Jose Ramirez of Vanderlyle set a regular season All Time TML Record for doubles (78).

Perth put together the two longest winning streaks of the season, first 19 straight from 5/30 To 6/19 and later, 21 straight wins from 8/13 to 9/4. The longest losing streak of 13 losses was by `Skayuna from 8/11 to 8/25.

10/28/2017, MN17-WW17, Wrigley Field
 After finishing the regular season 19-2, Ross Lazear's Madison Danes steamrolled their way through the post season all the way to their first ever TML Championship, including defeating Bryan Sakolsky's defending Champion Walla Walla Wombats in the TML World Series in 6 games! The Danes had swept Burleigh and took out Toxic Waste in 6 games to reach the World Series. The Wombats had two tough series, getting past Marco Island in 6, but going the distance to beat Perth, to return to the World Series. While Jose Altuve (.344, 15 R, 10 RBI) and J.D. Martinez (.310, 10 R, 18 RBI) kept the Danes in nearly every game, post-season MVP Max Scherzer was outstanding in his 5 GS. Max only posted a 2-2 record, but had 2 shutouts and only issued 3 walks (all in the Toxic Waste series), while fanning 46 in 38 innings!

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 61 Occupation: Retired!

The Season Story

At the beginning of the season, Albany initiated a youth movement that deconstructed an aging, but pennant contending team into a contender for a top 10 draft pick. Albany did get considerably younger and will contend next year, but much to their manager's surprise, the team stayed in sniffing distance of the playoffs until the final month of the season. The offense was a big reason for this: Mike Trout, Tommy Pham and Freddie Freeman all enjoyed fine years, but each missed about a quarter of the season hurting their counting numbers. Andrelton Simmons was a mainstay giving gold glove defense and a solid bat for the entire season. Chris Sale pitched in hard luck, going 15-13, with 332 strikeouts. Trevor Bauer gave him solid support but managed just a 13-10 record. The rest of the starting staff was a disaster. The bullpen once again pitched well, but was thin. Next year a kiddie corp of hitters and pitchers should see Albany crest the 90 win mark.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 75 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

After a good stretch of seasons, we could see the handwriting on the wall early and in a mid-season trading spree disposed of most of our pitching staff for picks and prospects/suspects/ waiver claims. We did add five 2019 draft picks including a first and second and claimed seven new players. The immediate future looks rather bleak as the Travs will retool almost from scratch.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 49 Occupation: Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Another great season from the Hillbillies that, sadly, ended earlier than expected. Featuring an offense and pitching that finished within the top 5 in the league, the Hillbillies cruised to a 100 win season and division title. The Hillbillies featured a deep lineup from top to bottom which made them a tough out. Joey Votto did Joey-Votto like things - lots of walks with some power. Ryan Zimmerman resurrected his career with 38 home runs. Outside of Michael Fulmer's spectacular season, the pitching staff was pieced together with a solid bullpen tying it together. BV's in season trades were supposed to solidify the pitching rotation. In the end, the big trade failed and the Hillbillies are now a part of post-season history... for all the wrong reasons. Some interesting pieces are in place that may anchor the next Hillbilly generation.

The Season Story

A Division title after a lot of seasons of wandering in the wilderness, trading great picks due to laziness and time constraints and finally, an epiphany. This team was a lot of fun to play and Corey Kluber led them from start to finish. No hitter stood out, but the pitching was excellent. Back to the end of the line next year, but, I would like to think for one season that Joe Steinmetz might be grinning. Thanks too to dear friend and team GM until he passed, Rich Goldberg for that eye that grabbed Kluber. Great job Mike. As you know, appreciate all you do every day.

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 60 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The 2018 Crabs were as awful as advertised, but not awful enough to earn an expected spot in the draft lottery. The offense was a little better than expected thanks to a fine year by McCutchen (39 HR, 128 RBI, 129 RC) and Trea Turner's league-leading 41 SB. This was in spite of almost 1000 AB for players under or near the Mendoza line (Mr's Montero, Jaso, Tejada, Soler and Flaherty). The pitching was truly awful as expected, with only two pitchers (Barnes and Rondon) under 4.00 ERA. Jared Hughes won the "I Hate Diamond Mind" award: real-life ERA=3.02, TML ERA=6.75). Next year's team has a semblance of a rotation but probably a worse offense, lacking among other things a full-time first baseman at the moment.

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 71 Occupation: Retired & Full-Time Grandpa

The Season Story

Another rebuilding year, finishing with a 67-93 record; batting in the bottom third of the league at .249 and near the bottom in pitching at 4.96. Andrew Jones, an off season acquisition led the team in hitting at .297 with 28 HRs. Nick Castellanos collected 63 xbase hits, 10 or more 2bs, 3bs, and HRs. Paul DeJong clubbed 31 HRs to lead the team. Gerrit Cole led the pitching staff with a 4.18 ERA and a 12-12 record. Tyler Olson had 16 saves and a 1.31 ERA to lead the pen. End of year actual stats for 2018 indicates an improved offense and ERA...that said, let the draft begin!!!

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 54 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

It was a difficult season for the Thundercats, as the team ages out of its recent period of playoff-caliber baseball. Offense was particularly a problem, with Paul Goldschmidt being the only noteworthy performer. Pitching was also a problem, especially given that J.A. Happ and David Price were major disappointments (the latter being injured for a good part of the season). The team was a seller by midseason, and looks to continue to rebuild for at least the next couple of seasons.

FOG CITY Sea Dogs

Manager: Mike DiLinardo

Age: ?? Occupation: Obscured - WOXOF

Team Name Change

Kentucky WildCats

The Season Story

Fog City finished a respectable 3rd in the tough Ruth Division, which is pretty amazing being that the team ranked 21st in team batting and in the middle of the pack in pitching. The offense was centered around Edwin Encarnacion, who blasted 47 HR, along with tallying 109 RBI. There was not much other support from the regulars. The highest win total on the pitching staff was only 9 wins. And, no reliever had more than 7 SV, due to the “bullpen-by-committee” method. The most puzzling aspect of the Sea Dogs season was their Manager ... who randomly appeared ... and disappeared ... throughout the season ... like a “quantum particle” ... until after the Summer Stretch ... when he faded away in a dense fog ... never to be seen again! “The Truth is Out There!” The team will be moved to Kentucky, where we understand there are “clear” days ahead. Welcome back, Rocky Hall!

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 55 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Glenmont's season started badly and ended even worse, having the second worst record in the league. The 59 wins were 13 less than last season! Putrid starting pitching was the main culprit for the 2017 swoon. The staff was "led" by rookie Julio Urias' 9 wins and 4.52ERA. Every regular starter finished with double digit losses. The hitting was on par with the rest of the league. Josh Reddick and Eduardo Nunez batted over .300 while "Nunie" swiped 28 bags to help Glenmont lead the league with 124. Will "not so thrilling" Myers led the team with 24hr. An underwhelming season from Manny "I'm not Johnny Hustle" Machado may have management attempt major shakeup in the offseason

The Season Story

OK, riddle me this... a team that has 52 saves and 11 blown saves only goes 5-9 when tied after 7 innings, is 15-26 in one-run games and 4-6 in extra innings. Well, giving up 226 HRs answers a lot of that, including being out homered 20-6 in the “decisive” 8 game series against Marco Island. Even Clayton Kershaw, who got off to a hot 10-3 with sub-2 era start, fell victim to the gopher bug. Brad Hand, Arodys Vizcaino, Joe Kelly, Matt Barnes, and Tyler Lyons tried to be the Most Valuable Bullpen. Offensively, Lorenzo Cain set the tables and Yulieski Gurriel was the best all around team hitter, but too many DPs and not enough power (6th in average, but 9th in runs), symbolized by geezer Brandon Phillips (502 ab, .388 slugging, 26 DPs) kept the offense iffy. A weaker offense and bullpen likely means less than mediocrity for 2018.

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

TAI Champion

Age: 35 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

After years of trying to put together a playoff-bound team, everything finally came together this year for Madison, as not only did the team make the playoffs, but they won their first ever franchise championship, beating Walla Walla in a 6-game series! Madison's playoff record was an impressive 12-4, beating Burleigh and Toxic Waste before taking the championship. During the season, offensively, the leaders were clearly J.D. Martinez (.340/.416/.784 with 57 HR) and Jose Altuve (.339/.402/.518), but Miguel Sano and Hanley Ramirez (35 and 33 H R, respectively) had excellent seasons, too. Madison's starting pitching was led by the dominant one-two-punch of Max Scherzer (2.05 ERA, .175 opp. avg., 303 K) and Luis Severino, and 2016's waiver claim Pat Neshek led the league in saves with 47. While some of the core looks to be equally productive next year, there will be quite a few holes to fill, which Madison hopes to do in the draft and offseason trades. Hopefully the success continues next season!

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 22 Occupation: Student/Engineer

The Season Story

It finally appears that the Gators have turned the corner (only took 8 seasons...), with the Gators making their first playoff appearance under manager Jayson Chapman. Although it was a quick playoff run, the Gators offense showed plenty of promise throughout the season by scoring 926 runs (2nd in the league) and breaking the league record with 295 homeruns as a team... which was quickly beaten by the potent Walla Walla offense. 6 players on the team hit for more than 20 HRs. However, it was the pitching that once again let the team down with a 5.32 combined ERA which goes down as 3rd worst in the league. The future for the Gators looks bright with solid core led by Stanton (.323 AVG, 68 HRs, 166 RBI) and Josh Hader (3.33 ERA, .159 OAVG, 1.05 WHIP).

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 68 Occupation: Attorney/Freelance Writer

The Season Story

The Nine made it back to the post-season for the first time in 5 years. Our 90 win season was good enough for 2nd place albeit 23 games behind first place Walla Walla. The team acquitted itself well against a superior team in the Perth Diamond Cats. Ultimately though we lost in seven. The team looks to take a step backward in the 2018 season but the nucleus of a good team is there. The question is, can we get to the next level of being a perennial contender.

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

Age: 54 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

There as not much in the expectations at the start of the of season, so there wasn't much disappointment when the season ended. Other than a one good performance from the pitching staff, Danny Salazar, who then went and blew his arm out, it was mostly a disaster. Jay Bruce and Josh Bell were the Crows top offensive producers, but there wasn't too much else there. It's a young team and there's hope for the future, as long as injuries don't get the rookies first, as seems to happen with this team lately.

The Season Story

The Pigeons took a big step forward in their second season! They improved over their 2016 season win total by 16, finishing two games above .500 at 81-79. Despite that some can't help but feel some disappointment after the Pigeons got off to a fast start in April (16-11). May brought the high-flying Pigeons back down to earth with a 11-17 record. The Pigeons went on to play near .500 baseball the rest of the year (54-51). Progress was made this season and there's a lot to look forward to next season! Until next season, keep pecking!

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate (Michelle)

Age: 53 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was a dismal season for the Supercells, as they stumbled to a 62-98 record. The offense and pitching were both subpar, which is a bad combination. Justin Upton was the offensive MVP, hitting .272 with 29 homers and 73 RBI's. Billy Hamilton did steal 32 bases despite hitting just .229. Sonny Gray was the team's best starting pitcher, with an ERA of 3.50 despite an 8-14 record. Mark Melancon was perfect in 13 save opportunities, and Nick Vincent was also solid out of the bullpen, with 17 saves and a 1.70 ERA to go along with a 7-5 record.

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 48 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

The season was another successful one for Perth, but once again the Diamond Cats came up a little short of its goal of winning the TMLAM World Series. Perth took eventual World Series runner-up Walla Walla to seven games in the conference final, but just couldn't quite get over the hump. Perth tied a franchise record winning 106 games this season. The offense was powered by Hosmer, Cruz, Donaldson, and Taylor. Pitching was solid all year and Zack Greinke became Perth's all-time wins leader. Perth's management will now determine if the team can make one more run or if it's time to dismantle the ship and start looking for another crew. After all, it's not easy shippin' up to Boston and it's even tougher shippin' up to the TMLAM World Series!

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 52 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Chinooks made a habit of dancing just below .500 most of the year, so despite a late run at a weak division title, we came up just short. This Rocky Mountain rendition had a love affair with the long ball and the whiff. Nolan Arenado led the team in most offensive categories, but lost out on the HR title to upstart Cody Bellinger (40). The usually stalwart bullpen was shaky at best, and only a single opponent lost more one-run games than the 2017 Chinooks. Oddly enough, only a single team had more extra inning wins. DOES NOT COMPUTE! Pitching looks stronger in 2018, but the offense seems to fall off the cliff, so probably another year of mediocrity ahead.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 68 Occupation: Retired!

The Season Story

The season started off surprisingly well, with the Squires hanging with the division leaders---until they wilted during the summer heat. No mystery remains after looking at the final stats: 'Skayuna placed only ONE player in the entire listing of TML Batting leaders.... and that was Orlando Arcia, with 8 SACRIFICE BUNTS! Victor Martinez and Albert Pujols were less than mere shadows of their former selves and had to be benched for much of the season. George Springer was a bright spot with 36 HRs, but there were so few guys on base, they only produced 74 RBI. Only some halfway decent pitching led the Squires to a truly mediocre overall season. It will be yet another rebuilding year.....sigh!

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 65 Occupation: Retired/Part-time Prof./Softball Player

The Season Story

It became very clear heading into the Summer Stretch that the Toxins were only in for a Wild Card at best, but needed to acquire some starting pitching to go from pretender to contender. GM George Biffenbrenner got busy. In an “all in” poker move, he acquired Andrew Cashner and Jon Gray, to join Drew Pomeranz and Dallas Keuchel. In a separate deal, he picked up Yadier Molina to add some offense at the catcher position. It nearly worked, as the Toxins fell just short of making the World Series. They could not stop Jose Altuve and J.D. Martinez in the Conference Final. Of course, the highlight of the season was Cashner’s Perfect Game in the Conference Semi-Final against rival Beverly. During the regular season, a relentless offense was led by Daniel Murphy, Marwin Gonzalez, Joe Mauer, Christian Yelich and newcomer Molina. Pomeranz (15-7) and Keuchel (14-5) were the top starters, but the bullpen was very strong, headed by closer Wade Davis (1.57, 34 SV, 40 RP). Five other relievers posted ERAs under 3.00. Next season is going to be interesting ... as the offense should be fine, the bullpen strong (with a different cast of characters), but the starting pitching will be nonexistent!

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 71 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT); Part-time @Saratoga Casino

The Season Story

So the Traffic Dodgers finished the Season with the following Team stats as ranked in the 24 Team League: Team AVG 9th; Team ERA 16th; Team Fielding 5th. Now with those stats, one might guess that TR finished somewhere in mid-pack. How about fourth from the bottom, 21st in the League, and thus just out of the Lottery Draft to boot! So be on the lookout for wholesale changes to this Team over the off-Season as there's plenty of blame to spread around and plenty of room for improvement from the generally underperforming players to the sloppy, clueless Manager!

VALPARAISO Drench

Team Name Change

Manager: Alan Srock

Santa Ana Winds

Age: 36 Occupation: Assistant Professor/Meteorologist

The Season Story

A tough season for the Drench, with a last place finish and a TML worst regular season record. The only saving grace is “winning” the overall #1 pick in the upcoming Rookie Draft. The big bats on offense were provided by Mike Moustakas, who hit .302, with 35 HR and 93 RBI, and Domingo Santana, who hit .270, with 33 HR and 72 RBI. Joey Gallo was “all or nothing” batting only .190 with 206 K, but socking 36 HR and notching 76 RBI. The Drench did sock 232 HR as a team for the 5th highest total in the TML. However, pitching (team ERA of 5.60) was a serious issue, as no pitcher won 10 games. Tommy Hunter led the shaky bullpen with only 11 SV. The team will be under new management (GM Rob Fovell) and be known as the Santa Ana Winds.

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 44 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

The season went pretty much as expected in Vanderlyle. The crying levels were high, but not as extreme as in previous years. The team batting (734 OPS) was decent and was led by fantastic individual performances by Jose Ramirez (new TML record 78 2B!, 30 HR, 118 R, 87 RBI, 948 OPS) and Carlos Correa (27 HR, 95 RBI, 1011 OPS). Correa did his damage in only 449 ABs. The pitching was mediocre. Quintana (3.89 ERA, 230 K) was the "ace" of the starting pitching staff and Bowman (2.53 ERA, 18 Sv) was the best the bullpen had to offer. It looks like another middling season for Vanderlyle next year. 75 wins and high levels of crying are projected.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 51 Occupation: Technology Consultant

The Season Story

A season of many achievements that took the Wombats to the brink of back-to-back championships only to be out-pitched by the Madison Danes, the first time all year Wombat bats fell silent. The Wombats led all the TML in batting and pitching, and as typical for this franchise no one player stood out but a total team effort. The Wombats set a TML record with 304 home runs with 7 players contributing more than 20: Ozuna 42, Abreu 38, Sanchez 33, Andrus 32, Puig 26, Rendon 25 and Baez 20. Abreu led the team with a .300 average and 140 RBI. On the mound Ervin Santana was dominate winning 22 games, Lance Lynn 18 and Hendricks and Walker both with 15. Brad Brach led the team with 16 saves, most before the Summer Stretch with mid-season pickup Felipe Rivero kicking in 14.
