ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 62 Occupation: Retired!

The Season Story

The Avalanche had their best season in years, winning the Steinmetz Division and finally losing a hard fought seven game series to Danny Way in the conference finals. The team benefited from strong hitting and pitching. The hitting was paced by Freddie Freeman and Mike Trout. They received a lot of help from .300 hitters Andrelton Simmons and Andrew Benintendi. Matt Olson and Tommy Pham launched over 20 homers each for the AVs. Trevor Bauer and Chris Sale headlined a decent starting rotation. David Hernandez and Oliver Perez led a super bullpen. The team had a fine year, just 5 wins shy of a title. Next year the strong hitting looks even better, but the pitching has fallen apart. Sneaking into the playoffs might be a stretch unless the draft surprises.

The Season Story

Another rebuilding year with expected results with a possible silver lining as a few prospects actually showed some promise: Ronald Guzman, J. P. Crawford, Scott Kingery, Jordan Luplow, Lourdes Gurriel Jr. among them. Another decent draft should put us on the road to respectability.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 50 Occupation: Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Entering the season we had no notions of competing for a division title. In fact, Hillbillies entered the beginning phases of a long-overdue renovation and rebuilding effort. Those plans were accelerated when the team's best pitchers and hitters were sent off in mid-season trades for flotsam and jetsam (and draft picks). Despite these trades, the Hillbillies found itself atop a soft Gatto Division. Managing to win a one-game playoff, Beverly found itself in the playoffs and seemingly overmatched. While the expected loss occurred, the series was far more competitive than expected. The next phase of rebuilding begins in earnest. We'll see where the Hillbillies go from here.

BURLEIGH Blue Jays

Manager: Jim Pertierra (Janet)

Age: 70 Occupation: Datacaster MLB.com

The Season Story

In a season highlighting power, the Blue Jays did not have much. They did if it was the early 80's but not in this era. Nonetheless, the team came surprisingly close to making the playoffs. That was fueled by their big 2 starters, Cory Kluber and Aaron Nola. The rest of the starters tried but the lack of bullpen strength came back to bite the team. All in all though, a very satisfying season. Not many expectations but they were a lot of fun to play the entire year. Thanks to Mike Landin for his normal, underappreciated, superb job with the league.

CALIFORNIA Black Sox

Manager: Jason King (Anne)

Age: 50 Occupation: Store Director

The Season Story

The Black Sox moved from Oklahoma out to California and struggled in their first season in Southern California (55-105). The roster turn over was the big focus in 2018, turning the older players into younger players in hopes of building for the future. The first pick in the draft brought the face of the franchise in Ronald Acuna Jr., and the second first round pick brought in another young outfielder in Austin Meadows. After all was said and done the Black Sox only have 3 players remaining from the original Oklahoma roster, and the average age dropped from 32 to 25. Ronald Acuna was the offensive MVP for 2018 (.314 ave, .378 obp, .615 slg & 27 home runs), and Jordan Hicks was the pitcher of the year (19 saves, 2.79 ERA). Manager King really enjoyed his first year in the TMLAM, and is really looking forward to the 2020 season.

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 61 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

"The Crabs were steaming at home (45-35) and stunk on the road (30-50)" is a good description of CH's 2018 season, and with a 75-85 record they did better than I expected. Stats-wise no one hitter stood out, Muncy was clearly the best offensive player with 31 HR and a 1.026 OPS in 106 games. The less said about the pitching the better. As to the future, the GM is still pinching himself on hitting the jackpot with his Free Waiver Claims Brian Goodwin, Christian Walker, AND Gio Urshela; were all you Yankee fans asleep out there? Next season should be more fun with the emergence of Luis Castillo, Yoan Moncada, and the alien who took over Jorge Soler's body and hit 48 HR.

The Season Story

Preseason predictions would place DW near the top of the league as they ranked 4th in hitting .262/.328 and 1st in pitching at 2.60. Those indicators would hold true for the season as DW finished 5th in hitting at .263/.324 and 1st in pitching at 2.60. Clearly pitching was the strength of the DW team. Cano was DW's leading hitter in a part-time role. He hit .307/.383 with 27 2bs, and 9 hrs. The starters were led by Cy Young candidate Jacob deGrom with a 23-2 record and a 1.81 ERA. Clevinger 2.34, 17-7 and Mikolas 2.45, 17-3 were also standouts. Cole at 3.52 and 17-8 was DW's 4th SP. The bullpen was outstanding:8 relievers posted ERAs between 1.05 and 2.02. The season culminated in DW's TML World Series Championship.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 55 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

Duluth looked to begin a rebuilding program this year, but surprisingly got off to a good start and kept on a winning pace all season long. Once division rival Madison had to rest some of their regulars, the Thundercats decisively pulled ahead and achieved one last division crown before rebuilding begins in earnest next year. Without a doubt, the squad was led by starter Kyle Freeland (17-4, 2.15, 4 CGs that were all shutouts) and closer Blake Treinen (8-1, 33 Saves, and an incredible 0.43 ERA). Offense was nothing special, but deep enough to win. Once Duluth faced a full-strength Danes squad in the playoffs, the Thundercats were easily dispatched 4-1, thus beginning what looks to be a "cat nap" of several years!

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 56 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Haymakers showed definite improvement from last season's 59-101 record. The team played well enough to fool the fans into thinking they were contenders, only to see the team fade into mediocrity down the stretch. A strong lineup led by MVP candidate Mitch Haniger(1.038 OPS), could not overcome the dismal starting pitching. Only one starter, Alex Cobb(17wins), posted an ERA under 5! Dealing from strength, the late season trade of Manny Machado for two starters will hopefully transform the Haymakers into a contender next season.

KENTUCKY Wildcats

Manager: Rocky Hall (Alfreda)

Age: 63 Occupation: Retired / Business Owner

The Season Story

The tale of three seasons: The WildCats started out the year 12-27, went 50 and 53, then dropped 12 of their last 16, to finish 66-94. Mookie Betts did it all for Kentucky, hitting .333 with 31 doubles, 36 homers, while scoring 119 runs. To put the icing on the cake, he walked 92 times and stole 74 bases in 101 attempts. Ozzie Albies had 41 doubles with 26 homers, but hit only .262 with 80 runs scored, and 81 RBI's. But, that was the offense. The WildCats hit .231 as a team and scored only 645 runs. The pitching was led by Marco Gonzalez 10-10 3.56 ERA and German Marquez 12-15 4.17 with 245 K's. Matt Harvey did agree to go to the bullpen and saved 27 of 31 save chances while pitching in 88 games and logging 122 innings. With high Draft Picks and trades, the goal for next year is to put together a .500 club.

LAKE WOBEGON Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 59 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The season was best summed up by Clay-more Kershaw, of the 7-16 record, league-leading 33 gopher balls, and 4.59 ERA despite a 1.27 WHIP. Or did Supertramp sum it up with "The Long Way Home." The Lake Wobegon offense scored barely 4 runs a game. I suppose Justin "Carrier" Upton was the offensive MVP, since registering 6 strikeouts for each HR was quite offensive. Lorenzo Cain nearly mutined for the all the times he got on base and was left there. Yu-leave-em-ski Gurriel hit a hollow .290 with 26 DPs for extra bonus. Somehow, Rick Porcello was the most effective starter, and I'll-Roll-This-Pitch Vizcaino saved 15 of 18 games despite 9 HRs in 39 innings. Typical of LW, this team ended up in a logjam of mediocre at 75-85.

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

The Season Story

Madison was on the hunt for a repeat of the TML championship, and took an early lead in the Robinson Division before gradually falling into second place to the Thundercats. Led by a strong rotation of Scherzer, Severino, Bumgarner, and Hill...and an outstanding offensive core of JD Martinez, Starling Marte (traded for in the off-season), and Jose Altuve, Madison took the conference semis in 5 from the division rival Thundercats, and the conference final in 5 from Toxic Waste, a rematch of last year. Danny Way's outstanding pitching stymied Madison in the World Series, and Madison was swept in four games despite some very close games where the hits just didn't come at the right time. Madison looks forward to another strong team next year, and will be on the lookout for some bullpen arms in the offseason.

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 23 Occupation: Student/Engineer

The Season Story

After a solid previous season where the Gators made the playoffs for the first time under manager Jayson Chapman, they appeared to be in good position to improve on their 83 win season. However... winning games is pretty tough when the team ERA is 4.78 (5th worst in the league). On the bright side, the offense continued its dominance from the previous season and powered the Gators to 81 wins and ANOTHER division title! This potent offense was led by Gennett (.334 AVG, 203 hits) and Merrifield (48 2B, 207 hits). Young arms Taylor Rogers, Blake Snell and Jose Berrios led the way on the pitching side. The Gators are in prime position to contend again next season!

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 69 Occupation: Attorney/Freelance Writer

The Season Story

There was joy again in Mudville as the Nine made another trip to the post-season. Mudville has never been known as a power hitting team in the past but this year trailed only Walla Walla in the long ball department. The Nine went deep 256 times. Aaron Judge, Francisco Lindor, and Jesus Aguilar each hit 30+ dingers. Mudville's pitching was its best in years despite the lack of a true No. 1 starter. A deep bullpen helped with Brandon Morrow and Pedro Strop each collecting 16 saves. As for next season, let's just say Mudville has taken two steps forward over the last couple of seasons and now it is time for one step back.

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

The Season Story

Despite a season of mostly sub-par performances, the Crows managed to tie for the division lead at the end of the season. This only led to additional disappointment after an extra inning loss in the tie breaking game. Rumors have it that management already had their bags packed for the winter before the game even started. Still, there were a few bright spots. Ryu was great, when he wasn't hurting in the dugout. Some middle of the road starters played more to the right side of the road, Wade LeBlanc, Derek Holland and Ty Blach were the standouts in this category. The offense was anemic, and that's being generous. None of the offensive players appeared in any of the end of year leaders lists. The less said about this, the better. There's some signs that the younger players are coming along, and maybe some hope for next year.

NEW YORK Pigeons

Manager: Steven Perez

Age: 29 Occupation: Meteorological Field Technician

The Season Story

After two years of finishing in the middle of the pack and never really threatening the bottom fell out for the New York Pigeons. The season wasn't a totally lost cause, however! The Pigeon faithful got to watch Khris Davis compete and win the HR crown in the TML with 44 homeruns! The Pigeons are in the middle of a full-fledged rebuilding but with luck in the draft lottery and some bright players things are looking up. We'll see if the Pigeons can get soaring again in 2019!

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 49 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Perth came into this season with high expectations and a late season trade heightened those expectations. However, the Diamond Cats found out that sometimes reality doesn't meet expectations. Perth faltered a bit at the end of the season and came up one game short of a potential playoff berth. Segura, Gonzalez and Cruz paced the offense. The rotation was solid and Kimbrel, once again, was among the league's top relievers. Adrian Beltre used up his 9th baseball life and will now await entry into the Hall of Fame. Next year's Diamond Cats return a very good rotation, decent relief and an above average offense and expects to, again, be in the hunt for a playoff run. Like Beverly, manager Syzdek keeps waiting for the right time to blow this team up, but they keep clawing toward the top of the heap. We shall see ....

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

The Season Story

Despite kicking the ball around and suffering from an utter lack of hitting in many instances, it was the strong pitching that gave the Chinooks a seven game lead as the calendar turned to September. Then came the Danny Way series where we scored 2 runs and gave up 32 over the first four games, and then the matching of this unbelievably pathetic performance scoring 5 and giving up 33 again Lake Wobegon. Blink, and we're down a game. Blink again, and the season was over losing the final home series to the Gators. The staff was led by Patrick Corbin (17-7, 2.78, 249K), while Mallex Smith (.304, 30 SB, league best 12 3B) and Nolan Arenado (30 HR, 100 RBI) paced the offensive side. We'll have to see if the youth of the staff will stick around long enough to see if a bat can really hit a ball.

SANTA ANA Winds

Manager: Rob Fovell (Mei-Ying)

The Season Story

After last season's 109 losses, which put them 56 games off the pace, the Valpo Drench were run out of town and wound up in Santa Ana with a new nickname, the Winds, and new management. The Winds improved by 16 wins and even held onto 2nd place in the Gatto for most of the season. But mediocre hitting only gets a team so far, and well below average pitching will always take its toll. Better luck next year!

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 69 Occupation: Retired!

The Season Story

The Squires flirted with respectability all year long, despite the absence of a legitimate starting rotation. 'Skayuna rode a very strong bullpen into the final month of the season, when the bottom fell out...capped off by the wrong end of an 8-0 series sweep at the hands of the Mudville 9. A lot of mediocre performances both by our TML players and their real-life counterparts leave the Squires in the familiar position of trying to rebuild (or build!) in the offseason and draft. Sigh.....!

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 66 Occupation: Retired/Senior Softball Player

The Season Story

One year later heading into the Summer Stretch, this time the Toxins were playing .709 ball and led the Gehrig Division by a surprising 14 games! As has been so typical with GM George Biffenbrenner when he “smells blood,” the trade offers went out, again going “all in to win it!” The acquisition of Edwin Diaz and Jesse Chavez gave the Toxins one of the strongest and deepest bullpens in TML history. However, there was still a void in the starting pitching corps, slightly alleviated by acquiring Zack Wheeler. Then, something weird happened. The Toxins barely played .500 ball the rest of the way, but they had built up enough of a lead to hang on to win the Division. Confidence was not high going into the playoffs. The weakness of no effective starting pitching came to light, as the Toxins struggled to get past Beverly in the first round, a sub-.500 team. It was no surprise when Madison easily disposed of the Toxins in the next round, similar to last year. Interesting experiment, but a failure. Christian Yelich had an MVP-like season! Ryne Stanek was fairly effective in the “opener” role. Looking ahead, the future looks bleak ... as the team will be showing its age.

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 72 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT); Part-time @Saratoga Casino

The Season Story

The Traffic Dodgers predictably finished last in their Division. Howie Kendrick had the best AVG on the team (.325), but was limited to 200 ABs. The clear star of the team was ss Trevor Story, contributing a .289 AVG with 39 HRs and 104 RBI. Other every day players making good contributions were the always rock steady Nick Markakis in rf .292, Corey Dickerson in lf .265 and Jon Jay in cf .251. Starting pitching was a big problem for TR, as no staff member was able to achieve double digit wins. The only really positive efforts came from Keller at 9-6 and Lucchesi at 7-5. Hope springs eternal for TR's future season prospects, with improving youngsters like All Star pitcher Mike Soroka and infielder Gleyber Torres, but they'll need a lot of help before the team becomes a contender once again.

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 45 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

Overall, it was a pretty mediocre season for Vanderlyle, but outside the Robinson division Vanderlyle actually had a playoff caliber 63-49 record. However, Vanderlyle's 16-32 record within the Robinson was their downfall and resulted in near record levels of crying. There wasn't much good about the starting rotation. Young Buehler (9-9, 3.31 ERA) was the only starter with a sub-4 ERA. The bullpen was the strength of the pitching staff led by Burnes (12 SV, 1.13 ERA), Bedrosian (2.89 ERA) and Castillo (2.96 ERA). The batting was pretty balanced with Ramirez (29 HR, 87 RBI, 117 R, 20 SB) leading the team in most offensive categories. Next season should see more improvement and less crying in Vanderlyle. A winning team is expected, but a playoff team may be a long shot.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 52 Occupation: Software Sales Director

The Season Story

In what should have been a year for retooling/rebuilding the Wombats made a contender of themselves by accident early on. This led to management making a couple of late trades and then watching the team implode the last three series of the season and ultimately ending up 5 games out of a playoff spot at the expense of some draft choices and youth. The team did still manage to win 92 games. Several players made solid contributions with Yasiel Puig, Anthony Rendon, Marcell Ozuna and Javy Baez all contributing 30 plus home runs. Baez and Ozuna also drove in over 100 runs. Baez had an MVP level year with his 124 runs scored as well. Kyle Hendricks was the workhorse winning 18 games and compiling a 3.01 ERA, Mike Minor won 15 games with a 3.84 ERA and Jameson Taillon contributed 15 wins as well. The bullpen was pretty solid, but an early two-month slump gave closer Felipe Vazquez an inflated ERA and 6 blown saves. He ended the year tied for the lead in relief points, but his 37 saves were not reflective of how poor he was early on.
