11/4/2024, VS24-VC24, loanDepot Park
Del Peterson's Vegas Space Cowboys brought home the first TML Championship in their 55 years in the TML! For Manager Peterson it came in only his 2nd season! Vegas defeated Joe Nocera's Vanderlyle Crybaby Geeks in a sweep! For Manager Nocera it was his 3rd trip to the World Series, still looking for his first title. Wild Card Vanderlyle had worked their way past Chesapeake (4-1) and swept both California and Santa Ana! Vegas meanwhile got past Kentucky and Arkansas, both in hard fought 7-game series! Vegas closer and Playoff MVP Joe Jimenez posted a 0.00 ERA in 9 GR, saving 7 games. In his 10 IP, he gave up just 3 hits and fanned 9.

ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 68 Occupation: Election Inspector & HOA President (!)

The Season Story

The Avalanche had a tumultuous 85 win season, over playing their talent a bit and trading fan favorite Freddie Freeman to Duluth at the trade deadline. Fans were pissed. It got so bad that when Walla Walla came to town, the fans were chanting, "We want Sakolsky", no matter that his team was in the throes of a 69 win season. Yordan Alvarez put up an MVP quality season if only he could pitch and crashed 35 homers. Freeman had 93 runs created before he was traded. Matt Olson, taking over first base cracked 30 homers. Riley Greene had a solid year in centerfield. Everyone else was a disappointment except Justin Turner who thrived in limited duty. Chris Sale, Garrett Crochet and Jake Irvin were a fine front of a rotation, but there was little else there. Derek Law and Pierce Johnson are in Webster's as mediocre closers. Next year looks to be about another 85 win season.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks

Age: 82 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

Great year for TML Baseball; sad year for life! Travs finished with league best 113-47 record Behind tough pitching (3.08 team ERA) and timely hitting. Paul Skenes 15-3 1.77 ERA and Ronel Blanco 19-2 2.00 ERA led the rotation while Hunter Gaddis 1.27 ERA, 62 innings led a rock-solid bullpen.

BERKSHIRE COUNTY Corndogs

Manager: Erik Tiele

Age: 56 Occupation: Golf Professional

The Season Story

The Berkshire County Corndogs finished their season at 52-108. The team remains in the rebuilding mode and this process will surely last a few more before they should start seeing a turn around. The team did have a few bright spots during the season. Chris Sanchez led the pitching staff with a 15-4 record. The 15 wins accounted for a quarter of the teams victories. Evan Phillips led the team with 17 saves in 23 opportunities. Kyle Schwarber led the team with 29 homeruns and 82 walks. Sal Perez 24 homers to back up Schwarber. The team actually played some of its baseball in the final series of the season which saw them win two extra inning games, One of those games being an 18 inning barn burner. GM Erik Tiele stated in his year end press conference that he believes the teams future is getting brighter. Rookie Jackson Holiday should show some big improvement next season and Schwarber continues to be a great leader in the clubhouse. The 2nd pick in the upcoming draft should bring another strong new player to the nucleus.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)

Age: 56 Occupation: Senior Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

Smoke and mirrors - that is how this team managed to get to a winning record. A somewhat-respectable pitching staff buoyed a poor, but opportunistic, offense. Only two pitchers managed double digit wins, the team's best reliever was traded at the deadline. No hitter hit better than .262. Eight (!) players that saw regular at bats it below .250. Josh Naylor paced the offense with 39 home runs and 101 rbis. Amazingly, the team was in playoff contention until a pathetic home series ended the dreams. Armed with a collection of decent draft picks, it is hoped the Hillbillies can find hitters!

The Season Story

Going into the 2024 Season I had zero expectations as I had only 2 late round draft picks, many holes to fill, and the oldest roster in the TMLAM. But I made a few acquisitions via waiver claims and trades, and the team showed some life so for the 4th year in a row I went all in at the trade deadline in hopes of finally getting that elusive TMLAM crown. The team took off down the stretch, finishing the year on a 33-9 run and ended up with 104 victories. We met VC in the divisional round, a team we went 5-5 against during the regular season, and got swept. A really tough ending to a year that showed some promise. Aaron Judge & Zack Wheeler were the offensive and pitching players of the year for the 3rd straight season for the Sox.

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 67 Occupation: Retired Meteorologist

The Season Story

A weird season for the Crabs, after starting out slow (27-28 through the end of May) they caught fire and by the end of the summer were at 70-48, one game behind California in the Pertierra Division. Then they faltered in Sept and Oct, going 17-25 and barely finishing ahead of Duluth for the 2nd wild card spot in the Atmospheric Conference. The late season slump continued into the playoffs, as the Crabs lost in 5 games to a superior Vanderlyle squad. The Crabs thrived when their hitting was hot, as they led the league in batting average, paced by batting title winner Luis Arraez (.340). The pitching was so-so, with Lopez (12-10, 3.73 ERA and Castillo 15-9, 4.36) the most consistent starters. Clay Holmes went 22-28 in save attempts, but it seemed that every blown save was when I was playing H2H. :-(

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 78 Occupation: Retired & Full-Time Grandpa

The Season Story

The Diamonds as a whole had a miserable season. They finished 21st in BAVG and 17th in ERA (only because they had a better than average pen. G. Williams led the team with 9 wins and Stephenson in batting with .276. Burger hit 35 HRs for the only power threat on the team. Next year looks even worse with only two starters with an ERA under 4 totaling 37 starts. Offensively, only 3 batters hit more than .260 and the leading HR threat only hit 16 dingers. With 10 draft picks an infusion of youth will be sought.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 61 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

A nice bounce back season after several subpar years for the Thundercats. Pitching led the way, with Hunter Greene, Joe Ryan, and Bailey Falter leading the starters. The bullpen was excellent; Raisel Iglesias and Robert Suarez shared the closer role. Offense was the weak spot, though rookie Jackson Merrill, Willy Adames, and Gavin Lux had fine years up the middle. Pitching should remain good, while the offense will further improve, especially with Ben Rice's transition to an everyday player ... for the first time in many years, Duluth will finally have a backstop who can hit!

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)

Age: 62 Occupation: Scientist

The Season Story

"After a successful season in which Glenmont led the Atmospheric conference in wins, the Haymakers got blown away by the Winds in the playoffs. It looks like it is back to the drawing board for Glenmont."

HOMESTEAD Grays

Manager: Mike Ameen

Age: 61 Occupation: Restaurateur & H.S. Softball Coach

The Season Story

Just a terrible year for the Homestead Grays in 2024. The Grays go 36-124 and end deep in the Ruth basement 77 games off the pace. They were equally bad at home and on the road going 19-61 at home and 17-63 on the road. Nat Eovaldi won 8 games to lead the staff. David Robertson was the best pitcher for the Grays pitching from the pen getting 14 saves and a 1.73 era. Aaron Nola lost 20 games, and 3 others lost 16 or more. Colton Cowser hit .277 with 30 doubles, 2 triples and 23 homers to lead the team. Hopefully 2025 will be better for Homestead, I guess it can't be much worse.

KENTUCKY WildCats

Manager: Rocky Hall (Alfreda)

Age: 69 Occupation: Retired / Business Owner

The Season Story

The Kentucky WildCats had a competitive 2024 TMLAM season, finishing with a solid 98-62 record. Key players such as Logan Webb, Erick Fedde, and José Quintana delivered consistent performances, leading the rotation with ERAs of 3.36, 3.42, and 3.35 respectively. The offense saw contributions from players like Lindor (.276 avg, 44 HRs) and Tucker (.249 avg, 80 RBIs), with notable performances from Goldschmidt and Chapman. Despite strong pitching and offense, the team faced struggles against top-tier opponents. The WildCats showed resilience but faced challenges in key moments, especially during high-leverage games. Their playoff performance was competitive, though they ultimately fell short against the Vegas Space Cowboys, dropping their final three games after being up three games to one. Age is catching up to the WildCats.

LAKE WOBEGON Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 65 Occupation: Retired Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Lake Wobegon had not-ready-for-lottery-players. What kept them from this achievement? Perhaps a surge from Cal Raleigh (48 HR and a better than expected .220 avg). Perhaps it was moving Jose Miranda into the regular line-up, raising the offense from a bottom e. Perhaps it was the shared closers of Kerkering and Trevor Megill. Perhaps it was George Kirby settling down from the summer stretch on. More likely, it was somehow getting 5 wins out of Jordan Montgomery and 6 winds out of Keider Montero. That was enough to slightly offset all the at-bats that went to Victor Scott, Hurtubise, Drury, Tellez, and Torkelson, and all the pitching of Matz, Mize, the rest of Montero and Montgomery. Next year: Raleigh and bust!

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 42 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

After seven straight years of making the postseason, Madison is getting an early start on their offseason holiday, finishing just a hair above .500. The so-so offense was led by Jarren Duran and his 20 triples, and Altuve and Carpenter had solid seasons as well. Ace Logan Gilbert had an excellent year, leading the league with 250 strikeouts. The offense is looking like it'll be a bit better next year, but the team could use some stronger arms in the rotation and pen. It doesn't help that Madison's first three draft picks (Jones, Black, Bliss) this year ended up with lengthy or season-ending injuries! Oh well, onto 2026 ...

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman

Age: 29 Occupation: Engineer

The Season Story

Unlike the 2022 and 2023 seasons, the Gators pulled off what has been impossible the past two seasons and beat interdivision rival RM to take the division by 2 games. This momentum carried over into the playoffs as they took the 113 win Traveler team to Game 7. Unfortunately for this aging roster the bullpen had other plans and blew a 4-run lead to lose in the bottom of the 10th. There is hope for this upcoming season that this veteran led Gators team can make another run to the playoffs while their window remains "slightly" open. This year the Gators were lead offensively by Ketel Marte (.286 AVG, 46 HR) while the pitching staff was led by starter Blake Snell (2.99 ERA and 1.02 WHIP).

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 75 Occupation: Free Lance Writer

The Season Story

The rebuild in Mudville continues using the one step forward and two steps back technique. There have been calls for the manager, general manager, and owner to resign and sell the team. Our fans are such kidders! But is a move to Frostbite Falls in the cards? Time will tell. As for the 2024 season, it is hard to find many bright spots. Vladimir Guerrero, Jr. is a player to build around. But there just wasn't enough around him to have much success this season. As the old Brooklyn Dodger fans used to say: Wait until next year!

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

Age: 61 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

We knew the Crows were going to struggle at the start of the season, given the pitching injuries from last year. However, after several injuries this season, especially those to Bo Bichette and Kyle Tucker, the offense struggled as well, and the Crows ended in last place in the Gatto division. On the pitching side, Jose Soriano presented himself as a talented young pitcher, while the youngsters Dylan Crews and Brice Turang showed some offensive promise. The pitching will still be problematic next year, and the team plans to be busy looking for some help in the off season.

NEW YORK Pigeons

Manager: Steven Perez

Age: 35 Occupation: Meteorological Field Technician

The Season Story

The Pigeons took another step toward postseason baseball in 2025, improving on their 2024 performance by 3 games! But, the Pigeons fell just 2 games short of taking the Gatto Division crown after coming up against some strong headwinds out of Santa Ana! Imbued with confidence, the Pigeons' adoring fans hope to see the City Birds soar to the top of the Gatto Division in 2026!

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 59 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

If you looked up "flame out" in the dictionary, you would see a "see TMLAM24 Rocky Mountain". Blasted out of the gates taking a 7-game lead after a month and cruising through May with the same 7-game lead. June saw the lead evaporate like a shower on a 95-degree day and a sad summer stretch put the division title in the rear view mirror. Then by some miracle (or to torture the fans) a tear during the final month reignited the hope. Having two games to lose to the Gators, true to form, we lost the first game badly, then the 4th game, but swept the rest just to make it hurt more. The offense was stabilized by workhorse Willi Castro (.289/.354/.417,45 2B) and if a lead made it late, Mason Miller was studly (0.94 ERA, 42 saves and ONE BS!). With an offense, this team would have been a terror! Fraidy cats next year, I fear!

SANTA ANA Winds

Manager: Rob Fovell (Mei-Ying)

Age: 67 Occupation: Retired Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Somehow, the Winds held on to win the Atmospheric Conference's weakest division by 2 games (with only 86 wins), despite a listless final period, and managed get past the fearsome Glenmont Haymakers to reach the conference finals. Against the Crybaby Geeks, however, the clock struck midnight, we turned back into pumpkins, and were swept out of the postseason. C'est la vie. The DMB Shohei Ohtani finally mirrored his real life counterpart (0.301/0.409/0.655, 173 RC27), leading an otherwise average offense. We ranked 6th in pitching, thanks to Max Fried (18-4, 2.41 ERA), Bowden Francis, and Tyler Holton. We anticipate a modest rebuilding effort next year.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 74 Occupation: Retired Attorney

The Season Story

It was a surprisingly successful season for the Squires, mainly due to a pitching staff that posted a 3.16 ERA, third-best in the TML American. The offense was fair to middlin' but just enough to squeak out a 1-game margin over Albany, earning a rare playoff appearance. Tanner Houck paced the starting staff with a 1.93, best in the league for starting pitchers (In typical Squires fashion, however, Houck went on the DL in early May 2025 and had TJ surgery in August....sigh). Only George Springer and Rhys Hoskins had as many as 20 HRs (22 and 21 respectively) with only 139 for the team. The starting pitching made the playoffs a bit interesting: 'Skayuna won Game 1 against Kentucky 2-1 behind Houck and lasted 17 scoreless innings with Michael King and a valiant bullpen before falling in the 18th by a 1-0 final. Kentucky's superior offense made the difference the rest of the way, as Squires bats became silent. Sad to say, Skayuna will need to fill a lot of holes in the off-season.

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 72 Occupation: Retired/Senior Softball Player

The Season Story

After making the playoffs last season, the team could not overcome injuries to Ronald Acuna, Christian Yelich, Matt McLain and Spencer Strider, and the result was a 97-loss season! In limited action, Yelich, Julio Rodriguez and Jo Adell, led the team offensively when in the lineup. The “rabbits” led the league again in SBs with 255. Not at the same level of larceny as their record breaking SB total last season, but still annoying to opposing teams! As far as pitching, Joey Cantillo and Graham Ashcraft led the team in wins with only 10. A few waiver claims helped to rebuild a poor bullpen. Tyler Ferguson and T.J. McFarland teamed up to close games and had a combined 22 Saves. The outlook for 2026 is for a revived offense, but the pitching staff is still loaded with question marks.

VANDERLYLE Crybaby Geeks

Manager: Joe Nocera (Shashi)

Age: 51 Occupation: Options Trader

The Season Story

It was a great season for the Geeks. Solid pitching and a potent lineup, especially against lefties, led the Geeks to a 97 win season and wild card berth. The starting pitching was led by Burnes (18-4, 3.05 ERA), while the bullpen by committee was led by Cade Smith (2.63 ERA, 18 Sv). The batting was led by Ramirez (43 HR, 121 R, 115 RBI, 28 SB). In part-time roles against lefties, O'Neill bashed 22 HRs in 172 ABs and Andujar hit .452 in 219 ABs. The Geeks played in 29 extra-inning games throughout the season, winning 16 of them. Obviously the fans were happy as they got to see more baseball and eat more hotdogs. The Geeks got red hot in the postseason, winning 12 of 13 games to advance to the franchise's first TML World Series in 24 years. In the World Series, the Geeks ran into a Vegas team with a dominant pitching staff. Vegas shutdown the Geeks bats (498 OPS in the series) and swept them in 4 games. Next season is likely to be a middling season for the Geeks as the starting pitching staff is planning on either being injured or pitching poorly.

VEGAS Space Cowboys

Manager: Del Peterson (Shawnda)

Age: 63 Occupation: Retired IT Manager

TML Champion

The Season Story

The Cowboys had the 4th best record in the regular season racking up 101 wins and winning the Steinmetz division by 15 games. The starting rotation led the team with 69 wins and 28 losses. Jimenez closed the door with 38 of the 56 saves the team had. Devers and Chourio were the drivers of the offense. But the rest of the lineup had to contribute to help the Cowboys with the offense. And 3 players (Lowe (1B), Winn (SS), Doyle (CF)) were all in the top 10 in fielding efficiency. In the 2025 TML hunt for the World Series had Vegas hosting Kentucky and it was a tight series with the Cowboys pulling it out in 7 games. They then drew the #1 Arkansas team and again it went to game 7 and the Cowboys found a way to their first World Series. Vanderlyle was the opponent and a dominant performance by the starters and the relievers propelled the Cowboys to a 4-0 sweep and their first World Series title. Thanks to Bryan for his help in playing my games as we went through a lot of family health issues this year. Looking forward to adding to the team and defending the title.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky (Carol)

Age: 58 Occupation: Sales Director

The Season Story

The Walla Walla Wombats showed steady progress with a 69–91 finish, signaling improvement from past seasons. Offensively, Corbin Carroll led the team with 25 home runs, 93 runs, and 99 RBI, providing speed and power at the top of the order. Elly De La Cruz added excitement with 15 homers, 38 steals, and 91 runs, while Luis García was a consistent run producer, batting .261 with 17 homers and 64 RBI. Veterans like Gavin Sheets and C.J. Abrams chipped in with timely power, while James Wood flashed star potential in limited at-bats. On the mound, pitching proved a strength compared to previous years. Brady Singer anchored the rotation with 15 wins, a 3.14 ERA, and 190 strikeouts over 209 innings. Rookie Ben Brown impressed with a 2.93 ERA, and Jordan Hicks transitioned effectively into a starting role with a 3.10 ERA. The bullpen was stabilized by Edwin Díaz, who dominated with a 2.27 ERA, 0.91 WHIP, and 113 strikeouts in just 67 innings. Cole Sands and Matthew Liberatore also provided reliable middle-relief support. Though inconsistency at the plate held the team back, improved pitching depth and a few emerging young hitters give the Wombats optimism heading into next. With a strong draft position and an established core, they appear poised to build on this foundation and contend soon.

Stat Key

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the symbols below were used to denote individual stats that were TML record-breakers:

- ◆ - TML Record
- ◇ - Tied TML Record

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a caret (^) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.
