 Madison 000 001 000 000 000 001 - 2 12 0

Madison's Hisashi Iwakuma no-hit Murderous through 9 innings and 1 hit through 11 IP, only good for an ND. Madison won the game in the 18th scoring an unearned run on an E6.

5/28/2013, AR13-WW13, Wrigley Field
 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R H E
 Arkansas 2 0 0 9 3 3 1 4 0 - 22 21 1
 Walla Walla 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 - 1 7 2

The biggest blowout of the season saw Arkansas slap out 21 hits, draw 7 walks and use 2 Wombat errors to post a 22-1 butt-whooping! Every Trav starter had at least 1 hit & 1 RBI.

5/30/2013, SS13-RM13, Target Field

 Beverly 2 0 4 3 1 0 6 1 1 - 18 20 0
 Valparaiso 1 0 2 1 2 3 0 4 0 - 13 18 2

O.Infante(3-5,5 RBI) and Mel.Cabrera(4-4,3 RBI) led the Hillbillies to a slugfest victory! For Valpo, J.Lowrie(5-5,2 RBI), A.Gonzalez(3-4,4 RBI) and J.Saltalamacchia(4-4,4 RBI) starred.

Traffic's Derek Jeter has dropped to 3rd place in career hits, now only 27 hits behind Tony Gwynn for 2nd, but 550 hits behind TML Career leader Pete Rose (3885 H).

Albany put together the season's longest winning streak of 16 W from 7/23 to 8/9. The Longest losing streak of 10 was by Rocky Mountain from 4/25 to 5/6 and by Vienna from 9/12 to 9/21. (Vienna went only 5-27 from 8/24 to the end of the season.)

10/29/2013, AR13-DT13, PETCO Park
 Kevin Tyle's Duluth Thundercats defeated the three-time defending TML Champion Beverly Hillbillies en route to capturing the TML Championship in a thrilling 7-game series over Willie Jelks Arkansas Travelers. For Kevin, it was his first ever TML Championship and 3rd for the franchise and first since their back-to-back titles in 1987 & 1988. Duluth had edged Valparaiso in 7 games to reach the Conference Final. The Thundercat post season MVP was Miguel Cabrera who put up a .392/.467/.557 line, hitting safely in 18 of the 20 post season games, with 3 HRs and 13 RBI. Arkansas reached the TML World Series by besting Marco Island and Mudville, both in 6 games. For Willie, it was his 8th trip to the TML World Series, just one short of the managerial record, which he may tie in 1964 (in the time warp of the TML Retro).

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 57 Occupation: Financial Analyst

The Season Story

It was a grand season undone by 11 games at Mudville, all losses to a fine Nine squad. Mike Trout had an MVP caliber season and was supported nice by Shane Victorino and Jason Werth. Daniel Nava and Chase Headley were on base machines, Matt Harvey posted Cy Young numbers winning 18 of his 22 decisions. Chris Sale, Andrew Cashner and Shelby Miller provided solid work behind him. Luke Hochevar and Koji Uehara handled the save chores with great efficiency. The team suffers next year with pitchers Harvey and Hochevar on IR and Matt Moore severely limited. Offensive numbers decline as well as Victorino, Alonso and Nava missed extended time and others slumped. Hamstrung without their number one pick, Albany seeks to plug holes and make another run in 2015 if health returns to their core.

AMSTERDAM Yankees

Manager: Joel DiTata

Age: 27 Occupation: Graduate Student

The Season Story

The Amsterdam Yankees suffered a disappointing season due to a lack of consistency. However, the young players in Amsterdam's pitching will look to turn around their fortunes in the following seasons to come.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 71 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

After losing 104 games last season the Travelers turned it completely around and won 107 games this season making it all the way to the League championship series where they lost in an exciting seven game series to Duluth. Arkansas was led by Matt Carpenter (.309/.403/.443) and Chin-Soo Choo (.299/.433/.486) who headed a balanced offence. Adam Wainwright led the staff with an 18-8 record and all five starters won at least 13 games. Brandon Kintzler led a very effective bullpen with a 1.26 ERA and 35 saves. The Travelers are optimistic about their chances next season.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 45 Occupation: Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Decent pitching carried an inconsistent offense during the course of the season leading the Hillbillies into the postseason. Staff ace Justin Verlander posted another 20 win season while Hiroki Kuroda and Kyle Lohse supplied 14 and 13 wins, respectively. The back-end of the rotation however struggled. The bullpen was generally solid throughout the year. League MVP Joey Votto paced an otherwise spasmodic offense that lacked the weapons of years past. Outside of Votto, Ryan Zimmerman was the Hillbillies most consistent threat. Melky Cabrera performed well in limited time. Another trip to the World Series was not to be as the team's inadequacies combined with Votto's disappearance ended the playoff run one round too soon. The next step is make changes that will hopefully spark another World Series streak.

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 65 Occupation: Supervisor – Cushman and Wakefield

The Season Story

Burleigh quickly sank to where they were comfortable. First in War, First in Peace, Last in the Gehrig. It was, however, a fun season low lighted by the disappearance of Buster Posey from the offense but did contain a great, surprise season from Martin Prado as well as a consistent one from Jacoby Ellsbury. While the pitching staff still awaits the arrival of Dylan Bundy (2015?) , the greatest of the season was the understated, overlooked season turned in by Justin Masterson. Masterson was lights out from end to end and actually won a Carltonesque 17 games for the Blue Jays. It looks like another long one ahead as the front office is still reeling from the loss of GM Rich Goldberg. But as long as Corey Kluber is around, we will never forget Rich. Thanks Mike and Pat for a great 35th season of TML Current play.

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 56 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Crabs were mediocre in the pitching and batting department and awful in the field (dead last in fielding average) yet they were in the hunt for the Gehrig Division crown through the Summer Stretch, when the inability to beat Toxic Waste and Burleigh at home sunk the Crabs for good. Andrew McCutchen's numbers were down from last year's MVP season but he still put up impressive totals (.296 BA, 36 HR) and got some support from overachiever Ike Davis (.670 OBA+SLG in real life, .881 OBA+SLG in the TML). From the mound the bullpen gave the best performances with an unexpected 26 saves from stop-gap closer Chad Qualls. Next year's Crabs look to have a good pitching staff and a similar offense, which may be enough to contend again in the Gehrig.

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 67 Occupation: Program Manager

The Season Story

DW traded several stars in the off season and it evident in their performance as they finished 78-82 and third in the Ruth. The team only hit .238, 22nd of 24 teams. The pitchers mirrored the hitters also finishing 22nd with a 4.45 ERA. 23 YO Henderson Alvarez was the best starter at 9-4, 3.23 ERA. Justin Wilson and Brad Ziegler led a solid relief staff. The Diamonds leading hitter was Josh Hamilton, .265/.346, 22 hrs, 69rs, and 57bi. Next season should see improvement as real life hitters were .253 and the staff ERA was 3.45.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

TML Champion

Age: 50 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

After a long, slow climb out of mediocrity, this was the year that the Thundercats finally clawed their way to the top of the TML "Cat Tree". The team got off to a hot start and never looked back, once division rival Glenmont faltered. Although the team was led by stellar performances by Miguel Cabrera, Lucas Duda, and Paul Goldschmidt (OPS's of .945, .885, and .828 respectively), it was really a group effort. Eric Sogard and Chris Denorfia, both of whom were shopped about before the season's start in search of relief help, always seemed to get the key hits and it is hard to see Duluth going all the way without them. Duluth's pitching staff led the lead in ERA, and again it was a group effort rather than one or two individual performances. The postseason was truly exciting from start to finish, against three very worthy opponents in Valparaiso, Beverly, and Arkansas.

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 51 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Wes Craven is considering making a sports horror film entitled "Nightmare in Glenmont" after hearing about the continuing futility of the Haymaker hitters. Glenmont was near the bottom of the league in batting, as only Marcus Seimen hit above .300 in 97abs. Deserter (I mean Slugger) Justin Morneau left everything in his locker upon hearing of his trade to Mudville! On the flip side, Haymaker pitching remained solid(3rd in ERA) led by Clay Buchholz' 1.33ERA. Manager Vollaro had a bipolar season as well. A triumph was coaxing Joullys Chacin to 14wins. Unfortunately managerial blunders such as overusing Zach Walters led to the loss of a pick in the upcoming draft.

LAKE WOBEGONE Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 54 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Clayton Kershaw!!!! What a fun year watching him pitch. I never had such a pitching stud before. Actually, I don't think I've had pitching this good overall, especially Samardzija was on as well. Despite Papelbon's reputation, he actually did a good job with only 5 blown saves. The offense was too sporadic to put this team in the playoffs, but it was fun while it lasted. Next year, more Stud-ly pitching, from some different participants, and even less offense, but there should be some great Pitchers' duels.

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

The Season Story

In what is shaping up to be a theme, it was another disappointing season for the Madison Danes, finishing just above .500 after trying to make up a significant deficit left from poor play in the beginning and middle of the season. Bright spots on the team were starters Max Scherzer and Madison Bumgarner, who each finished with 20+ wins and ERA under 2.5. Scherzer was the strikeout leader in the TML American, with 274 K in 242 IP. Star closer Koji Uehara was traded to Albany in August, as Madison looks to begin building for the future. Competing for the pennant at this point seems like it is several seasons away. Sigh...

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 18 Occupation: College Student

The Season Story

The TMLAM 13 season was a new year for the Gators. In Jayson's 4th year as manager of the Gators, he and his team of misfits have finally made a appearance in the playoffs. Unfortunately, the Gators matched up against the top team from the regular season but they held their own for 6 games. This season was full of many bright spots including rookie Scooter Gennett who hit .394 in 231 at-bats. Unlike previous years, the Gators pitching staff had a collective ERA of 3.70. The Gators pitching staff was led by veteran and ace, Anibal Sanchez with 1.68 ERA and 226 strikeouts. In the coming season, the Gators appear to be on the rise with its youth movement led by Scooter Gennett, Michael Wacha, Kevin Siegrist, Giancarlo Stanton, Kyle Gibson and Bryce Harper.

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

The Season Story

I went all out and all in trying to get back to the TML World Series for the first time since 1992 with the Thunder Bay Lightning. Although we came up short, the Nine had a memorable season (although I'm sure Pat Barry would like to forget it). And losing to the Arkansas Travelers in the Oceanic Finals is nothing to be ashamed of. It was a team with solid pitching and offense. Cliff Lee, Cole Hamels, Ervin Santana, Ryan Dempster, and Tony Cingrani made a formidable rotation. Aaron Loup and Casey Janssen led a (mostly) dependable bullpen. Late season addition Justin Morneau and David Wright cemented the offense. Marco Scutaro, Adam Lind, and Starling Marte were key contributors. Nice year, memorable year but now it is back to the drawing board.

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

Age: 49 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

New management came in, and instead of re-inventing the wheel (as new management often does), it acquired a few role players, picked up Ryu in the draft to shore up the rotation, and declared the team "playoff ready." Sadly, this was not case, as the team experienced a weak performance against the Oceanic Conference in the summer, and also displayed an inability to beat the top contenders within the Gatto division. Weak offense (beyond the top players) and poor fielding were to blame. Jay Bruce and Daniel Murphy were the offensive stars of the year. As for pitching, the bullpen, overall was exemplary, while Ryu and Fister shined in the starting rotation.

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 49 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Overall, it was a disappointing season for the Supercells, who had hoped to compete for a championship. The offense was every bit as potent as advertised, leading the league with 217 home runs, and finishing 4th in runs scored. 10 players had at least 9 homers each, led by Evan Longoria's 36. Matt Holliday was the overall offensive MVP though, hitting .318 with an OPS of .901. The pitching staff was a major disappointment however, with ace Yu Darvish going just 12-17, although his ERA was a respectable 3.66. Darvish also was 3rd in the league in strikeouts with 250. Matt Cain went 15-5 despite a 4.30 ERA, and Charlie Morton also had a solid season, posting a 10-6 record with a 3.65 ERA. Jason Grilli had a decent season, with 27 saves in 32 chances, and Javier Lopez and Joel Peralta were solid as well out of the bullpen. The rest of the pitching staff underachieved for the most part.

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 44 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Perth's season would be deemed a success by most, however, the Diamond Cat management was looking for more this season. Hanley Ramirez who, unfortunately, had limited play time had a tremendous season. Hosmer, Donaldson, Perez and Beltre were also very good. Carlos Gomez was Perth's all around best player this year. Craig Kimbrel led the league in saves and Zack Greinke was Perth's top starter. While their time in Perth was short, it bears noting that the TML American will say goodbye to two future Hall of Famers in Mariano Rivera and Andy Pettitte. Next season the Diamond Cats will look to strengthen their offense and take another run at a playoff spot. In order to help with this endeavor, Perth management has taken out special contracts for some undisclosed work in Arkansas and Danny Way.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 48 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Chinook fans endured a very mediocre season en route to the basement of the Williams Division. A horrid start brought visions of a top pick in the draft, but in true fashion, disappointment would soon follow with a strong summer stretch. For a change, this team seemed to have a grasp on the theory of a home field advantage. Superb fielding and the best bullpen in franchise history was wasted following up the rag-tag fleet of starters, most of which managed to end their seasons prematurely one way or another. Hope we can get a volume discount on shoulder surgery! Jason Castro had a breakout season at and behind the plate. Strikeouts came both on the mound (1317) and at the plate (1207, 204 by league leader Carter). Plans are underway to either move the fences out 40 feet to bring a balance of power, or play Justin Bieber for opposing team walk-up songs.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 64 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

A disappointing season for the Squires. Not surprising, though, with an offense generating a league low (by 28!) HR total of 86 (is the dead ball era back? In 'Skayuna, maybe). Only a middlin' ERA of 3.70 kept 'Skayuna from even more futility than the 90 losses racked up. There will be more housecleaning this offseason, which can only help. Hope springs eternal!

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 61 Occupation: Retired/Part-time Prof./Softball Player

The Season Story

In just the third year of a rebuilding plan, the Toxins were in “contention” for the division as late as the Summer Stretch before rival Traffic pulled away. Of course, the only way the Toxins would have made it is with a sub-.500 record. Nonetheless, an 11-5 finish pulled them into a tie for second place with fading Chesapeake. The top two hitting stars were a rookie, Christian Yelich, and a veteran, Carl Crawford, the latter in the batting race late into the season. Last season’s HR Champ, Wilin Rosario, took a step backward, hitting only 16 bombs. Brandon Barnes was the team leader in HRs with 23, making his Dad proud. The top four pitchers on the team were all relievers, highlighting the weak starting pitching staff. Only Julio Teheran managed to win 10 games. Shawn Kelley led the league in GR with 71, but continues to baffle critics with great stuff (132 K in 92 IP), but a high ERA (4.48). Still looking for that “comeback” from Mark Teixeira and his persistent maladies. It also looks like Danny Duffy will be the only pitcher successfully returning from TJ surgery.

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 67 Occupation: Retired (NYS DOT)

The Season Story

Well, the Traffic Dodgers were indeed back again this Season, managing to be the best in a weak Gehrig Division by pulling away from their rivals in the final two months to win by a 9 game margin. But league leading hitter, Yadier Molina (as well as the rest of his teammates), could not buy a clutch hit and the Playoffs ended in disappointment as the Dodgers lost in 5 close game to the Hillbillies. Prospects once again look decent for position players, hitters and defense, but pitching will likely be problematic, save for Phil Hughes improved starting pitching efforts this past MLB Season. No predictions for next year, but the Dodgers should once again be competitive in what will likely be an improved overall Gehrig division.

VALPARAISO Drench

Manager: Alan Srock

Age: 33 Occupation: Assistant Professor/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Drench surprised everyone this year by winning the division in what was supposed to be the start of a rebuilding process. Jed Lowrie was the biggest help on offense, with over 100 RC. The best performances came from the pitching. Felix Hernandez led the way with a 2.36 ERA and 222 K over 29 starts, but Jeff Locke and Tyson Ross turned in excellent seasons as well. The bullpen was solidly anchored by Luis Avilan and Tommy Hunter -- both of whom finished with sub-2 ERAs. Valpo will bring back a solid core for next year, so another playoff push should be possible. The fans certainly have something to cheer about!

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 40 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

The noise level of the crying increased in Vanderlyle this past season as the Geeks struggled through year 2 of their 10+ year rebuilding plan. The team batting (628 OPS) was even worse than last season. McCann (343 OBP, 490 SLG, 22 HR) was the biggest offensive threat. The pitching staff performed reasonably well, but still racked up the losses due to the lack of run support. Newcomer, Fernandez (14-8, 2.31 ERA, 4 SHO), led the staff as he won nearly 25% of Vanderlyle's games. Unfortunately, next season looks even worse for the Geeks, as the roster is now plagued with bums increasing at an increasing rate ( $d^2(\text{BUM})/dt^2 > 0$ ). The new 20 hotdogs for \$15.20 promotion should help fill the stands though.

VIENNA Sausage

Manager: James Lang (Andrea)

Age: 33 Occupation: Software Engineer

The Season Story

It was a rough one for your Vienna Sausage under new management and in a new stadium. The pitching staff had few bright spots outside of Lance Lynn (192 K and 1.32 WHIP) while the offense struggled during Ryan Braun's steroid shortened season. Kris Davis filled in admirably (leading the team in OBP and slugging in limited AB) but it wasn't nearly enough. The new front office hopefully gets their act together in the offseason and makes some savvy moves to get Vienna headed towards contention.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 47 Occupation: National Sales Director

The Season Story

For the first time in their history the Wombats have gone into a major rebuild. There have been retools in the past, but nothing on this scale. As a team the Wombats gave up 1010 runs and compiled a team 5.86 ERA. For the first half of the season closer Aroldis Chapman was un-hittable, but he too succumbed to pitching for a terrible team. While he finished with 29 saves, out of a total of 59 team wins, he had an ERA of 3.91 and somehow blew 11 saves. The offense was equally as dire hitting .249 as a team. The only notable offensive performance came from rookie Yasiel Puig and his 25 home runs. Fellow rookie Anthony Rendon added 16 home runs and a .287/.353/.493 slash line.

Stat Key

RC: runs created (RC = [A times B] divided by C), where,

A = H + W + HBP - CS - GDP

B = TB + .26 x (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 x (SH + SF + SB)

C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or fewer.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

◆ - TML Record

◇ - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a caret (^) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
