ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 63 Occupation: Retired & Golf Course Hacker

The Season Story

With hardly any pitching at all, Albany still managed 91 wins and had a playoff run into October. Mike Trout, 52 HR 126 RBI, and Freddie Freeman, 42 HR 107 RBIs led the way as usual. Joining in the offensive pyrotechnics were Matt Olson, 40 HR 105 RBI, Andrew Benintendi, Yordan Alvarez, Justin Turner, and Brandon Lowe. If only the team had pitching. Chris Sale paced the team with 12 wins, but his ERA was way up at 5.17. Clayton Kershaw was acquired late in the year and went 5-1 given hopes he can stabilize the staff. The pitching was better next year and hopefully will be in 2021 or whenever we resume. It could hardly be worse. An array of starters hopefully will bounce back: Sale, Kershaw, Drew Smiley, Matt Moore, Tyler Anderson, Chris Bassit, Dinelson Lamet, Caleb Smith, Ryan Yarbrough, and Tony Gonsolin. Albany hopes the adage about strength in numbers is correct.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 77 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

Not much to say when one loses 116 games with the future looking no less bleak as recent prospects grossly underperformed. Nice performances from pitchers Trevor Bauer, Dylan Bundy and Zack Plesac but, alas, can't capitalize on their trade value.

The Season Story

Two words: sh$t show. This was intended to be a rebuilding season and I had no illusions to the contrary. I expected my pitching to be bad... it was far worse than I could have imagined. This was an historic failing of my judgment. League record set for most home runs surrendered in a season. Two pitchers giving up 60+ dingers and two more giving up 40+. All four pitchers hit the disabled list with sprained necks. Scattered amongst the debris there were a couple of pitchers with some potential. Offensively the team faired a bit better though there is quite a bit of flotsam and jetsam to sort through. The good news is that with the "off year" coming up, there will be more time to see which pieces of deadwood may actually turn into sturdy support beams upon which to build a team.

CALIFORNIA Black Sox

Manager: Jason King (Anne)

Age: 51 Occupation: Store Director

The Season Story

After losing 105 games last season, the Black Sox retooled their roster, added some veteran starting pitching along with Aaron Judge, and saw some of their young talent develop. The results were a 44 game turnaround and a Williams Division Title. California had a 202 run differential, and lead the TML with 328 home runs. 9 Black players hit 20 or more homers, and 11 had 10 or more homers. Ronald Acuna was the team MVP for the second consecutive year (.284/.361/.551, 49 homers, 117 runs, 98 RBI & 32 stolen bases). There was no pitching MVP as the entire staff contributed to the 99 wins and no one pitcher stood out. California was bounced from the playoffs in 5 games by the Kentucky Wildcats, but to just make the playoffs after taking over an old, decimated roster 20 months earlier was a great accomplishment. The Black Sox now move to the Gehrig Division for the 2021 season, and are excited as they have one of the younger rosters in the TML and have a pretty formidable line-up with some good young arms in their bull pen.

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 62 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

A great season for the Steaming Crabs; the franchises' first division win since 1997, and first playoff appearance in 16 years. Although the main story was the league's best offense, scoring 1004 runs (led by league HR/RBI champ Jorge Soler), the key to the pennant was the late season acquisition of closer Brandon Workman, who shored up a shaky bullpen and led the drive to catch Traffic for the division title. The playoff series against Madison was a nail-biter, but a 3-1 series lead went up in smoke as Madison's pitching shut down the Crab's offense to take the series 4-3. Jorge Soler's 55 HR broke the team record of 49 set by Frank Thomas in 1994.

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 73 Occupation: Retired & Full-Time Grandpa

The Season Story

DW's season was mediocre to say the least. We had 3 strong starters and an average offense that could not overcome maybe the worst pen in the league. The Diamonds finished 12th in ERA and 15th in batting average. We finished 3rd in the division behind the power house KY team and a solid PC team. deGrom led the staff with 18 wins and a 3.40 era (a full run lower than his real life stats). Heyward led the offense hitting .287 with 30 doubles and 30 home runs. Castellanos clubbed 60 doubles and hit .280. Maybe skipping the Covid year will improve DW's outlook in 2021. Finally, I am thankful that I was able to meet Jim P. last fall in Pittsburgh...he was one of a kind and a wonderful man. We will miss him.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 56 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

The Thundercats entered the first of what looks to be a several years long rebuilding process. The only drama was whether we would reach the .400 mark (nope). The offense had some solid performances by Conforto, Dozier, and Adames, while J.A. Happ was the best starter, making the most of pitching in Petco as opposed to Yankee Stadium. In what might prove to be his last season, former "Showcase" starter "The" David "Price" was anything but "Right", with a ghastly 7.45 ERA in 22 starts. It will be while before a new breed of Thundercats can mature enough to roar again!

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 57 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Yet another middling season by the Haymakers as they finished with a .500 record. Haymaker bats were potent, with rookie Kyle Lewis show promise leading the team in batting with a .313avg in a brief callup. Alex Bregman was an offensive force with a .956OPS and 306 total bases. The backstop duo of Murphy and Romine combined to hit .290 and sock 31HR and finally stabilize the catching position. Unfortunately, other than "Steady Eddie" Rodriguez(16-9 4.53ERA) the starters were mediocre at best. Kirby Yates led the 'pen with 23saves and a 0.86WHIP. Young players such as Urias, Bregman and Soto give Glenmont hope for a brighter future.

KENTUCKY WildCats

Manager: Rocky Hall (Alfreda)

TAI Champion

Age: 64 Occupation: Retired / Business Owner

The Season Story

Team Chemistry, defense, and a super deep bullpen led the Kentucky WildCats to a 123-37 regular season mark and a World Series Championship. Leading the league in fielding, KY had four "EX" and two "VG" fielders. This allowed a mediocre starting staff to lead the league in ERA at 3.08, while committing only 42 errors. Yu Darvish 20-3 3.00 led the staff but was closely followed by Anthony DeSclafani 18-5 4.07 and Marco Gonzales 17-7 3.15. Five WildCats relievers had ERAs of 2.36 or less, led by Ken Giles 7-5 1.73 25 saves and only 3 blown. The bullpen stranded 207 of 249 inherited runners, only 16.9% scored. The offense finished 2nd in runs scored (989), 3rd in BA (.280), and 1st in home runs, (288), and Slg. .511. Mookie Betts, once again, led the offense, hitting .305 with 32 doubles, 36 homers 148 runs scored, 105 RBIs. He was one of 5 Kentucky hitters to hit 30 or more homers, a 6th, hit 28. Betts stole 65 bases as the WildCats led the lead with 186 steals in 245 attempts. The expectation, before trading started was 90 wins, then 95 after trading. To win 123 was crazy. Home (61-19), Away (62-18). H2H (82-24) Non-H2H (41-19).

LAKE WOBEGON Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 60 Occupation: Retired Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Lake Wobegon: where all of the gopher balls traveled above average. There were 289 of them on a quest to push the team ERA above 6.00. Unfortunately, the Staring Rabbits fell just short. (It must have been Stephen Matz' 2 complete game shutouts that kept his ERA to "only" 6.17). Cueto (7.19 ERA, 5-19) surely did his job. Samardzija was surprisingly effective at times despite 43 HRs. Still, passing any game to the Gag-team bullpen of Hand, Barnes and Melancon was also a mistake. LW was also offensive, with the fewest walks and second to last in HR. Eddie Rosario had a decent year, but there was too little else. Realmuto struggling didn't help either. Overall, the management team produced the worst franchise record since 1970 and the 3rd worst all-time.

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 37 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

For the third year in a row, Madison made the playoffs, beating Chesapeake in 7 games (and taking the final three of the series) before losing in 7 games to the Santa Ana Winds in the conference final. Both series were real nail biters, and a lot of fun. Madison had some new offensive talent in Jeff McNeil and Garrett Cooper, alongside veterans J.D. Martinez, Jose Altuve, and Christian Vazquez. The starting staff was led by Max Scherzer, Shane Bieber, and rookie Zac Gallen. Madison looks forward to a fun franchise all-star season next year!

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 24 Occupation: Student/Engineer

The Season Story

The statement that was made following last years surprise playoff appearance, "the Gators are in prime position to contend again next season", was completely false. In fact the Gators regressed from an 81 win season to 71 wins this season. Blame for this regression can be placed directly on the pitching staff that sported a team ERA of 5.52 which somehow was only 7th worst in the league. Thankfully, the offense was able to help the Gators stay in games by putting up a 5.6 RC27. The offense was led by player of the year hopeful Ketel Marte (led league in AVG/OBP/SLG), Whit Merrifield (tied for league league in hits at 214) and rookie Tommy Edman (.313 AVG). The Gators hope to contend next season as this young squad continues to develop! Hopefully next season Manager Jayson Chapman won't be eating his words... again....

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 70 Occupation: Attorney/Freelance Writer

The Season Story

The outlook wasn't brilliant for the Mudville Nine last year.
 Their players hit the skids, there was nothing much to cheer.
 Their future was in the future and the past was in the past.
 The present was very dismal and that is why they finished last.*

They were last in homers, last in runs scored too.
 They were last in almost anything a team could do.
 They could use a pitcher and a power hitter too.
 But they will have to wait until 2022!

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

Age: 57 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Crows season was like a drunken roller coaster ride. The highs were wild, crazy and little bit frightening, while the lows were utterly sad, depressing and involved some puking. The starting pitching was mostly bad, other than Ryu, who although shaky at times, managed to win some games and put on several stellar performances. The bullpen, for the most part, was at least solid, if not spectacular. Behind the plate both Suarez and Bell shined in major roles, and several younger players made their mark including Bichette, Dahl, and Dom Smith. And Dee Gordon still has something left in the tank batting .334 and stealing 26 bases. However, defense was a disaster and came in as worst in the league. Still, the team is young, so the hope of bright future still exists.

NEW YORK Pigeons

Manager: Steven Perez

Age: 30 Occupation: Meteorological Field Technician

The Season Story

This was a season of change as older players made way for younger fresher faces. There were a lot of growing pains. The team tied for worst fielding percentage, had the fourth fewest runs scored, and had the 5th worst ERA in the TML. But these new faces must have had quite an impact as the Pigeons improved their final record to 61-99, a 12-game improvement over last season. Youngsters Tatis, Happ, Santander hope to continue the Pigeons' improvement thus proving that these birds CAN change their feathers!

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 50 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

As the Aerosmith songs goes, for Perth is was the same old story, same old song and dance. The Diamond Cats had a strong team, but not quite strong enough. Perth was undone in the first round of the playoffs by their rivals the Walla Walla Wombats. Perth combined strong pitching with a potent offense to win almost 100 games this season. Verlander, Greinke, and Strasburg anchored the rotation. The offense was fairly balanced with Brantley leading the way and Donaldson providing the power. The bullpen could have been a bit stronger and may have been Perth's undoing this season. At the end of the last 2-3 seasons Manager Syzdek has thought that season would be the last that Perth would be competitive with its current line-up and that thinking prevails again after this season. However, this team of old timers continues to give the kids a run for their money. So, after a yearlong COVID hiatus, management will see what this line-up looks like and go from there. The Diamond Cats may be able to take another run with the current group or to quote another song, Perth may find itself Down in a hole! (Anyone?)

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 54 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

Balls missed a lot of bats off the mound, but in common, also for our bargain basement offense (at BEST third worst in the league). Too many times wasted a decent start, or could not come back when behind late. Flaherty was the class of the staff (19 wins, 258 K), and not exactly sure what to call the regulars on the back end that miraculously notched 32 saves with a 4.50+ ERA. Kole Calhoun unexpectedly exceeded expectations (career high 43 HR), but that was a rare thing for the Chinooks. Management eagerly awaits packing the stadium in 2020 to watch the offense recover and match a budding pitching staff. What could possibly stop us now?

SANTA ANA Winds

Manager: Rob Fovell (Mei-Ying)

Age: 62 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The Winds reached the World Series in only their second season in Santa Ana! Their Cinderella season started in August when the Winds backed their way into a 1st place tie with the Crows in the Gatto on the "strength" of a 12-20 Summer Stretch. That set the stage for 16 September games with the Crows of which the Winds took 12 (6 each home and road), leading to the division title by 4 games at 83-77. In the playoffs the Winds got past the superb, Atmospheric-leading Vanderlyle team 4-2 thanks to timely heroics by rookies Yastrzemski and Alonso. After falling behind 3-1 against the formidable Madison Danes, the Winds pieced together three straight thanks to Giolito's arm and Yaz's bat, despite being outscored 35-27. Finally, after taking a 2-1 series lead against the incredible Kentucky Wildcats (.769 regular season!) in the Series, the clock struck midnight and Cinderella's carriage turned back into a pumpkin. A great ride against great teams and, who knows, the glass slippers might still fit in 2021? Thanks to Mike L., Mike C., Joe N., Rocky, and Ross!

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 70 Occupation: Retired Attorney

The Season Story

It was a surprisingly successful season for the Squires. The team posted 86 wins despite a starting pitching staff consisting almost entirely of "unlimited" pitchers (Robbie Ray supposedly was "limited", but he had to be shut down after posting a 7.99 ERA in 9 starts). The bullpen carried the day for 'Skayuna, with Oberg, Gallegos, Nick Anderson leading a very effective relief corps. The offense was led by Eduardo Escobar, with 37 HRs and 102 RBIs (can't believe how close I came to cutting him a few seasons back!). There are obvious holes to fill for the future, but all-in-all it was an interesting ride this year for the Squires.

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 67 Occupation: Retired/Senior Softball Player

The Season Story

Aspirations were high heading into the season, but an early near sweep by New York (worst record at the time) and a near sweep by Arkansas (worst record overall) put the “handwriting on the wall” that the post season drive was over for the Toxins. For the first time in many years, the franchise became a “seller” instead of a “buyer” during the Summer Stretch, saying goodbye to “All Star” closers Aroldis Chapman and Liam Hendricks. That left the closer role in the hands of Edwin Diaz (7.07 ERA), which made for some entertaining finishes! Andrew Cashner was the most consistent starter, going 10-4. Zack Wheeler led the team in wins at 12-11, but lost nearly as many. Offensively, Christian Yelich had another outstanding season hitting .300, with 40 HR, as did Danny Santana at .308 and 32 HR. Beyond that, not much. This franchise will now head into a serious rebuilding plan. No idea when this team will be competitive and return to post season play. Back to the sewers for the River Rats.

The Season Story

Although not expected to be a contender, the Team surprisingly hung on until the final month of the Season when they ran out of gas up against the usage wall. Led by a solid trio of young infielders (Torrez, Devers and Story), the team has the potential to stay in playoff contention if the outfield and starting pitching can be improved upon. Hard to tell which direction the team will go in the future, as a lot of good drafting, trading and old fashioned luck will be needed to continue to contend.

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 46 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

The tears dried up in Vanderlyle this season as the team outperformed and actually ended up with the best record in the conference. The team was powered by a relentless offense led by Kepler (1019 OPS, 46 HR, 126 RBI), Reynolds (411 OBP, 45 2B, 104 R) and part-timer Vargas (239 AB, 16 HR, 70 RBI). The pitching was slightly better than average with some outstanding performers. Glasnow (10-0, 1.06 ERA) was nearly unhittable in his 12 starts. Bedrosian (14 SV, 2.14 ERA) and late-season acquisition Hendriks (8 SV, 0.66 ERA) were great in the bullpen. After an outstanding regular season, expectations were high for the playoffs. Sadly, the dam broke and the tears flowed in raging rapids as Vanderlyle was blown away by the Santa Ana Winds in 6 games in the conference semifinals. Despite the early playoff exit, there is still hope for the future as a young core continues to mature.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 53 Occupation: National Sales Manager

The Season Story

While it was a great season for the team in winning 105 games and the division by 14 games, it was also one of underachieving for the offense. Entering the season with what should have been a top 3 offense the Wombats finished 18th overall. Anthony Rendon was the offensive standout 320/411/574 30 HRs and 14 SBs. No one on the team had more than 90 RBI and this forced the Wombats to make several mid-season trades. Pitching was a different story Mike Minor won 23 games to lead the league and also a league-leading 2.16 ERA. Lance Lynn finished 4th in ERA (3.05) and 3rd in wins (20) giving WW two of the three 20 game-winners. Kyle Hendricks was 9th in ERA at 3.28. Hansel Robles had a stellar season at closer: 2-0 46 saves to lead the TML and a 1.36 ERA. The Wombats finished with 2nd best team ERA at 3.28.
