 Thompson "hit for the cycle" in a losing cause; 1:2B; 2:2-RBI 3B; 6:3-run HR; 8:RBI 1B

Walla Walla's Alex Rodriguez ended the season with exactly 3000 career hits and moved into 2nd place in career HRs (641), still 102 HR behind career leader Barry Bonds.

Toxic Waste's David Ortiz is now the career leader in intentional walks (167).

Marco Island's leftfielder Alex Gordon has now played 416 consecutive error-less games!

Albany set a new all-time regular season TML Record for most team strikeouts with 1519 Ks.

Arkansas put together the season's longest winning streak of 21 W from 4/27 to 5/19. The longest losing streak of 17 was by Danny Way from 5/31 to 6/19.

10/25/2015, TX15-AV15, Fenway Park
 Mike Landin's Toxic Waste River Rats successfully defended their TML Championship when they swept Pat Barry's Albany Avalanche in the TML World Series. For the Toxins, it was their TML record-tying 8th TML Championship and record-tying 7th Title for Manager Landin. The Toxins used their strong, deep pitching staff (2.50 ERA in the post season) and just enough offense to get past Valparaiso in 6 games and the outlast Duluth in a grueling 7 games that featured a 15-inning G-7. Albany had reached the TML World Series by first sweeping Rocky Mountain and then holding off the Arkansas powerhouse in 7 games, despite batting .331 as a team!

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 59 Occupation: Retired!

The Season Story

The Albany Avalanche enjoyed their finest season in years, running up 114 wins and a trip to the World Series. Mike Trout had a great season hitting .304 with 48 homers, 125 runs and 151 RBIs. Randall Grichuk cracked 33 home runs and veteran Matt Kemp added 18. The offense overall was very balanced and tallied 887 runs on the season. The pitching staff had a very fine bullpen and effective starters. Uehara (0.77), Strop (1.59), Miller (2.16), Ramos (2.29), Blanton (2.64) and Brach (2.92) all had ERAs that gave Albany a late inning advantage. Matt Harvey 20-7 2.95 and Chris Sale 21-8 4.15 led the starting staff. Chris Young was 13-2 2.79 in 18 spot starts. Next year's team has added Carlos Santana as a big bat, but seems quite shy in the pitching department. Thus, a considerable fall off in wins seems likely.

AMSTERDAM Yankees

Manager: Joel DiTata

Age: 29 Occupation: Elementary Librarian

The Season Story

The Amsterdam Yankees finished their up and down season with a below .500 record. The young players on Amsterdam's roster will look to contribute to the turn around of their franchise as soon as next year. Amsterdam will continue to build toward the future in hopes of becoming a true contender.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 73 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

It was almost déjà vu all over again, but not quite, as last season's runner up lost to a tough (and this season's runner up) Albany nine in the Oceanic Conference Finals. It was another successful season, however, as the Travs finished 112-48, winning the Ruth Division again. Arkansas was led by Jake Arrieta (27-3/1.47) who probably had the best year in franchise history and offensively by Yoenis Cespedes (.302/.327/.593 41 HR/124 RBI. The whole crew will return intact next season and have added Jon Lester in the off season to bolster the rotation.

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 67 Occupation: Supervisor - Cushman and Wakefield

The Season Story

This might have been the first time this Century that the Blue Jays were over .500. Keeping draft picks and being horrible finally paid off. The B&B Boys (Bogaerts and Bryant) led the offense, which really did not have a lot of pop but meshed at times. Team MVP was easily Cory Kluber, who put together a fantastic season and would have won 25 on a better team. As it was though, Burleigh was lucky to have him. A really nice, unfettered season. And if Mike Fetters is available, we will take him.

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 58 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Crabs had another of their maddeningly mediocre seasons, with a putrid offense but enough pitching to avoid being a lottery team. Adam Eaton was lone bright spot for the offense, leading the team in most offensive categories. The bullpen combo on Fernando Rodriguez and Drew Storen (28 SV), along with starter Marco Estrada (12-8, 3.16 ERA) probably kept the team from a higher draft pick, as all other starters lost 15+ games each. Next season the starting pitching and offense will be even worse, so a 100 loss season is possible. I will have fun with Trea Turner running wild on the bases though!

Age: 69 Occupation: Program Manager

The Season Story

2105 replay was a very long season with only a couple of bright spots offensively and none from the pitchers. Nelson Cruz hit .278/.343 with 44 HRs. He knocked in 126 runs and scored 86 times. Schwarber let the team in hitting at .285 in 246 at bats and hit 22 HRs but will be on the IR in 2016 replay due to injury. Rizzo was a major disappointment only hitting .231 for the season. He did club 34 HRs. Kyle Hendricks led the staff with 8 wins but had a 5.20 ERA. Next year's team will be slightly better on offense but have much improved pitching with Hendricks 2.13, Roark 2.83, Wright 3.33, Cole 3.88 and Conley 3.85 starting. Off season - complete the bullpen and get a SS and CFer.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 52 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

The Thundercats, now two years removed from their World Series championship, looked to be headed to another lackluster season, spending much of the first half under .500 and well behind division rival Vanderlyle. Things began turning around during the summer stretch, as Miguel Cabrera returned from his early-season sojourn on the DL, and Stephen Strasburg bounced back from an abysmal start. Duluth finally clinched the division in October, but their 82-78 record presaged a quick exit in the postseason. However, much to the surprise of their opponents Beverly and Toxic Waste, Duluth played like the champions of 2013, stunning Beverly in 5 games, and then in an incredible conference championship that will not be soon forgotten, took Toxic Waste to the 14th inning of Game 7 before finally succumbing. This will likely be the last hurrah for a while, as rebuilding looms for 2016 and beyond.

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 53 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

From first to worst....That a synopsis of the Haymakers 66-94 season. Lorenzo Cain and Manny Machado led the hitting attack with a .306avg and 37hrs respectively. However, this was not enough to overcome our poor pitching (which gave up a league high 206 dingers!). Wily Peralta was the defacto "ace" with a 12-11 record. Equally poor fielding of the balls that managed to stay in the park also contributed to our dismal record. Scoffing at the possibility of a baseball version of "Deflategate", Manager Vollaro will buy a baseball humidior for the games at Camden Yards next season.

LAKE WOBEGONE Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 56 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Well....fans of the Staring Rabbits got to enjoy quite the breeze as Lake Wobegon pitching fanned nearly 9 batters per game, led by Kershaw's 340 Ks and Lester's 227 Ks. Unfortunately, opposing batters hit the ball a lot of the rest of the time (.270). Kershaw and Lester were good enough to have .500 records without much help. When Vizcaino was healthy enough to close, LW could take those close games. When it was left for Wilhelmsen and Salas to finish, blown saves were twice as likely as saves. Offensively, Lake Wobegon was certainly offensive. When the key cogs are a .218 hitting, .423 slugging DH who never touches the ball more than a third of his plate appearances (Carlos Santana) and a singles-machine outfielder (Ben Revere), it's no surprise that the Rabbits were in the bottom 6 in run scoring. LW has decided it has had enough of Santana and Lester, trading both away to fill air at 2B and build on the Corey Seagers, Jung Ho Kangs, etc.

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 33 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Madison was expected to compete this year, with yet another season of the one-two punch of Scherzer and Bumgarner at the top of the rotation, and the offseason trade for slugger J.D. Martinez. While the offense had much more punch than the previous season (it wouldn't take much), lackluster performances from much of the lineup, and a batting practice bullpen made for another mediocre year. Both the offense and pitching look to take big steps forward next year, with Martinez, Altuve, Sano, and newly acquired Hanley Ramirez leading the way. Madison also hopes to get another good ten or twenty years out of 43-year-old Ichiro!

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 20 Occupation: College Student

The Season Story

The TMLAM 15 season was a year that looked bright for this young Gators squad. 6th Year manager Jayson Chapman decided before the draft to trade away some of their veteran pitchers to acquire some new young talent in the draft. These rookies headlined by Stephen Piscotty and Ketel Marte came out and had strong rookie showings with AVGs of .380 (187AB) and .296 (230 AB) respectively. The Gators pitching staff, per usual, decided to play slowpitch this season and give up 1611 hits and abysmal .281 AVG against; both stats were second to worst in the league. The one lone highlight of the Gators season was young slugger Bryce Harper who had an MVP caliber season with a near triple crown title, (.326 AVG .470 OBP .655 SLG). The next season looks bright for this young Gator team.

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 66 Occupation: Attorney/Freelance Writer

The Season Story

The 2015 Season for the Mudville Nine can be summed up in two words: Too little. Too little offense. Too little pitching. Too little defense. But hope springs eternal for the Muddy ones. First round pick Francisco Lindor looks to be the type of A-List player we can build around. Joe Ross and Zach Davis show promise for the pitching staff as well. So on to the draft and let's do well there.

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

Age: 52 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was the best of times, it the worst of times. No, it was mostly worse. The Crows stepped up to the plate this year, hoping to keep their eyes on the ball, and swing for the fences. Sadly, it was not a whole new ball game, and the season was more bush league than major league. It felt like they went up a blind alley and the bottom fell out late in the season. It wasn't even a case of close, but no cigar. Still, every cloud has a silver lining, and some of young players tried to make lemonade out of lemons, and provided a few rays of sunshine. So, there is hope for next year as things have a way of working out for the best.

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 51 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was a dreadful year for the Supercells, as the pitching staff had a hard time getting anybody out. The only bright spot in the starting rotation was Josh Tomlin, who compiled a 5-4 record with a 2.97 ERA in limited action, including a no-hitter in his final start of the season. Mark Melancon had a solid season out of the bullpen, with 21 saves in 23 chances, and a 2.28 ERA. The rest of the pitching staff was not good at all. Robinson Cano, Kendrys Morales, and Carlos Beltran all had solid, but not spectacular, years at the plate. Morales led the team with 24 homers and 85 RBI's. Gregor Blanco hit .303 and led the team with 11 stolen bases in a platoon role in center field.

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 46 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Perth made another playoff appearance in 2015 and gave the mighty Travelers a run for their money in a seven game (extra inning) affair. Perth saw excellent pitching from Greinke and Quintana. Kimbrel saved 31 games. Donaldson was a beast and Hosmer won the batting title. Those two guys had a nice supporting cast consisting of LeMahieu, Gonzalez, Beltre and Heyward. This year Perth said goodbye to long-time Diamond Cat, Adam LaRoche. He said something about wanting to spend more time with his son,... So, Perth will go back to the sandbox and try to shore up some of the team's weaknesses and make another run at it again next year with the hope of advancing past the first round of the playoffs!

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 50 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Mired in sub-.500 waters for over half the season, the heat of summer set fire to the Chinooks who finished up 46-28 to unexpectedly run away with the weak William division. However, arrival in the playoffs signaled an end to the solid bullpen work and a return to the lack of timely hitting which defined the first half of the season, resulting in a clean sweep by the Avalanche. Nolan Arenado was a beast, driving in the most runs (121) since teammate Howard in 2007, and eclipsing the team doubles record (60). With the escalation of the horrific whiff/walk rate, the future even in this weak division is bleak! All the fun wasn't on the offensive side, and the home fans witnesses the fourth no-hitter in team history, a perfect game by Patrick Corbin. Plans are to build a larger wall in left field to make the Chinook pitching great again!

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 66 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

The Squires were surprisingly competitive this season, managing 87 wins with a constantly changing, patch work lineup; very few Squires appear anywhere on this year's "league leaders" lists. Having outstanding bullpen performances by Bryan Morris, Ken Giles and Zach Britton certainly helped. 'Skayuna will again be in "building" mode (can't really "re-build" if it's not really built in the first place!), and hope to step it up a notch next season, particularly with the anticipated emergence of Jonathan Villar (finally!), Odubel Herrera and George Springer into leadership roles.

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

TML Champion x 2

Age: 63 Occupation: Retired/Part-time Prof./Softball Player

The Season Story

The goal of this season was, of course, to try and defend our TML Championship. To do so, a few “holes” had to be filled, so the front office got busy. The acquisition of Mark Buehrle and Javier Lopez solidified an already strong pitching staff. Shortstop Adeiny Hechavarria anchored the defense that already had three “rabbits” in the outfield in Martin, Pollock and Yelich. The offense was boosted by DH acquisitions of David Ortiz and Michael Cuddyer. The Toxins bolted out of the gate in April and never looked back, running away with the Gehrig Division. After getting past Valpo in the first round of the playoffs, the Toxins had their hands full with Duluth in the Conference Final, which not only went the full 7 games, won by Teixeira’s walk-off HR in the bottom of the 15th inning! The shocker was still ahead in the 4-0 sweep of powerful Albany in the TML World Series, as the Toxin starters were just plain awesome! On the season, A.J. Pollock was the offensive leader. Dallas Keuchel (23-5) and Mark Buehrle (22-3) were terrific all season, and the bullpen was superb. The front office is primed to make moves to try for an unprecedented franchise “three-peat!”

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 69 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT); Part-time @Saratoga Casino

The Season Story

The end of a nice 12-year run of contenders came crashing down this Season with the Traffic Dodgers finishing solidly in last place in the entire TMLAM. Not much was expected of this team, as they finished third from the bottom in League hitting and fifth from the bottom in League pitching; but the worst part was the general under-achieving of the Team, almost to a man. Only one batter (a low-end unlimited player) managed to best his MLB stats, and that was by a whole .005 points! Markakis was the lone bright spot in the lineup, playing in all 160 games and only batting a mere .004 points below his MLB stats. Next year looks a bit brighter for the batters, with all positions filled without reliance on low-end unlimited players. The pitching, however, looks even worse save for outstanding young closer Osuna. Lots of rebuilding to be done on this Team to enable Osuna to have something to close-out!

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 42 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

Vanderlyle had a nice turnaround season as they won 42 games more than last season and actually led the Robinson division for a good chunk of the season. Led by a balanced group of young sluggers, the team batting (732 OPS) improved significantly. The team pitching (4.70 ERA) didn't improve much from last year but Cueto (3.12 ERA, 12 CG, 2 SHO), Garcia (1.84 ERA, 28 SV) and Maurer (2.04 ERA) each had fine seasons. Next season looks even less tearful in Vanderlyle as a solid starting pitching staff combined with a balanced offense should make the Geeks a contender once again.

VIENNA Sausage

Manager: James Lang (Andrea)

Age: 34 Occupation: Stay at Home Dad

The Season Story

Coming into the year, the Sausage thought they had a chance for a playoff run. Going all in and dealing a full draft class for aging stars, the front office sent a message that this was the final push prior to a larger rebuilding effort. Also, it was made clear in the local media that this was Lang's last chance to make something out of this team before being shipped off to be an analyst (before being hired by the Nationals eventually). After another disappointing stretch run, look for major changes (both in the front office and the roster) to be made this offseason.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 49 Occupation: Financial Consultant

The Season Story

The Wombats performed a little better than expected, but still were awful. Only a late season series shocker vs. Albany kept them from being a lottery team. The offense was lead by Sterling Marte's .291 average and 32 homeruns. Jose Abreau's sophomore season was a big drop-off from his Player of Year season last year hitting .286 and driving in 92 runs. Alex Rodriguez returned from suspension and had 32 HRs. Andrew Heaney has a nice rookie season posting a 2.49 ERA over 18 starts and Zach McAllister had a strong year with 32 saves and a 2.13 ERA.

Stat Key

RC: runs created (RC = [A times B] divided by C), where,

A = H + W + HBP - CS - GDP

B = TB + .26 x (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 x (SH + SF + SB)

C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or fewer.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

◆ - TML Record

◇ - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a caret (^) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
