Golden Glove leftfielder Alex Gordon has played 326 consecutive error-less games!

Beverly set a new all-time regular season TML Record for most innings pitched with 1489.2 IP.

Toxic Waste put together the season's longest winning streak of 14 W from 7/13 to 7/28. The longest losing streak of 13 was by Vanderlyle from 6/22 to 7/8, and had three very bad stretches of 1-22, 1-22 and 1-21 during the season! The crying was "biblical!"

10/29/2014, TX14-AR14, Busch Stadium
 Mike Landin's Toxic Waste River Rats edged Willie Jelks' Arkansas Travelers in a thrilling 7-game TML World Series, featuring outstanding pitching and three extra-inning games (including G-7)! For the Toxins, it was their 6th TML Championship and 5th Title for Manager Landin. For the Travs, it was their 2nd consecutive 7-game World Series loss. The Toxins used their strong, deep pitching staff to glide past Beverly and Valparaiso in 5 games to capture the Atmos Pennant, whereas Arkansas powered their way past Oklahoma and Perth in 6-game series to capture the Oceanic Pennant. Toxin Co-MVPs Dallas Keuchel (3-2, 1.78, 25 K) and Christian Yelich (.418 OBP, 13 BB, 12 SB) were consistent in each playoff series. The Toxin pitching staff posted a miniscule 1.58 combined ERA for the entire post season, but it was the bullpen that really shined, allowing only 5 ER in 55.2 IP (0.81 ERA)!

The Season Story

In many ways this was my most disappointing/perplexing team ever. A complete inability to win on the road doomed the team to a 2nd place finish. Chris Sale finished strong with a 13-6 3.50 season after having a terribly slow start. Shelby Miller went 14-9 3.26 and threw 5 shut outs. Koji Uehara picked up 34 saves. Mike Trout carried the offense and hit 31 homers and scored and drove in over 100 runs, an increasingly impressive feat as the league becomes more pitching driven. Daniel Nava was an on base machine. Matt Kemp came on strong at the end to salvage a lost year. Neil Walker and Jayson Werth were solid all year. Next year the team should be a playoff contender.

Manager: Joel DiTata

Age: 28 Occupation: Elementary Librarian

The Season Story

The Amsterdam Yankees suffered a disappointing season due to a lack of consistency from their pitching staff. The young players in Amsterdam's pitching will look to turn around their fortunes in the following seasons to come. Amsterdam will continue to build toward the future.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 72 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

Travelers came storming back from a rebuilding period to have the second best record in the league behind a great starting rotation led by Adam Wainwright, Jake Arrieta and Colin McHugh, all of whom threw no-hitters during the season. Kyle Seager drove in 117 runs and both Freddie Freeman and Hunter Pence scored and drove in more than 100. The Travs cruised through the regular season and the first two rounds of the playoffs to face the formidable Toxic Waste River Rats in the World Series. Just like WW-I it came down to the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month (figuratively) as The Rats scored a run in the top of the 10th in game seven to win the brass ring. A very satisfying year!

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 46 Occupation: Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Like the Rolling Stones it seems that the Beverly Hillbillies have lingered around long past their primes. The Hillbillies were able to put together enough pitching and offense to mount another playoff push. It wasn't always pretty but the team found ways to win. The offense was paced by MVP candidate Michael Brantley and by Miguel Cabrera. Jake Peavy and newly arrived Cole Hamels led the staff. Darren O'Day proved to be outstanding out of the pen. However the relievers managed to rack up 22 blown saves. The Hillbillies managed to win the division and reached the conference finals where the offense was completely embarrassed by superior pitching. Like shuffling the deck chairs on the Titanic it is only a matter of time before a rebuild is necessary. Until then is there enough left to make another run next season.

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 66 Occupation: Supervisor - Cushman and Wakefield

The Season Story

The less said the better. The offense was obscure as even the good guys did nothing, and there weren't many of them. When your team leader in homers has 16 and RBI's has 68, you know it made for short half innings. The pitching was pretty good, but there was not nearly enough. Corey Kluber turned in a great season, getting 27% of the Burleigh wins with a sparking ERA of 2.52. How bad would it have been without him. Anyone seen Dylan Bundy?

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 57 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The 2014 Crabs were awful, thanks to a mediocre offense, terrible defense (tied for last in fielding percentage) and a starting rotation which underperformed (For example : Chen, real-life ERA=3.54, TML ERA=6.40; Shields, real-life ERA=3.21, TML ERA=5.26) probably due in large part to the porous defense. Only a top-notch bullpen kept the team from losing 100 games. Little improvement is in sight as there are several big holes in the infield that need to be filled.

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 68 Occupation: Program Manager

The Season Story

DW continues to slip in the standings primarily due to a weak offense and poor pen. The Diamonds hit .244 for the season (T18th). They were led by Nelson Cruz .271/.333, 40 HRs, 87 rs and 108 rbi. Rizzo also had a solid year, .286/.386, 32 hrs, 73 rs, 116 rbi. Next year will be more of the same, the Diamonds have many offensive holes and a very poor pen.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 51 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

Duluth looked to be a pretty strong candidate to return to the playoffs after its World Series-winning year last year, but it was not to be. The offense was especially anemic, with only Josh Harrison exceeding expectations (and, as it turns out, at bats). The pitching was good but not nearly enough to compensate for the lack of hitting. An exception to that was the curiously bad year that Strasburg had, as if he were anticipating his injury-plagued campaign in real-life this year. Despite the excellent cat food that Petco Park affords, the Thundercats may be looking for happier hunting grounds to call home next year.

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 52 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Haymakers exceeded expectations winning 91 games and capturing the Robinson division crown. The pitching was lead by "the Alexes"(Cobb and Wood) who combined for a record of 26-11 with an ERA under 2.50. The pen was strong as well with David Robertson's 31 saves. Haymaker bats were slightly underwhelming as only Manny Machado and Michael Cuddyer hit above 270. This lack of punch led the Haymakers to be bounced in the 1st round of the playoffs by a tough Beverly squad. Another trip to the playoffs looks unlikely next year as injuries to the staff will take their toll.

LAKE WOBEGONE Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 55 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Weisman the General Manager really messed up for Weisman the Manager this year. After outstanding Years in TML 2013, Kershaw, Samardzija, and Lester must have signed century-long contracts, because they performed like it. Only Lester produced a taste of his previous success with a handful of quality starts. The TML MUS1 (Most Unused Stud) went to Jonathan Papelbon. To paraphrase John Mellencamp, “but there’s little opportunity.” That was thanks to the offense, led by TML MUS2 (Most Useless Slugger) Carlos Santana, who had 28 HR with .738 ops and a .218 average. Adam Jones took the TML MUSS (most useless September surge), hitting about .250 until the season became hopeless. But, I don’t want to undersell the inedible offensive contributions of Wil Middlebrooks, Aaron Hill, Brandon Crawford, and catcher Rob-Well-son Chir-tillo. At least, LW gets to be the anti-Timberwolves (draft position can’t be worse that earned) in the draft.

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 32 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

2014 was the start of a rebuilding process for the Danes, though there were some bright spots. The pitching staff recorded 1,417 strikeouts---only 15 shy of the TML American team record. Max Scherzer led the way in strikeouts with 278 K. As far as the offense went, well...there was no offense. That's not entirely true; Jose Altuve hit .338 (232 hits) with a new franchise record 77 SB. Madison should have a stellar pitching staff once again in 2015, with Scherzer, Bumgarner, Fiers, Salazar, Karns, and Iwakuma as the starting...6? Perhaps there will be an offseason trade for some much-needed hitting. The fans can't spend another season watching Stefen Romero play nearly every game in right field with an OPS of .523. Here's to a better future!

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 19 Occupation: College Student

The Season Story

The TMLAM 14 season was a year that looked bright for this young Gators squad. That bright future quickly turned into a nightmare for this Gators team led by 5th year manager Jayson Chapman. What appeared to be a strong rotation that included the likes of rookie sensation Masahiro Tanaka (12-4, 1.70 ERA, 20 GS), Anibal Sanchez (2.80 ERA), and the young arms of Michael Wacha and Kyle Gibson the homerun ball appeared to be the Bain of this pitching staff. In total the Gators pitching staff gave up 163 homeruns. The offense however was not able to take part in the gawdy homerun numbers despite the power from young sluggers Giancarlo Stanton, Bryce Harper and Justin Bour. The Gators look to improve on this year through a youth movement that includes the likes of Scooter Gennett, Trevor May, Giancarlo Stanton, Bryce Harper, Michael Wacha and Kyle Gibson.

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 65 Occupation: Attorney/Freelance Writer

The Season Story

The Nine returned to their losing ways after virtually the entire roster decided to have off years. Also, the departure of Cole Hamels left a much weakened starting rotation (although off-season acquisitions Nathan Eovaldi and Jake Odorizzi show promise). In the Retro we say "Wait until last year!" It would be nice if such were the case in the Current Day TML American.

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

Age: 51 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The season started with a lot of optimism in the roost, but also, a lot of unanswered questions. Unfortunately, the answers to those questions were mostly negative, especially when it came to offense. All the big names (Martinez, Upton, Vogt) came in well below expectations, as did some of the role players at the plate. The pitching was solid as expected, and the bullpen even surprised a little (except for Janssen our closer). Still, this team was never in danger of making a playoff spot, and became sellers mid-season in hopes of rebuilding in 2015.

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 50 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Supercells showed some improvement this season, but overall were an average team, both offensively and pitching wise. They benefited from playing in the weak Williams Division, which allowed them to win the division title with an 84-76 record. Jonathan Lucroy led the team offensively with a .328 batting average, and set a league record with 71 doubles on the season. David Ortiz belted 32 homers to lead the team, followed closely by Marlon Byrd with 29. Mark Buehrle and Jordan Zimmermann led the pitching staff with 15 and 14 wins respectively, and Mark Melancon had an excellent season as the closer, compiling 35 saves along with a 1.46 ERA.

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 45 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

It was another solid season for the Diamond Cats as we earned the Oceanic Wild Card spot. This year's version of the Cats was a nice blend of solid pitching and hitting. Quintana and Greinke were the anchors of the rotation; both of whom came close to winning 20 games. Kimbrel was steady again picking up 36 saves. Kimbrel is now Perth's all-time saves leader; a feat he accomplished in just 5 seasons! On the offensive side of the fence (which this season did not offend) Adrian Beltre took the league batting title and Carlos Gomez and Jason Heyward had very seasons. The Diamond Cats will look to add a few more pieces this offseason and make another run at that elusive TML title!

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 49 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The 23rd rendition of the Chinooks flashed a surprising amount of power, but at the expense of a healthy dose of whiffs. Carter was the poster child, whiffing nearly 10 times for each HR. Breakout star Kole Calhoun was the offensive MVP nearly leading the team in all categories. The bullpen was the among the best in the league, but then again the starters were the concrete shoes (119 starts of 7.00 ERA), with the exception of Marcus Stroman and Carlos Carrasco. Hosting a series of presidential debates, organizers obviously failed to allow enough time for hot air to clear, as pitchers outpaced the hitters with the long ball. We bid farewell to fan favorite Nick Punto, who was almost traded for Alex Gordon. We only hope the near top defense in the league can take the hit!

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 65 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

The season was bumping along in its expected mediocrity when things turned interesting: the Squires went 20 and 6 through the Summer Stretch, setting up a close race in October. But reality set in with a 2-6 loss to Walla Walla on the road; a 6-2 series win at home only succeeded in knocking both Albany and 'Skayuna out of the playoffs. Overall, though, it was an unexpectedly good year. Zack Briton showed his gratitude for being taken off the "cut" list at the last minute two seasons ago by leading the league in saves; Victor Martinez led the offense with a .315 BA and 28 HRs. The Squires will be looking to replace a few parts that are wearing down, but look to a bright future for the likes of David Peralta, George Springer, Sonny Gray and Chris Archer and others.

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

TML Champion

Age: 62 Occupation: Retired/Part-time Prof./Softball Player

The Season Story

A change of plans just prior to the Rookie Draft led to a couple of key trades that put this team over the top and ultimately to the TML Championship. Acquired in those off-season trades were Ben Zobrist and an entire AKR bullpen of Aroldis Chapman (31 SV), Dellin Betances (25 SV), Joaquin Benoit and Kevin Jepsen. This bullpen supported a young, confident staff of 20-game winners Dallas Keuchel and Julio Teheran, along with 17-game winners Matt Duffy and Jason Hamel. The regular season team ERA of 2.47 was the lowest TML ERA in over 20 years and their performance in the TML post season was simply stunning! This dominating pitching more than compensated a weak offense. Christian Yelich was the most consistent at the plate at .309 and 93 runs. Part-timers A.J. Pollock (.324) and Marwin Gonzalez (.313) made important contributions. Todd Frazier was the only long ball threat, blasting 37 HRs and was the only Toxin with over 100 RBIs. No one scored 100 runs on the team. However, an 85% SB success rate carried over into the post season, where the Toxin “rabbits” stole 44 bases in the 17 games! Not only did it lead to crucial runs in the low scoring playoff games, but also kept them out of GIDPs. Obviously, it was a formula that worked! The team needs work for next season if they are going to have any chance to defend. The starting staff is in shambles and somehow we need to acquire a catcher. It will be great to welcome Mr. Teixeira back, if even for a half-season. (Jurickson Profar ... we need you buddy?)

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 68 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT); Part-time @Saratoga Casino

The Season Story

The Traffic Dodgers missed the Playoffs this Season, but managed to maintain the current Franchise Owner's record of never having finished below .500 (an even dozen years straight now). Not a bad record, but frustrating in that they've only been to the League Championship Series once and lost that in Seven. The Batting was surprisingly good this past Season, and actually led the League in AVG. But once again, the Starting Pitching was mediocre at best and although the Bullpen proved out OK, it was not as good as expected. And the Dodgers showed little respect for now Retired Derek Jeter, hardly playing him all Season long, then dumping him at the end of September for a few needed positional ABs. No farewell tours - just shows you what a heartless, cut-throat League this TMLAM really is!!

VALPARAISO Drench

Manager: Alan Srock

Age: 34 Occupation: Assistant Professor/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Drench had a surprising season in 2014 -- fans were expecting a downturn and rebuilding, but the team pulled together to get into the playoffs. Led by a solid bullpen (six pitchers with sub-3 ERAs), the Drench made the season better than expected for the Valpo faithful. Quite a few changes are in store for next season, as the team determines whether to rebuild or go for it all.

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 41 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

There was plenty of crying in Vanderlyle this past season as the Geeks hit rock bottom and nearly ran out of tears. The team batting (585 OPS) was horrid. It was likely one of the worst team batting performances in TML history. The team pitching (4.78 ERA) was the worst in the league but there were some bright spots. Cueto (3.73 ERA, 15 CG, 3 SHO) anchored the worst rotation in the league and Rzepczynski (1.82 ERA) led a bullpen that usually could get no one out. Next season looks a bit less worse in Vanderlyle as the offense should receive a boost from some up and coming Geeks. Next season's "Peel an Onion in the Stands" promotion will hopefully fill some seats.

VIENNA Sausage

Manager: James Lang (Andrea)

Age: 33 Occupation: Stay at Home Dad

The Season Story

At the start of the season, casual observers would be hard pressed to tell you what made up the Vienna Sausage but they sure knew it was good. The Sausage offense was smoking liners all over the field while the pitching staff was putting mustard on everything. As they linked together wins it looked like a playoff run was a sure thing. However, it wasn't meant to be as the sizzle eventually wore off and the Sausage faithful ended up with nothing but a lot of heartburn. The series that finally put a fork in Vienna was versus the hated Drench at the end of September as Valpo chewed up & spit out the Sausage, taking 7 of 8 and claiming the wildcard.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 48 Occupation: Financial Consultant

The Season Story

A surprising season for the Wombats. Fresh off being a lottery pick the team looked destined to go that direction in 2015. However, with the addition of super rookie Jose Abreu (.331/.381/.626 45 home runs and 146 RBI) and other strong offensive contributions from Anthony Rendon (.294/.370/.521 26 HR and 115), Marcel Ozuna (33 HRs and 100 RBI) and Yasiel Puig (99 RBI) the team stayed in contention for the first half of the season with an incredibly poor bullpen that blew 30 saves while only achieving 38 saves and forced the Wombats to add three starting pitchers in Ian Kennedy, Homer Bailey and Ervin Santana mid-season that accounted for 22 wins in the second half. This coupled with a makeshift bullpen made the Wombats a true contender. However, the "ace" of the staff was swingman Allen Webster who went 13-4 with 8 saves between 19 starts and 27 relief appearances and finishing 7th overall in the ERA race at 2.40. All this lead to the Wombats squeezing out the Steinmetz Division by one game over Albany and two over 'Skayuna, only to lose in the first round of the playoffs.

Stat Key

RC: runs created (RC = [A times B] divided by C), where,

A = H + W + HBP - CS - GDP

B = TB + .26 x (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 x (SH + SF + SB)

C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or fewer.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

◆ - TML Record

◇ - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a caret (^) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
