10/26/2012, AV11-BV11, Comerica Park
 Mike Dickinson's Beverly Hillbillies once again successfully defended their TML Championship this time against Pat Barry's Albany Avalanche, thus becoming the first TML team to ever complete a "Three-peat!" It was Beverly's and Manager Dickinson's 5th TML Championship! As in past seasons, the Hillbillies rode the arms of their deep starting staff in getting by Duluth in 5 games and taking out Traffic in the Conference Final in 6. The Hillbilly staff ERA for the entire post season was a stellar 2.45. The post-season MVP was unquestionably Justin Verlander, who was 6-0, 1.20, with 47 K in 45 IP! Albany got to the TML World Series by edging Danny Way in 7 games and then rolling over Lake Wobegone in 5.

The Season Story

It was a surprising year. I was building this team for a few years down the road, then everything just broke right and the Avalanche was in the series. Mike Trout was fantastic, 37 homers 115 RBIs, 124 runs, Chase Headley was nearly as effective, 35 homers, 118 RBIs, 112 runs. Old reliable Josh Willingham, all he does is hit, contributed 35 homers and 95 ribbies. In 2/3 of a season, Matt Kemp hammer 31 homers. It was a fun team to play. Pitching was lead by Chris Sale (19-5 2.89), Matt Moore (15-6 3.38), and AJ Burnett (16-8 3.61) were spectacular and inning eater Bronson Arroyo happily munched his way to a 14-10 record. The bullpen by committee got the job done, Scott Atchison (10-1 19 saves) and JJ Hoover (2-3 10 saves) drew the most duty. Next year Albany's pitching gets quite a bit better, but the hitting regresses. Still enough for a playoff run, I hope.

AMSTERDAM Yankees

Manager: Joel DiTata

Age: 26 Occupation: Graduate Student

The Season Story

After a promising season of Amsterdam making the playoffs for the first time in its existence, the Yankees took a step back this past season. With some aging players, Amsterdam struggled to ever get on a serious roll. With that being said, the team still features a solid core nucleus with some of the brightest stars in baseball. Amsterdam will continue to work on obtaining young talent and return back to the playoffs.

The Season Story

Another disappointing season for the Travs but great optimism abounds for the future with the maturing and emergence of young players such as Freddy Freeman, Matt Carpenter, Ian Desmond, Kyle Seager, Yoanis Cespedes, et al. We fully expect to be in the thick of things in 2014.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

TML Champion x3

Age: 44 Occupation: Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Hillbillies were unsure what to expect heading into the season. The pitching was expected to be solid but there were some questions about the offense. What transpired was a season that far exceeded the preseason expectations resulting in a TML championship. Mainstay Justin Verlander earned the Pitcher of the Years. Kyle Lohse, Jake Peavy and old mainstay Roy Halladay combined to anchor the rotation. The Hillbilly bullpen-by-committee yielded 3 relievers with 10 or more saves. The offense was paced by a steroid-driven Melky Cabrera, Joey Votto, Ryan Zimmerman, and Andre Ethier. The Hillbillies have been on amazing run over the last three years it seems that the window is closing but what a ride it has been.

BRANDON BigWeezMachine

Manager: Kyle Weisser (Lisa)

2014 Team Name Change

Age: 43 Occupation: Meteorologist

Vienna Sausage

The Season Story

The BigWeezMachine remained in the weak Williams Division race through the Summer and then fell out of it toward the end of the season. Torii Hunter (.346, 107 RC) and the apparently “juiced” Ryan Braun (44 HR, 104 RBI, 117 RC) led the offensive attack. The departure of last year’s “Ace” Clayton Kershaw left the pitching staff in shambles. Aaron Harang took over “Ace” status and went 15-9, but had an ERA of 4.30. The primary reason that this ballclub stayed in the race as long as they did was due to supreme closer Fernando Rodney (0.40, 43 for 45 SVO, .188 OAVG), who had an outstanding season. This team will be under new management next season and will join the Gatto Division of the Atmospheric Conference. (Ed note: so that's what the “Machine” produces ... sausages! MGL)

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 64 Occupation: Portfolio Manager - Cushman and Wakefield

The Season Story

When you know that you are not going anywhere before the first pitch was even thrown you know it is going to be a long season. It was, but it was a lot of fun. The season was defined by the trade for the future with Willie so it was a wait to next year anyhow. Major difference this year was that were plenty of at bats and relief appearances to go around. Buster Posey was the easy team MVP and should get a lot of All Star consideration. Not much to talk about pitching wise other than to bid a fond farewell to Johann Santana and thanks for the memories Big Guy! Another great job by the league hierarchy as the TML heads into year 35 (and 48, 49 and 50).

CAROLINA Crawfish

Manager: Carl Schreck (Mary)

2014 Team Name Change

Age: 32 Occupation: Research Meteorologist

Murderous Crows

The Season Story

An exciting final season for the franchise in Carolina, culminating in its third trip to the post-season. The Crawfish failed to recapture the magic of their stunning World Series run from 2009, this time getting swept by the Traffic Dodgers. Even so, the Carolina faithful still had plenty to be proud of. Co-captains Joe Mauer and Ben Zobrist led the offense, hitting .288 and .287 despite the expansive Petco field. Meanwhile Doug Fister (12-9) and Edwin Jackson (17-9) anchored a rotation that again proved to be one of the best in the league. Next season, the franchise will be under the new management of the honorable Sir Cempa. Outgoing manager Carl Schreck wishes a fond farewell to his players, colleagues, and esp. the Carolina fans. Thanks for 9 years of great baseball!

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 55 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

2012 was a near carbon copy of the 2011 Steaming Crab season, just above .500 thanks once again to playing Burliegh and Toxic Waste 32 times (24-7 BB/TX, 58-71 vs the rest of the league). Player of the Year candidate Andrew McCutchen had an awesome season, at or near the top of most offensive categories. Part-timers Dirks, Bloomquist, Bonifacio and Jaso all hit above .300 and Ike Davis hit 40 HR to compliment McCutchen, unlike Mr. Adam Dunn (41 real-life HR, 19 DMB dingers). The pitching performed as expected, a decent bullpen and mediocre/average starting pitching, with Shields (17-10) the ace of the staff. Next year looks like more of the same.

A very good offense .277 team bavg (4th) and a solid pen (Pitching 6th in team era at 3.61 led the Diamonds to the playoffs. Robinson Cano led the team with a .345 avg, .410 obp, 57 doubles and 31 home runs, scored 119 runs and knocked in 99. Nelson Cruz was a major contributor with 58 doubles, 29 hrs, scored 106 runs and had 113 rbi. Josh Hamilton was a season long disappointment as he only hit .210 in DMB while in real life he hit .285. He did pound 28 hrs with 90 rs and 86 rbi. Wainwright led the team with 17 wins, Harrell with a 2.96 era and 15 wins, and Belisario saved 21 games with a 1.38 era. Next year the pitching will be much weaker and DW should miss the playoffs.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 49 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

Last year, we wrote that Duluth needed a reliable closer and one more potent bat to win the division. B. J. Upton filled the latter bill, although J. J. Putz was a bit less than reliable. Late in the season, Tom Layne was brought aboard and he played a key closer role in allowing Duluth to just eke out the division title over a very dogged opponent in the Madison Danes. David Price led a strong, if not dominating, starting rotation. Stephen Strasburg proved to be very tough, although his use was mainly limited to home starts in Petco. If Dickey, Latos, and Kennedy had performed up to expectations, Duluth may have had an easier road to the playoffs. The Thundercats were quickly put away in the first round versus Beverly, but after such a long playoff drought, we'll take it!

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 50 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Last years nightmare continues as Glenmont finished with the third worst record in the league(A new low in the Vollaro era). Not surprisingly, the team was near the bottom of the league in both pitching and hitting. Corey Hart was the lone bright spot at the plate slugging 36HRS(good for 7th most in the league). As for the pitching, no starter had a record above .500. Four starters had single digit wins and double digit losses. Reliever David Robertson led the team in wins with 9. Can next year be any worse? Hopefully not!

LAKE WOBEGONE Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 53 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Idiot GM Bob Weisman decided to go on a trading fit, ending up being heavier on pitching and short on hitting and bullpen. The result: a mediocre 88-win season, but the best season in 4 years and Moronic Manager Bob Weisman's first division title since an 83-win 2000 season. Pitching-wise, Clayton Kershaw was a true workhorse and got hot in the second half of the season to post 21 wins and a league leading 278 Ks in 257 innings. Kershaw did have a penchant for gopher balls (annoying much of the rodent attendees in the Gopher State). The offense was spotty, Aaron Hill led the way, hitting .318 with a .954 ops, drilling 37 HR, driving in 124 runs, racking up 376 total bases, and scoring 106. A lot of those RBIs were advanced on 150 stolen bases, led by a surprisingly successful first full-time year from Everth Cabrera (46 SB), which were needed since the team also hit into 165 double plays. The team still has a lot of holes in the outfield and bullpen, but may be doing more than staring in a weak division down the road.

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 30 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

For the second year in a row, the Madison Danes missed out on reaching the playoffs by only one game! Even with a 13-3 record in October, splitting two eight-game series against the division rival Thundercats and their "rally cry" in September proved to seal the deal in holding the Danes in second place. The team did win 86 games and have some solid performances. David Hernandez was the closer this year, with 90 K in 60.2 IP and a 1.04 ERA. Jeff Francis continues to be an annual surprise, and Prince Fielder, Justin Ruggiano, and David Freese were the offensive stars on the team. Once again, the Danes look forward to next year with the mindset that every single game counts!!!

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 17 Occupation: High School Student

The Season Story

The Marco Island Gators' pitching staff started off the year hot, but then they hit the wall. In the final months, the teams ERA spiked by more than a run a game, finishing with a 4.17 ERA. The Gators' staff was lead by rookie A.J. Griffin (2.77 ERA, .223 OAVG, 1.03 WHIP). With all the youth on the Gators' staff, we are looking to be a possible contender, especially as we change leagues next year. Along with the slowly improving pitching staff, there were some diamonds in the rough in the Gators' strikeout prone offense. The Gators were lead by a breakout year for Alex Gordon who lead the team in AVG, hits, doubles and RBI's (.312, 197, 44, 85). First overall pick Bryce Harper lead the league in his first year with 50 stolen bases, part of a solid rookie campaign. The Gators finished the year with an abysmal 71 - 89 record, but as this year comes to a close, the Gators look to the future in search of their first playoff run since moving to Marco Island.

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 63 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

The season turned out exactly as expected. Okay, maybe a bit worse. Mudville was consistent throughout the season. We stunk at the beginning of the season, in the middle of the season, and at the season's end. We had three of the top ten pitchers with losing records - including league leader Tommy Hanson with 23. Thus the massive house cleaning at season's end. Our rallying cry once again is "Wait 'til next year!"

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 48 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Supercells dominated on the road this season, but the inability to win at home doomed them to a 2nd place finish in the Williams Division. Jeff Keppinger and Jonathan Lucroy led the team in batting average, while Carlos Beltran and Kendrys Morales provided the most power on a team that slugged 211 home runs. The starting pitching was excellent for the most part, with Yu Darvish leading the way, but the bullpen left much to be desired. Jason Grilli led the team with 25 saves, and Clay Rapada had a good season as a set-up man, but the rest of the relief corps did not get the job done.

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 43 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Perth compiled the second highest win total in franchise history and gave perennial powerhouse Danny Way a run for their money. Arguably the most potent offense in the league was lead by Adrian Beltre and Adam LaRoche. Beltre had an All Star type season and LaRoche belted 42 homers and drove in 114 runs. The supporting cast was led LeMahieu, Perez, Gonzalez, Ruiz and Ramirez. Craig Kimbrel was, once again, lights out for the Cats. Gio Gonzalez was the team's best starter while Zack Greinke won 18 games. Perth will look to repeat and improved upon this year's performance and hopefully take that last step to achieving the franchise's second playoff appearance.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 47 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

A hideous offense and a "smoke and mirrors" starting rotation pretty much made the strongest bullpen in Chinook history a waste. Newcomer Jake McGee was no less than incredible (0.51 WHIP, .133 OAVG, and a 21/1 K/BB ratio!) Overall, the schizophrenic staff managed to lead the league in whiffs, and balanced that by its generosity with the long ball. Until the summer stretch, there were hopes of a lottery pick, but somehow we managed to win despite ourselves. Offensively, Denard Span (45 2B, 83 RC) and wily veteran Juan Pierre (.332, 34 SB) set standards, but any true power came with a load of whiffs. With interest fading in the franchise after 20 years, management has teamed with ABC to host a special series of "Dancing with the Stars" during stretch time, featuring Miley Cyrus.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 63 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

It actually was a pretty good season for the Squires, who posted 90 wins with a lineup lacking overall punch. Unfortunately, the Steinmetz Division was headed by Walla Walla and Albany, who rang up 116 and 104 wins, respectively. As per usual, Albert Pujols dominated 'Skayuna's offensive production, with 126 RBI, 32 HR and 51 doubles. No one else, however, came within spitting distance of 100 RBI or 20 HR. Yovanni Gallardo led the starters with a 23-6 record, but he and the rest of the staff were carried by an uncharacteristically good Squires bullpen, anchored by Ryan Cook, who converted 41 of 45 save opportunities. 'Skayuna will enter the offseason preparing for its annual mission to replace all those pitchers whose arms fell off during the real-life MLB season.

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 60 Occupation: Retired/Part-time Prof./Softball Player

The Season Story

In just the second year of a rebuilding plan, the Toxins managed to barely avoid losing 100 games! (It is hard to believe that there were five teams worse this season!) The brightest spot offensively, by far, was Wilin Rosario who led the TML in HRs with 45 and led his team in RBI (83), despite only playing in 125 games! Todd Frazier also contributed on offense, but there was a noticeable drop-off after him. The pitching sported shaky starting, but with a decent late bullpen. Among the starters, no one lost 20 this season! A minor accomplishment. Rex Brothers (13 SV, 17 RP, 2.15) was handed the “closer” role and performed well. He just did not get too many save opportunities. With Kyle Drabek, Joe Wieland and Danny Duffy all coming back from TJ surgery, the pitching staff is in a “waiting game.” Comebacks from veterans Carl Crawford and Mark Teixeira would also be welcomed.

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 66 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT)

The Season Story

A Gehrig Division slight favorite going into the season, the Traffic Dodgers ended up winning by double digits for the second year in a row. They were stopped once again in the Conference Finals by perennial Conference champ, the Beverly Hillbillies, albeit having put up a much better fight this year in a very competitive 6-game Series. The Dodgers will miss first-ballot HoFer Derek Jeter next year due to his injuries, but sentiment aside, they aren't standing still; an off-Season Trade was already made for prime ss Yunel Escobar to replace Jeter; and present cl Tom Wilhelmsen was sent packing for picks, in anticipation of slotting fine young flamethrower Trevor Rosenthal in that role for a long time to come. The hitting and fielding should stay solid, and the sp should actually get better for the first time in a long time with Gee, Stults and upcoming young star Joe Kelly all having improved Season's in '13, along with the acquisition of steady veteran lefty starter, CJ Wilson. Overheard coming from the Board Room of the Traffic Dodgers Executive Offices following the tough Conference loss, "I'll be back . . ." !!

The Season Story

A surprisingly good season for a Drench team starting to rebuild. Jarrod Saltalamacchia surprised everyone by leading the team in HR. Valpo's bullpen kept games close, but the back half of the rotation disappointed. Lots of changes coming for next year, as the franchise hits the reset button.

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera

Age: 39 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

There was a lot of crying this past season in Vanderlyle as the Geeks embarked on what will likely be a 10+ year rebuilding plan. The roster is currently plagued by $d(\text{BUM})/dt > 0$. The batting was horrible as evidenced by the team 642 OPS. The lone hitting star was Trumbo (342 OBP, 517 SLG, 32 HR). The team ERA of 4.66 indicated the pitching was not much better than the hitting. Cueto (13-15, 3.25 ERA) was the lone bright spot in the rotation and the only pitcher to have double digit wins. Next season doesn't look much brighter for the Crybaby Geeks. The 10 hotdogs for \$10 promotion is expected to help fill the stands though.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 46 Occupation: National Sales Director

The Season Story

This was a season of luck over skill for the Wombats. Playing well above their heads both at home and on the road, and having a TML-record 43-13 record in one-run games, it was only a matter of time that the Wombats luck ran out, and it did in the playoffs. As typical for the Wombats, no one particularly stood out on offense, it is a team offense not featuring any one star. Paul Konerko, Alex Rios and AJ Pierzynski all had over 20 home runs, but none of them aside of Konerko (106) put up more any other stellar numbers. Michael Bourn was a disappointment only stealing 25 bases. Pitching was a bit better on the whole as Jordan Zimmerman won 22 games, Cliff Lee won 18, Cole Hamels 17 and Ryan Dempster 16. A lot of this can be attributed to Aroldis Chapman who blew his first two saves of the season and did not falter again until the playoffs finishing with 45 saves. Wombats are now in a full-out rebuild.
