Arkansas put together the season's longest winning streak of 14 W from 7/18 to 8/1. The longest losing streak of 11 L was by Burleigh 7/18-7/29 and Danny Way 4/13-4/24.

10/29/2016, BV16-WW16, Wrigley Field
 Bryan Sakolsky's Walla Walla Wombats captured a record-tying 7th TML Championship in defeating Mike Dickinson's relentless Beverly Hillbillies in a stressful 7 games! The Wombats cruised to the TML World Series, getting past Oklahoma and Arkansas in a pair of 5 game series. Beverly had a tougher time, edging Duluth in 7 games and then taking out the two-time defending TML Champs Toxic Waste in 6 games. Wombat post-season MVP Kyle Hendricks was 6-0 in 6 GS, with a 1.68 ERA.

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 60 Occupation: Retired!

The Season Story

Albany rolled up 96 wins due to a surprise performance from its pitching staff. The offense performed as expected which is to say well. Mike Trout put up MVP type numbers (.313 29 homers 109 RBIs with 52 steals). Freddie Freeman hit 28 homers and drove in 114 runs and Justin Turner bashed 39 homers knocking in 117 runs. Justin Upton had 35 homers with 97 RBI's. Billy Hamilton stole 62 bases to lead the league. The pitching staff delivered an ERA nearly 1 point below what I expected and that was the key to the pennant run. Ironically, Chris Sale could only deliver 13 wins despite Cy Young peripherals. However, Juan Guerra, Tyler Anderson and Kenta Maeda were a combined 33-15. Inning eaters Bauer and Moore were 14-6 and 15-10; respectively. The bullpen was a cob job but for Koji Uehara (32 saves), but they were surprisingly effective especially set up man McCarthy. Next year will be interesting.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 74 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

Another good season for the Travs as they finished 106-54 and tied for the Ruth Division championship. Arkansas defeated division rival and perennial playoff opponent Perth in a tight six game series but lost in five games to Walla Walla in the Oceanic Conference finals. Jon Lester (18-3, 2.99) and Jake Arrieta (17-6, 3.05) led the starting rotation and Tyler Thornburg had 40 saves. Brian Dozier had a banner year with 47 homers and 126 RBI to lead the offense.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 48 Occupation: Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

A completely surprising and unexpected season for the Hillbillies. After orchestrating a number of pre-season trades (including getting rid of 80% of the starting rotation) and adding a number of draft picks, the expectation was middling, rebuilding season. Instead, the Hillbillies managed to win their division, win a couple of playoff series and came within 12 outs of winning the World Series. The offense was paced by Joey Votto. Votto didn't have much help but Aledmys Diaz did his part. The starting pitching wasn't strong, but a shutdown bullpen led by Kenley Jansen kept the Hillbillies in many games. I don't know what next season will hold as the Hillbillies still has a number of holes to address, but this season showed me anything is possible... if you only believe!

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 68 Occupation: Datacaster MLB.com

The Season Story

It was a lot of fun and we certainly would not have gone anywhere without Cory Kluber and Matt Kemp. The trade to get Andrew Miller, which at the time seemed to just be a vanity trade worked out to be unintentional genius because he was worth every cent and another reason that the Blue Jays made the playoffs. For this team to advance to a showdown with Division Mate (and two time defending champion Toxic) was a thrill after all the years of horrible Burleigh teams. Somewhere in heaven Joe Steinmetz might have grinned. The future is not bright, but it is brighter and rebuilding is in our immediate future. But, with a good base, I am looking forward to it regardless. Again, it was fun. Thanks Mike for the passion!!!

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 59 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The only question coming into this season was if the Crabs would be bad enough to make the draft lottery. All the ingredients were there : 141 unlimited starts, numerous unlimited players pressed into starting roles, an off year for McCutchen. Yet when the dust settled, the Crabs, awful as they were at 65-95, beat their Pythagorean record by 8 games, settled for 5th place in the draft. Where did I go right? Probably the bullpen duo of Hector Rondon (25 SV) and Ryan Dull (0.88 WHIP, 16 Holds). Next year's team looks to have some improvement in offense (albeit with some holes to fill) and an awful pitching staff with a worse bullpen than this year.

The Season Story

Finished 80-80, offense was strength of team. Finished with 244 HRs, 3rd in the league. Four players ended up with 30 or more HRs and another 4 had 16 or more. Cruz 39, Gattis 33, Rizzo 33, and Semien 30 led the potent attack. Castellanos hit .301 to lead the regulars and Healy hit .355 in a half time role; both hit 16 HRs. Offense should be better in 2017 - the team hit 296 home runs with a .267 avg. Pitching was a disappointment in 2016 with only Roark winning more than 10 games at 14-12 with a 4.26 ERA. Team ERA was 4.91 and 2017 in real life was just as bad with a 4.79 ERA. Only Clevinger and Kahnle had good years. After 33 years in Florida, Connie and I are moving to Delaware to be near family. Looks like I may make the TML drafts in 2018.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 53 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

A surprisingly easy path to another division title for Duluth this year. Management went for a "win-now" strategy prior to the draft, and landed Masahiro Tanaka from Beverly. He very capably led a strong starting rotation, backed by Stephen Strasburg, David Price, and J. A. Happ. Ryan Madson and Raisel Iglesias were excellent as closers. Offensively, Ian Kinsler had his career year (.323/.378/.540, 30 HR), while Paul Goldschmidt, and Miguel Cabrera produced as expected. The Thundercats fell to the scrappy Hillbillies in an exciting 7-game series in the first round of the playoffs. Next year looks to be challenging, so a rebuilding phase looks to be on the horizon.

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 54 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Glenmont started the season battling for the Robinson division lead, but faded badly going in the stretch to finish an ugly 72-88, 25games out of 1st. Subpar hitting and middling pitching were the major culprits. On the mound Brandon Finnegan was the only starter with a winning record. The pen was the lone bright spot with Carl Edwards and David Phelps combining to go 14-2. At the plate "old man" Asdrubal Cabrera led the way with a .320avg. Next season looks to be more of the same as the Haymakers are in the midst of a rebuild.

LAKE WOBEGONE Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 57 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The season was of course ruined by questionable moves by GM Weisman, trading Jon Lester (18-3, 2.99 with AR this year) and Carlos Santana, then forgetting to draft starting pitchers and ending up with Sigh Young candidate Wily Peralta 6-18, 6.03. Despite all of that, Lake Wobegone had enough pitching to keep the team near .500 (part-time starter Clayton Kershaw, who still led the TML in ERA, complete games, control stats, and opposing slugging percentage). The combination of Brad Hand and Adam Ottavino were an effective combination in finishing games. All of the wheeling and dealing left LW 4th in batting average, but in the bottom half of the league in slugging and runs. Corey Seager did have a successful sophomore year, but the lack of on-base skills of the rest of the lineup kept the runs and rbi down. Adam Jones had an extremely productive power year with 35 HR, after feeling threatened by the new center field options of Dyson and Cain. The only reason LW contended is its continued presence in the Gong Show Williams division. Who knows what bad GM-ing can do for the 2017 season?

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 34 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

It was another disappointing season for the Danes, who relied upon stellar performances by Madison Bumgarner and Max Scherzer, but got mediocrity instead. The offense was solid, with the highest team batting average in the Atmospheric Division (.281), slugging an impressive .465 as a team. The offense was led by Jose Altuve (.367/.416/.543) and JD Martinez (.348/.395/.636), who both hope to one day make the playoffs with the Danes! The GM will need to fill some holes...both in offense and pitching... before a complete team can take the field next year!

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 21 Occupation: College Student

The Season Story

What looked to be a promising season for this young Gator squad following a 61-99 campaign in the TMLAM 15, quickly turned into a nightmare. The Gator's looked to improve their standing within the always competitive Williams division. This however, was not the case as they finished dead last in the league with a record of 55-105. This record was thanks to a league worst 5.45 team ERA. The only starter in the Gator's rotation with a sub 4.00 ERA was Matt Shoemaker with a 3.76 ERA but still carried a .289 AVG against. The one bright spot for the Gator's during this bleak season was another strong campaign from 2nd year player Stephen Piscotty with a .306 AVG over 140 games. Finally, the Gator's capped off their losing season by finishing last in the draft lottery letting 7th year manager Jayson Chapman down one last time...

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 67 Occupation: Attorney/Freelance Writer

The Season Story

The rebuilding process continues. We have a solid outfield in Benintendi, Inciarte, and Judge. Benintendi and Judge did not have much to offer this past TML season but that will change beginning next year. Our keystone combo of Lindor and Schoop are also solid and should be for years to come. Surprise performer of the year was Danny Santana. In 248 ABs, he hit .290, .338 OBP, and hit 7 HRs. He was used primarily against RHP. Pitching overall was pretty weak. Lefty Matt Boyd performed above expectations but the pitcher friendly confines were not so friendly to the Nine pitching. Look for improvements there next year.

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

Age: 53 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

This was a season where batting and pitching went in opposite directions. The batting was good, and the Crows finished as one of the top 10 offensive teams in the league. Jay Bruce and Rongned Odor stood out with 100+ RBIs and 41 and 33 HRs respectively. Stephen Vogt had a surprisingly good year, and some of the youngsters hit well. On the other hand, there was the pitching. Particularly the starters, who averaged a 5.55 ERA. Even pitchers like Salazar and Syndergaard did not perform well. I suppose by contrast, the bullpen salvaged some games this season, bringing the overall team ERA back to 4.90. There's some optimism for next year, given the youth here, but, the Crows seem to be at least a season a way from competing.

NEW YORK Pigeons

Manager: Steven Perez

Age: 27 Occupation: Research Technician

The Season Story

Manager Steven Perez took over the Vienna Sausages, moved the squad to New York and renamed them the Pigeons. New Yorkers took readily to the new franchise but neither they nor Pigeons management were under any illusions about the turbulence to come in 2016. There were a lot of 'welcome-to-the-big leagues' moments to ruffle the feathers this season and a leaky bullpen was the motif for much of the season. The Pigeons are headed into the offseason looking to shake things up to take a big step forward in 2017.

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 52 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Supercells benefited from a weak Williams Division to go 85-75 and win the division, before being eliminated by Walla Walla in the first round of the playoffs. Ian Desmond was the offensive leader, hitting .318 with 25 home runs, while Carlos Beltran drove in 100 runs and hit 35 homers. Robinson Cano and Ryan Braun also supplied plenty of power, blasting 33 and 30 homers respectively. Justin Verlander led the pitching staff with 20 victories and 272 strikeouts. The rest of the starting rotation struggled, although Yu Darvish did go 8-3 in limited action. The bullpen was led by Mark Melancon, who converted 32 out of 37 save opportunities. Jason Grilli, Zach Duke, and Jake Diekman also had solid seasons out of the pen.

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 47 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

2017 saw Perth tie a franchise record for the number of wins in a season. Perth's season was marked by a balanced attack of solid defense and a productive offense. Despite the regular season success, Perth was, again, befallen by its old nemesis Arkansas in the playoffs. The next step in Perth's evolution is to make it deeper in the playoffs. Marco Estrada, John Lackey and Rick Porcello paced Perth's starters all having solid seasons. Craig Kimbrel was, as usual, solid as Perth's closer. D.J. LeMahieu once again paced the team in batting average and the Diamond Cats saw solid offensive performances from Eric Hosmer, Josh Donaldson and Jean Segura. Perth lead the league in team pitching, was second in team batting and tied for third in team fielding; so overall a solid team performance for the season. Perth will continue to search for the magic bullet to help the team move deeper into the playoffs. Until next year

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 51 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

This team was offensive, but not with the bats (.239/.304/.402). You might even want to hurl, but not a baseball (fifth worst team ERA at 4.94 – only that low due to a decent September). Scary how bad the overall record (60-100) might have been without the league’s best defense. We showed neither favoritism in hitting or dishing out HRs, nor whiffing on either side of the plate. Nolan Arenado continued to pace the Chinooks offense (overlooking the .241 BA) while Kole Calhoun (.283/.357/.457) really stepped it up at the plate. The bullpen was probably the largest disappointment, but would hard to argue that starters impressed at all (only 10 game winner was reliever Herrera and had a 20 game loser in Stroman.) The front office was surprised by a lottery windfall in the number one overall pick! Fans bid farewell to longtime Chinook Ryan Howard.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 67 Occupation: Retired!

The Season Story

Very disappointing year for the Squires, barely missing last place in the Division. Lowlights included a dearth of batters in the various leader categories (except for strikeouts, where we had 2 guys in the top five!), and managed only 625 RBI's as a team (22 of 24). Pitching was typified by the relief work of the real life untouchable, Zach Britton, who managed to blow six saves in only 32 opportunities for the Squires. There was some positive news in the relatively steady performances of George Springer and Odubel Herrera, but there just wasn't much "there" there. Looks like another rebuilding off-season.

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 64 Occupation: Retired/Part-time Prof./Softball Player

The Season Story

Management made in-season acquisitions of Jose Fernandez and Johnny Cueto, who combined for a 13-1 record, and Wade Davis, who was 15/16 in SVO. A final acquisition of Steve Pearce had boosted the offense and helped strengthen a rearranged defense. Newcomer Daniel Murphy had a sensational season, losing the batting title to Jose Altuve at the end of the season by only 4 points! David Ortiz was his awesome self and was often pitched around (34 IW)! This team was stronger than the previous two teams that had won back-to-back TML Championships. However, the chance for a "3-Peat" was dashed when the Toxins ran into an amazing run of luck by Beverly in the Atmospheric Conference Final and the total failure of Diamond Mind to simulate the sport of baseball ... the latter of which had me seriously considering retiring from this hobby! Pathetic.

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 70 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT); Part-time @Saratoga Casino

The Season Story

The Traffic Dodgers finished next to last in the league, a move up of ONE position from last year; at this rate, TR Manager Ken Fusci will be 92 years old when he finally wins a TMLAM Championship!! All Star catcher, Yadier Molina lead the team in hitting at .304 (the only one over .300), while Nick Markakis was steady as a rock in rf, playing in 158 games while hitting .276. TR could not manage a double digit winner, as Edinson Volquez lead the team with only 9 wins; however, he also had the distinction of being second in the league with the most loses at 19. Thus, it's the starting pitching that needs the most improvement, along with upgrades at several positional spots. Management hopes to achieve some improvements via the Draft and Trades in an attempt to speed up that 22 year drive to a Championship!!

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 43 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

Expectations were high in Vanderlyle to start the season. A playoff appearance was expected. But alas, it was not to be as the team struggled around the .500 mark most of the season. Finally, in August, the towel was thrown in, and 3/5 of the starting rotation was traded away. The team batting (736 OPS) was decent and led by part-time catcher Rivera (402 OBP, 566 SLG) and Dave Kingman-like slugger Trumbo (276 OBP, 40 HRs, 97 RBI). The pitching (4.04 ERA) was mediocre and led by the bullpen trio of Bowman, Feliz and Bedrosian who combined for 29 saves and an ERA a little over 2. It looks like Vanderlyle is headed back to rebuilding mode for next season as a 76 win season is projected.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

TML Champion

Age: 50 Occupation: Financial Consultant

The Season Story

After a slow start the Wombats finished strong to take the division by 15 games to en route to winning the 7th TML Championship in franchise history. The Wombats pitching staff was second in the TML in ERA led by Kyle Hendricks and his 24-4 record and 2.64 ERA. The bullpen was the best in years with 8 different pitchers contributing saves led by Alex Colome and his 37 saves. Six relievers had ERAs below 2.50. The team lead the TML in hitting with an overall slash line of .286/.347/.469 with 220 HRs led by Rookie Gary Sanchez's .395/.455/.839 with 31 HRs in 248 at-bats and 72 RBIs. Contributions were spread around as no one had 100 RBIs or but 5 players had over 72 RBI and 4 players hit over 20 HRs led by Marcel Ozuna with 35. Combined the Wombats catchers (Sanchez, Tyler Fowler and David Ross) had 43 HRs and 122 RBI.

Stat Key

RC: runs created (RC = [A times B] divided by C), where,

A = H + W + HBP - CS - GDP
 B = TB + .26 x (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 x (SH + SF + SB)
 C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or fewer.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

◆ - TML Record

◇ - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a caret (^) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
