ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 64 Occupation: Retired & Golf Course Hacker

The Season Story

This team met the manager's expectation of 90-95 wins, but this resulted in a narrow miss of the playoffs. The decision to emphasize prospects in the strong 2021 draft came at the expense of building a playoff worthy bullpen. The team had a fine offense. Matt Olson, Freddie Freeman Yordan Alvarez and Brandon Lowe all created 100 runs. Justin Turner and Andrew Benintendi also produces nicely. Trout had his now usual half a good year. The team's starting pitching was decent, but the bullpen was thin. Alek Manoah, Chris Bassitt, and Clayton Kershaw led a good rotation Lefties Garrett Crochet and Caleb Smith performed well in the pen. The team hopes for better days in 2022.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 79 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

Big time rebuild for the Travs as they remained at the bottom of the pack with 119 losses. Arkansas has a few dimly lit semi-bright spots but, when a team hits .217/.290/.328 with a staff ERA of 5.48, the road appears long and hard for a return to respectability. A good draft in 2023 would sure help!

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 53 Occupation: Senior Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

It was a rough year for the Hillbillies. Fans were calling for the general manager to be tossed into Cement Pond with weights around his ankles. There were very few bright spots for Beverly. Both the hitting and pitching were pathetic. At one point, we were on a record pace for surrendering the most home runs. The team leader in wins was 8(!). The bullpen was very good, though we didn't have the lead often enough to put them to good use. Austin Riley was the star of a batch of offensive nobodies. Defensively, we were pathetic finishing next to last. It was a bad year from every angle. There are some pieces worth building on. Maybe there is light at the end of the dark tunnel for this team.

CALIFORNIA Black Sox

Manager: Jason King (Anne)

Age: 53 Occupation: Store Director

The Season Story

The 2022 Black Sox were built to win, and had just 1 goal in mind when the season started. All the draft picks were traded, future hall of famer Ronald Acuna was dealt, all to win the 2022 TML Championship. The Regular season went pretty well with 124 victories, led by Zack Wheeler (25 wins), Adam Wainwright (21 wins) & Kenley Jansen (41 saves). Offensively the Sox lead the league in several offensive categories, and were led by Aaron Judge (.303/.368/.613 - 55 homers, 128 runs & 126 RBI). The Sox went 8-1 in the first two Rounds of the playoffs, but then came up short in the World Series. So when I look back upon this season, as great as it was, I'll still see it as a bit of a disappointment as the only real goal that mattered wasn't achieved.

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 64 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The 2021 Steaming Crabs were an overall disappointment. On paper they looked good enough to contend for a playoff spot, but they ended the season at 77-83, 8 games worse than their Pythagorean W-L projection. In retrospect we kept Jose Reyes in the closer role too long (1-7, 20 SV, 8 BS, 1.60 WHIP, 10 HR allowed in 57 IP) and by the time he lost the closer job it was too late to catch Madison for the Atmospheric Conference wild card. On the positive side was Cedric Mullins' MVP-contending season: .331/.385/.595, league-leading 54 doubles, 12 triples, 32 HR, with a league best 152.2 Runs Created. No projections on next years team, since I'm now a retired meteorologist I'm out of the prediction business.

The Season Story

Middle of the road season as the GM traded away two really good players and pitchers to pick up multiple draft picks to start the team rebuild. Offense was pretty good placing 9th in the league but pitching was poor placing 18th in the league. Nick Castellanos paced the hitters leading the team in Avg, Doubles, Home Runs, runs, hits, and RBI. Irvin led the team in wins with 10 and a 3.99 ERA. Thanks to Mike for another season run with military precision. The TML American is a finely tuned machine thanks to him.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 58 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

When your best players are your bullpen guys, you know it wasn't the best of seasons. Blake Treinen was nearly perfect in relief, converting 31 of 32 save opportunities, consistent with his glittering 1.43 ERA. The rest of the team was mediocre at best, particularly on offense. Bright spots included Capital District native Ian Anderson, as well as Joe Ryan in his brief end-of-season stint. Lots of turnover, and likely lots of losses, are expected over the next couple years as Miguel Cabrera completes an end-to-end career with the Cats ... while Michael Conforto simply disappears!

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 59 Occupation: Research Programmer/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Haymakers started off slow going 10-16 in April and manager Vollaro thought the cool weather was to blame. Unfortunately, things continued to get worse as the season wore on and Glenmont ended the season going 4-12 in October. On the flip side, a great start by Julio Urias on the last game of the season allowed the Haymakers to hand Vanderlyle its only loss of the month while simultaneously avoiding the team's 100th loss! Juan Soto, who led the league in OBP had as many walks(129) as hits this season. Tyler Mahle "led" the pitching staff, going 10-10 and was among the league leaders in K's with 215. With an eye on next season's statistics, manager Vollaro can feel his seat starting to warm, and it cannot be blamed on climate change!

LAKE WOBEGON Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 62 Occupation: Retired Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

I'm not sure how this team didn't lose 100 games. Mize, Matz, and Montgomery managed to pitch decently and Barnes, Hand et al. were a decent bullpen. That offset Jorge Lopez (arguably one of the worst pitchers to throw a no-hitter) and Foltyniewicz, who gave up 55 HR and 52 doubles. The offense was hideous, but there were 4 teams that were hideous-er. You might think there is some promise here, but Mize, Matz, Thompson, Muller, Foltyniewicz, Sheffield and even Robert all had funny noises coming from their joints by season's end.

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 39 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Madison had another great year, and even with a bit of a slow down in the final stretch, still won the wild card spot with no problem. The problem arose in the division series, as Madison faced the powerhouse California Black Sox, who held Madison to a measly three runs in a four-game sweep. While the Danes lacked big sluggers, Altuve, Marte, and Martinez still all had a great year. The rotation was led by Max Scherzer, who finished the season 18-2 with a 0.87 WHIP. The team hopes to make it farther into the playoffs next year, with what looks to be a heckuva pitching staff, led by Scherzer, Bieber, Gallen, and newer Danes, Cortes and Gilbert.

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 26 Occupation: Engineer

The Season Story

In a down season for the Williams division, the Gators came out on top of what can be described as being the best of the worst. Fortunately, the Gator took advantage of a weak division to finish the season with 94-66 record and a 35-13 record within the division. Even with being the only sub-100 win division winner, they were able to take a strong 'Skayuna to 7 games in their playoff series, ultimately being shutdown in game 7. With this strong showing in the playoff, manager Jayson Chapman has high hopes for the upcoming season. This year the Gators were led by Bryce Harper (.323 AVG, league leading 1.053 OPS) on the offensive side and Kyle Gibson (2.89 ERA, 17-3 W/L) on the pitching side. With a few more pieces the Gators are poised to make a deep run next season.

The Season Story

Another year of rebuilding though some of our draft picks last year are not looking so hot. Vladimir Guerrero, Jr., led a decent enough offense. it is fun to have him on the team. Our pitching was not so hot. At times it looked unbeatable but at other times, not so much. The team was very inconsistent - riding high one series and shot down the next. Looks like we may be a few years away from being any kind of contender again.

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

Age: 58 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Crows started off the season with some optimism, given the group of talented young offensive players. Guys like Kyle Tucker, Bo Bichette and Josh Bell all flashed good power and timely hitting, along with Teoscar Hernandez. The main concern early on was the pitching, with several young starters, and just some inning eaters beyond that in the rotation, it did not live up to the early season optimism. The one game under .500 record is an improvement over last year, and the young arms have everybody excited for next year.

NEW YORK Pigeons

Manager: Steven Perez

Age: 32 Occupation: Meteorological Field Technician

The Season Story

The Pigeons got off to one of their better starts in team history sitting a game above .500 at the end of May. Exciting play from Ferando Tatis and Tim Anderson sent New York's faithful soaring! Then came the June gloom, a two month stretch from 6/1/21 - 7/31/21 during which the Pigeons went 20-33. This doomed the season and grounded the Pigeons for good. Next year looks rocky with key players missing. However, this season has seen the introduction and emergence of some talent from drafts gone by and, with that hope springs eternal.

PERTH Diamond Cats

Manager: Steve Syzdek (Suzanne)

Age: 52 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Once again, the Perth Diamond Cats made the playoffs and once again, we were eliminated before making it to the TML World Series. One of these days Caterella is going to make it to the ball! Salvador Perez almost won the HR title and Jean Segura led the team in average. Hanser Alberto and Guillermo Heredia were terrific in supporting roles. Old man, Zack Greinke, per usual was Perth's dominant starter. Perth finds itself in the same position that team has found itself in for the past two or three seasons. The team is aging, but still performing. So, to let it be or begin again, that is the question!

The Season Story

There were few bright spots in the otherwise dismal season. The offense was almost non-existent, slashing second worst in TML. Most extra inning losses in the conference. Tied or behind late – no way! Pitching was not nearly as horrid, and a couple staffers almost presented as respectable (McCullers ranking in the top 15 of ERA, Manaea with a team-leading 15 wins., Civale with a one-hitter!) Why waste words, when time can be spent on figuring out our next draft pick?

SANTA ANA Winds

Manager: Rob Fovell (Mei-Ying)

The Season Story

Santa Ana fielded a decent team this year, converting league best fielding and top-5 pitching into 101 wins in the Gatto division, and a trip to the playoffs against Vanderlyle. The weak spot, in both the regular season and the playoff, was mediocre offense, being no better than the league average. We lost to Vanderlyle in 7 games in a series dominated by pitching, but faced three elimination games, won two of them, including one in extra innings. Not bad. Amed Rosario led the team in hitting (0.311), Shohei Ohtani in homers (47), Robbie Grossman in walks (79), and Pete Alonso in RBI (122). Lucas Giolito led the staff with 19 wins (against 8 losses), and Lucas Luetge and Kendall Graveman were solid in the pen. Some of these diamonds will shine less brightly next year.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 72 Occupation: Retired Attorney

The Season Story

It was not at all clear where this version of the Squires was headed, with what looked to be a middling offense and decent pitching (which has been an historic weakness of the franchise). The pitching staff shocked management by posting a league-leading 3.01 ERA, on the way to 101 wins and a second place divisional finish. After surviving a hard-fought first round playoff (4-3) against Marco Island, the Squires took on the 115-win Wildcats in the Conference finals, ultimately dropping the series 3 games to 4. Despite posting a 1.89 ERA for the series, 'Skayuna had a similar BA (.191) for the series, which actually was better than the Wildcats' .169, but not quite as timely. Overall, it was a surprisingly satisfying season. Unfortunately, some of the key components of the team have fallen by the wayside in real-life 2022, so rebuilding once again will be the agenda in 'Skayuna.

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 69 Occupation: Retired/Senior Softball Player

The Season Story

This was the first of up to 5 years in a serious rebuilding effort. It began with a pre-season blockbuster deal with California in which several veteran players were traded for a potential super star in Ronald Acuna. A lot of speculative young talent was added in the Rookie Draft, Oneil Cruz, Jazz Chisholm, Jo Adell and Matt Manning, to name a few. This past season, Chisholm was the only regular to bat over .250 and led the team with 60 RC. Acuna led the team in HRs with 24. Seven different players had over 40 RBI, with no clear standout. No pitcher won more than 7 games, but there were two 20-game losers in veterans Dallas Keuchel (4-20) and Carlos Martinez (6-20). We are expecting good things from Spencer Strider and a come-back year from Edwin Diaz. The future looks bright.

TRAFFIC Dodgers

Manager: Ken Fusci (Rozanne)

Age: 75 Occupation: Retired (NYSDOT); Part-time @Saratoga Casino

The Season Story

The Traffic Dodgers record of just under .500 perfectly defines its Season. Both pitching and hitting were extremely inconsistent, with highs and lows seemingly alternating from game to game. They did have a decent ending to the Season, playing the spoiler role vs AV & SS in September and October and going a combined 15- 9 against those two Division leaders. Rafael Devers, the everyday team leader at the plate, easily led the team in hits and HRs. Trevor Story was the only other every day player, but he hit a mere.212 and K'd 178 times, a team high. If the Team can get some more consistent hitting, they might become a Division contender next Season. Management is already looking forward to a top of the rotation consisting of Cease (2.20), Suarez (3.65) and Flexen (3.73) combining for over half the Team's starts (83).

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 48 Occupation: Scientific Programmer

The Season Story

It was a fantastic season for the Geeks as they won 114 games. The batting used the longball in Dodger stadium to their advantage. The star performers were O'Neill (1006 OPS, 44 HRs, 107 RBI), Reynolds (36 HR, 96 RBI, 127 R) and Ramirez (46 HR, 103 RBI). The pitching staff was powered by a strong starting rotation anchored by Buehler (20-6, 2.72 ERA), Burnes (17-5, 2.49 ERA) and surprisingly, Fleming (20-8 3.45 ERA) The bullpen lacked depth, but was still pretty good. Hendriks (39 Sv, 17 HRs) did a good job despite giving up lots of HRs and Sulser (2.15 ERA) pitched great in a setup role. Vanderlyle managed to get past Santa Ana in 7 games in the conference semifinals thanks to an outstanding performance by the pitching staff. The conference finals were a different story as the loaded Black Sox team took Vanderlyle out in 5 games. It appears a flood of tears will return to Vanderlyle next season as the team is likely to enter a rebuilding phase.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 55 Occupation: Technical Sales Manager

The Season Story

Coming off an incredible 2020 season and then the pandemic year, the Wombats emerged as the worst version of themselves, finishing with the third-worst record in the entire TML, going 55-105. To say anyone performed well would be an understatement. Pre-season favorite to win the batting title, Yuli Gurriel hit a paltry .268. Miguel Sano and Javier Baez led the team with 28 home runs each, with Sano leading the team with only 63 RBI. Pitching was dire no one won more than 8 games and Kyle Hendrick went a disappointing 3-21. Overall, the club had only 29 saves versus 19 blown saves and finished with a 5.32 ERA.
