School Student

The Season Story

At the beginning of the season, there was hope in view for the Gators making it to the playoffs. After the season started, they soon realized their dream of making it was actually a nightmare. The opening series exposed the Gators management to the fact their pitching staff was highly flammable. "Ace" Ricky Romero (9-15, 96 BB, 29 HR) anchored the staff, and the rest of the yahoos followed his example by giving up a total of 183 homeruns, with only a single reliever holding an ERA below 3.00. Thanks to the wonderful pitching staff, they clinched the 1st overall draft pick for the 2012 Draft. On the other side of the ball, the Gators offense was what you call "erratic". They would either score no runs or they would score 10+ runs. The Gators offense was led by the young Mike Stanton (41HR, 101RBIs) and Alex Gordon (.288Avg., 180Hits, 38 2Bs). Next season will hopefully end on a better note with the help of rookie sensation Bryce Harper.

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 62 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Another disappointing season for the Nine. Expecting to break the .500 mark, the team fell woefully short. The pitcher's did not flourish in a pitcher's park and the offense did not offend anyone other than the manager. The rebuilding continues.

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 47 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was another long and disappointing season for the Supercells. The team had hopes of competing in the weak Williams Division, but the inability to win the close games doomed them to a last place finish. Starlin Castro, Carlos Beltran, and David Ortiz led the team offensively, with Matt Holliday and Marlon Byrd having disappointing seasons. Matt Cain and Jeremy Hellickson were the best of a mediocre starting rotation. The bullpen was a disaster, with Mark Melancon trying to close games, and setup man Dan Wheeler more often than not setting the team up for another close loss. Franklin Morales, Will Ohman, and David Pauley were the only bright spots among the relievers.

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 42 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Well, another year onward and upward for the Diamond Cats. This year's version of the bedazzled felines finished just two games under .500! If Manager Syzdek stops serving beer and fried chicken in the club house, the Cats might have their first winning season under the current management. Perth's young talent is finally starting to develop and this roster should be poised to compete for a few years to come. There really wasn't an offensive star on the team this season as Perth's offense scored a decent amount of runs. Unfortunately, many times we gave up more than we scored! Cameron Maybin swiped 38 bags and was a terror for opposing defenses. Craig Kimbrel saved 32 games and Sergio Romo was an excellent set up man. Gio Gonzalez was the best starting pitcher for the Cats this year and Zack Greinke again lead the team in strikeouts. So, Perth heads into the off season looking to make some deals to plug some holes that still exist on the roster. Management also plans to use some reverse psychology treatments so that team actually wins at home like it is supposed to or, maybe, robomanager is the answer .....

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 46 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Chinooks survived an absolutely abysmal first two months by closer Axford and anemic hitting over the summer stretch, probably only due to playing in our equivalent of the old AL west. When push came to shove (and it actually did a couple of games), the bats came to life and pitching sharpened for an 11-5 September and another division title. No diminishing the feat due to a .500 record! Lest we not forget the key addition of Greg Holland to a struggling bullpen, for the price of having an ageless Arthur Rhodes hit the road. Fans were kept inspired by Seth Smith's team record (19) of the most exciting play in baseball, and Scott Hairston's raw power (14 HR in 144 AB!). Somewhat disappointing to come up a win short (a few unearned runs) to knocking off the top team in the conference. Next year not looking as good, but it may be good enough! In this division, who knows??

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

The Season Story

This was a very erratic season for 'Skayuna, with sweeps and near-sweeps in both directions, finishing at 80 up, 80 down. Once again, Albert Pujols paced the offense, with a .308 BA, 43 HRs and 114 RBI. Jeff Francoeur managed to hit 21 dingers, but not much else to report. No Squire pitcher won more than 14 games, but given the overall weak offense, was not too surprising. 'Skayuna will be looking to rebuild as they bid farewell to old favorite Derrek Lee and others. As usual, the Squires will be searching for pitchers whose arms will stay attached for a full season!

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 59 Occupation: Retired/Part-time Prof./Softball Player

The Season Story

After a series of very disappointing post-season appearances, management made some serious off-season moves to bring some youth onto the roster, especially in the pitching department. The end result was a 110+ loss season and a basement finish. It was the franchise's first losing season since 2004. The lone batting star was Mark Teixeira, who belted 47 HRs and drove in 103. However, Jack Wilson was 2nd in batting average among the "regulars" ... so that sums up the anemic offense. The pitching duties were primarily handled by last season's "Ace" Livan Hernandez, Andy Sonnanstine, and newcomers Kyle Drabek and Danny Duffy. The team nearly ended up with four 20-game losers! (As a result of the two youngsters being overworked, both Drabek and Duffy are headed to TJ surgery!) The focus over the next 4 to 5 years will be on *youth* ... with the hopes that this re-building plan will be as successful as the one from 2001-2004 that culminated in a TML Championship in 2005. Plans are still in the works for a new stadium. Look for some bake sales and memorabilia auctions.

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 65 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT)

The Season Story

The Traffic Dodgers were a mild surprise this year, winning 90 games, their Division by 10 games and competing to the Conference Finals. Team batting led the way (League leaders at .288), with 9 regulars over .280 - and the ageless Derek Jeter at .318. Relief pitching was decent, but the starting pitching was mediocre, save the excellent 18-5 from Jeff Karstens. We'll bid fond farewell to long time Dodger stars Vlad Guerrero and Francisco Cordero, and hope to fill with some youthful starting pitching. The good hitting, the bullpen and the very good outfield defense should keep the Dodgers competitive once again next year.

VALPARAISO Drench

Manager: Alan Srock

The Season Story

Another strong season from the Drench ends in the first round of the playoffs. The most noteworthy performance was Gavin Floyd's 20-win season, the first for the franchise in 15 years. Solid pitching from both starters and relievers helped the team reach 96 wins and the wild-card berth. The offense was led by Pedroia, Gonzalez, and Thome, who each posted 25 HR; unfortunately, much of the rest of the offense was underwhelming. Drench management has decided to look toward the future, so expect a lot of new faces to take the field next year!

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Donna)

Age: 38 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

A relocation to Vanderlyle proved to be just what the newly named Crybaby Geeks needed to return to the post-season. With a little help from the Thundercats, the Geeks were able to squeeze out a division title over an upstart Danes team. The Geeks used a combination of solid pitching and hitting to win the division. The pitching staff was led by starters Chris Carpenter (15-8, 3.42 ERA) and Randy Wolf (15-8, 3.52 ERA) and star closer Mariano Rivera (37 Sv, 2.74 ERA). The offense was a true team effort as no one player drove in or scored more than 90 runs. The Geeks return to the post-season was brief as they were knocked out in 6 games by the dynastic Beverly franchise in the conference semi-finals. There figures to be a lot of crying in Vanderlyle next season as the Geeks embark on a rebuilding program.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 45 Occupation: Financial Advisor

The Season Story

The season turned out to be quite a surprise as the Wombats ran away with the Steinmetz winning by 30 games and sporting a .700 road winning percentage. The team marched through the playoffs only to succumb to the Hillbillies in part due to some very unlikely occurrences. No single batter really excelled though Nick Markakis hit .340 and the club had 5 players hit over 20 home runs. Michael Bourn again led the league in stolen bases with 67. Pitching was all about the bullpen winch featured four relievers with sub-2.50 ERAs and both Rafael Betancourt and Jonathan Papelbon had over 20 saves. Jordan Zimmermann went an outstanding 17-3 in only 26 starts.

Stat Key

RC: runs created (RC = [A times B] divided by C), where,

A = H + W + HBP - CS - GDP

B = TB + .26 x (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 x (SH + SF + SB)

C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or fewer.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

◆ - TML Record

◇ - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a caret (^) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
