ALBANY Avalanche

Manager: Pat Barry (Elizabeth)

Age: 68 Occupation: Election Inspector & HOA President (!)

The Season Story

Albany underperformed all year and missed the playoffs by a game. After years of avoiding it leftyitis hit the staff as Sale pitched two runs over his real ERA and Crochet one. Shane Smith, Adrian Houser and Drew Rasmussen performed well as did Shawn Armstrong and Drew Pomeranz who shared the closer role. Matt Olson and Riley Greene suffered power outages missing their home run target by ten. However, Brandon Lowe, Mike Trout and Zach Neto hit their targets, so the team hit a respectable 226 homers. Zach Neto had an inefficient 21 stolen bases, getting thrown out 17 times. The team's on base percentage was the lowest in decades, .304. Along with 1545 strikeouts, it was too much to expect a playoff team here. Next year will depend on the draft. We will have to do better than recent efforts.

ARKANSAS Travelers

Manager: Bill Jelks (Lynda)

Age: 83 Occupation: Retired USAF Officer

The Season Story

The Great Willie Jelks had to step down for health reasons after a long 71-year TML career, which saw him guide this franchise to 6 TML Championships. Even in his absence toward the end of the season, the Travs rallied to make the playoffs. After knocking off the defending TML Champs Vegas in a tough 7-game series, their run came to an end when 'Skayuna beat them in 6. Offensively, the Travs had a balanced attack, without any standout stars. The pitching was solid, led by Ace Paul Skenes(15-5, 2.18). "Fireman of the Year" Closer Brad Keller was superb out of the bullpen, saving 41 games, while posting a 1.33 ERA. The team will move to Camarillo next season under new management.

BERKSHIRE COUNTY Corndogs

Manager: Erik Tiele

Age: 57 Occupation: Golf Professional

The Season Story

The Corndogs improved their record by 10 games over the 2025 season. General Manager, General Manager, Erik Tiele was pleased with the improvement and stated that ownership will continue to add the necessary pieces to make this team a contender. Christopher Sanchez once again led the team in ERA, Wins, IP, strikeouts and also threw 4 complete games and registered 20% of the team's victories! Shelby Miller recorded 13 saves out of 17 opportunities. Tiele stated that we need to address our pitching...our lack of experience and depth hurts our chances at getting deep enough into games and then when we do we need to get that win. The offense saw Rookie of the Year Candidate, Nick Kurtz lead the team in Average, OBP and SPC and RBI's, Kyle Schwarber once again lead the team in home runs, runs, walks and strikeouts!! Tiele stated that we hit the draft jackpot last year moving up from 3 to 2 in the draft to grab him. The offense continues to improve yearly, now hopefully we can hit again this season and perhaps a free agent signing or trade gets us closer. We want to show our fans that we are in it for the long haul and our commitment to them is real.

BEVERLY Hillbillies

Manager: Mike Dickinson (Andrea)
Age: 57 Occupation: Senior Scientist/Meteorologist

The Season Story

The team entered the season with low expectations given its uneven and, at times, anemic offense. However, one of the league's better pitching staffs, led by a strong rotation and deep bullpen, propelled the Hillbillies to a 94-win season and a Wild Card spot. In the end, there were simply too many holes in the lineup, and the lack of meaningful (and timely!) offense brought the playoff run to a heartbreaking end against New York. The pitching should remain a strength next season, but the offensive deficiencies remain, just at different positions. Improving the lineup, particularly its ability to get on base, will be the clear offseason priority. The Hillbillies will be looking to add an impact bat (or two) over the winter.

CALIFORNIA Black Sox

Manager: Jason King (Anne)
Age: 57 Occupation: Store Director

The Season Story

2025 was a rebuilding season for California as they lost over 100 games for the second time in franchise history. It was a tough year to say the least...Ronald Acuna was the offensive MVP for the Sox (.252/.363/.507 - 22 homers, 49 runs, 54 RBI in 286 AB's). Miles Mikolas led the team with 10 wins and was the default pitcher of the year, although he gave up 44 home runs. The future is hopefully bright for California as they have some young pieces in place to hopefully be contenders again a few years down the road.

CHESAPEAKE Steaming Crabs

Manager: Eric Rogers

Age: 68 Occupation: Retired Meteorologist

The Season Story

A fine season for the 2025 Steaming Crabs, winning 96 games and securing one of the Atmos Conference Wild Card slots. Although the Crabs were 3rd in the league in batting average, it was the best pitching staff in years that kept the team competitive, led by starters Ryne Nelson (11-4, 2.19 ERA), Luis Castillo (12-7, 2.65 ERA) and closer Taylor Clarke (1.88 ERA, 27 SV). The playoff jinx continued, however, as the Crabs went down in 7 games in a hard fought series against Beverly in the Atmo Conference Wild Card series. 2026 should see a total reverse of the team's fortunes due to the injuries and/or ineffectiveness of most of the team's starting pitchers.

DANNY WAY Diamonds

Manager: Mark Hetterich (Connie)

Age: 79 Occupation: Retired & Full-Time Grandpa

The Season Story

Danny Way was the worst team in the league at 49-111. They were 23rd in hitting and 22nd in pitching. Their best hitter was Castellanos at .252/.305 and best slugger Adrian Gonzalez with 24 HRs. Their best starting pitcher was Mazur with a 4.53 era, 6 wins and 13 losses. Their best reliever was Okert with a 1.21 era in 41 games. He also led the team in wins with 8. Next season could be slightly improved on offense if we can fill our OF holes in the draft. Starting pitching will be dismal again with only 53 starts in real life to work with. Pen should be pretty good. Thanks to Mike for a stellar season of herding the "cats" again.

DULUTH Thundercats

Manager: Kevin Tyle (Bryan)

Age: 62 Occupation: Meteorologist/Computer Administrator

The Season Story

The Thundercats roared to their best season in several years, with Junior Caminero (52 HRs), Freddie Freeman, and Ben Rice leading the offense. Noah Cameron, Joe Ryan, Andrew Abbott, and Hunter Greene, when healthy, anchored a solid starting rotation. Duluth had a weak bench and a shaky bullpen, particularly with regard to their closers; neither Raisel Iglesias nor Robert Suarez proved effective. The lack of depth nearly cost us the division title and a playoff spot; only a strong final series vs. Madison saved the Thundercats. We gave Toxic Waste another classic battle in the playoffs, falling just short once again. Post-season plans for next year will depend on the starting rotation.

GLENMONT Haymakers

Manager: Dave Vollaro (Sandy)
Age: 63 Occupation: Scientist

The Season Story

Middle of the pack finishes in league pitching and hitting did not translate into wins as Glenmont finished a woeful 24 games under .500! Tarik Skubal led the team in wins(10), complete games(4) and his 239 strikeouts was good for 2nd most in the league. Yandy Diaz hit 26HR and led the team with a .286 batting average. Juan Soto hit 33HR and once again was near the top of the league in walks. Given the talent on this team, ownership is putting manager Vollaro on notice to do better next season!

HOMESTEAD Grays

Manager: Mike Ameen

Age: 62 Occupation: Restaurateur & H.S. Softball Coach

The Season Story

The 2025 Homestead Grays have seen better seasons, but there is hope for the future with the beginning of a young strong starting pitching staff including Jackson Jobe, Payton Tolle, Quinn Priester, Cam Schlittler and Bubba Chandler. A mid-season trade cost the team last year's 1st pick Roman Anthony but besides Chandler who was included in the return the Grays also received O'Neill Cruz, Ryan O'Hearn and a young catching prospect Rafael Flores. As far as this year is concerned the Grays finished 59-101 finishing 3rd in the Ruth Division. Pitching was led by Quinn Priester (9 wins 3.36 era) Nathan Eovladi (9 wins 2.20 era) and Alex Vesia (10 saves 2.27 era). The offense was led by Colton Cowser (29 HR's 65 rbi's), Startling Marte (.314 14 HR's 56 rbi's) and Wilmer Flores (.275 14 HR's 42 rbi's). Hopefully next year shows improvement towards respectability.

KENTUCKY WildCats

Manager: Rocky Hall (Alfreda)

Age: 70 Occupation: Retired / Business Owner

TML Champion

The Season Story

The Kentucky WildCats piled up 105 wins, then discovered the toughest work was still ahead. Logan Webb went 20–5 with a 2.92 ERA, and Jacob deGrom added 14 wins and a 2.83 ERA, making runs hard to come by. Marco Island pushed them seven games before Webb helped nail down a nerve-racking 2–1 clincher. Then came 'Skayuna, another seven-game tussle that could wear out a fellow's rocking chair! Kentucky finally settled that argument with a 9–0 victory and punched its World Series ticket. The Toxic Waste River Rats came next, and every game had you gripping the armrests. Byron Buxton hit three homers, then lifted the tenth-inning sacrifice fly that brought the championship home. Twelve postseason wins, two Game 7 escapes, and one World Series sweep-the WildCats have now won 4 of the last 6 modern-day seasons! Lucky!

LAKE WOBEGON Staring Rabbits

Manager: Bob Weisman (Janet)

Age: 66 Occupation: Retired Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The relevant question is who is responsible for the continued futility of the Staring Rabbits, the manager, Bob Weisman, or the GM, Mini Him? The 8th straight under .500 year proved the answer was: YES! The team statistics, middle of the pack in both pitching and hitting, should have been good enough for an above .500 record, but the manager was responsible for the second worst road record in the league. The Rabbits played a league high 1-run games (63) in which the winning percentage was .397 (25-38). Megill and Vest were fine as the team closers (34-44 in saves). Jeffrey Springs was the most reliable starter but 3 other starters (Mize, Rocker, and Eury Perez) were simply awful (7-29, 5.69 ERA). But the GM traded the most productive player, Cal Raleigh (34 HR, .941 ops) at mid-season. No one else broke 75 RC. For the future, the GM must keep the blame for all of the one-year wonders being drafted. A bit of advice: Stop drafting Twins and Tigers!!!

MADISON Danes

Manager: Ross Lazear

Age: 43 Occupation: Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

Madison never expected to compete this year, and drafted for the future rather than present, but ended up in first in the Robinson Division for a large portion of the season. Unfortunately, a 4-12 record in October against rivals Vanderlyle and Duluth brought the team to finish 2nd and miss the playoffs. There were some bright spots along the way, as Xavier Edwards won the batting title hitting .328. The team hit a ridiculous 63 triples, with the next best in the league at only 41...so I guess that's something? Madison has a huge pitching surplus heading into the offseason and hopes to get some much needed offense through trade or the draft!

MARCO ISLAND Gators

Manager: Jayson Chapman
Age: 30 Occupation: Engineer

The Season Story

Though it was an up and down year for Gators, they were able to hold onto division with a strong last month against interdivision rival RM. This strong finish propelled them to a 2nd straight division win. Just like in the 2024 season, the Gators took a strong Kentucky 105 win team to game save with a chance to win the series, but the bullpen had other plans ... maybe their flight to Cancun was leaving the next day.
There is hope within the organization that the Gators are primed for another strong season in 2026. This season the Gators were led offensively by a standout season by Bryce Harper (29 hrs,.303 AVG, 120.4 RC), while the pitching staff was led by rookie starter Jacob Misiorowski (2.99 ERA, 94 Ks in 75 innings). There is hope that Misiorowski can change the trajectory of this pitching staff in future seasons.

MUDVILLE Nine

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 76 Occupation: Free Lance Writer

The Season Story

The Mudville Nine continues to rebuild. It was a much improved team but still a bad one. Vlad Guerrero, Jeremy Pena, and Jordan Walker provide hope for the offense going forward. Colson Montgomery and Cam Smith will contribute as well, especially if they can start hitting for average. Pitching still needs improvement. The question is will it be addressed through the draft or by trading draft picks. Stay tuned.

MURDEROUS Crows

Manager: Mike Cempa

Age: 62 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

There was hope among the Crow faithful that this year would be better than the last, and although the Crows record was better it wasn't by much. The offense was led by Bo Bichette, Brice Turang and Cryin' Kyle Tucker, although we'll need more than that group to make next season better. The bullpen was solid, which was needed, given the poor performance of the starting staff. Some of the younger pitchers and players showed some improvement, so once again, there's hope for improvement next year.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)
Age: 60 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The winds are blowing sadness into the hearts of Rocky Mountain fans after the 2025 campaign which saw another final month of futility. It was mainly the pen that was disappointing with so many late game collapses. Still have faith that Mason Miller will be better than his 4.24 ERA at some point. Starting to see a few more of the younger staff pick it up, so who knows? Offense needs to learn that getting on base is a good thing. Not sure how we ended up with the fewest strikeouts though... The fans did enjoy the hitting exploits of Cody Bellinger and Geraldo Perdomo. In this Williams division, you never know what the next year can bring!

SANTA ANA Winds

Manager: Rob Fovell (Mei-Ying)
Age: 68 Occupation: Retired Meteorology Professor

The Season Story

The Winds slowed to a 83-77 record, 3rd place in the Gatto, 15 games behind the pace. Despite strong seasons by Shohei Ohtani (155 RC) and Pete Alonso (53 HRs to tie for 1st), the offense was a little below league average. Pitching disappointed: Max Fried was 10-11 with 4.49, Cade Horton will be AWOL next year, Imanaga gave up an enormous number of homers, and Merrill Kelly was bad and will only get worse. But Ohtani thrilled the fans with a fine season: 2nd in OBP (0.400), 3rd in slug (0.611), 4th in HRs (51, just 2 behind Alonso and Judge), tops in walks, and 2nd in RC (154.7). More of the same expected next year, for better and worse.

‘SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)
Age: 75 Occupation: Retired Attorney

The Season Story

This was an unexpectedly successful season for the Squires: Not only did they win the Steinmetz Division with 93 wins, 'Skayuna actually had a pitcher lead the league in ERA (Nick Pivetta at 1.90), with a team ERA of 3.12, second in the TML. This from a franchise noted from destroying pitching careers! George Springer paced the offense with a .304 average, 27 HR and 110 RC... not very dominant, but the pitching made it work. The Squires disposed of Arkansas 4-2 in their first playoff series in many years but succumbed to the Kentucky Wildcats 4-3 in a hard fought Division Championship series. All in all, a pretty good year. Now management will need to fill some holes left by personnel issues in the real MLB world....onward!

TOXIC WASTE River Rats

Manager: Mike Landin (Teri)

Age: 73 Occupation: Retired/Senior Softball Player

The Season Story

A blockbuster trade set this team up for a championship run, but it turned out that they were just pretenders and not true contenders. If it were not for their puzzlingly ability to win at home after "stuttering" on the road, they would not have made the post season. The team was loaded with HR power and the bullpen was strong and deep. The trade for Suarez after the Summer Stretch turned out to be the worst trade in franchise history! It also jinxed the team going forward. Judge was on his way to the Triple Crown, but he "folded like a cheap tent" in September! Just like the franchise "stars" of the early 1930s, this team was filled with BIG "names" but did not perform as a "team" when it counted. This was also not the kind of team I enjoy managing, a bit slow of foot and last (24th) in fielding PCT. Looks like a major housecleaning is in store for next season! A lot of players will be handed their "walking papers!"

The Season Story

The Geeks took a step back this season as they lacked quality depth in all areas. Despite being outscored by 90 runs, the Geeks were able to finish above .500 thanks mostly to a 28-16 record in 1-run games. The pitching staff was led by Stephen Kolek (19 GS, 12-5, 2.02 ERA, 2 SHO) and closer Cade Smith (2.49 ERA, 31 Sv). The batting was led by old reliable Jose Ramirez (33 HR, 101 R, 28 SB) and part-timer Javier Sanoja (225 ABs, 925 OPS). The Geeks might show some improvement next season if the training staff can figure out how to keep the starting pitchers arms in their sockets.

The Season Story

The defending champs made it back to the wildcard series but lost a heartbreaker in 7. Outlook for next year is to add some more young blue chip prospects to get us back into the playoffs. Needs are a CF, OF and relievers. Our starting 5 rotation is fairly strong but the offense needs to be added to.

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky (Carol)

Age: 60 Occupation: Sales Director

The Season Story

The 2025 Walla Walla Wombats finished 73–87, up four wins from 2024. The offense improved significantly, scoring 802 runs behind an emerging young core. Corbin Carroll delivered a spectacular season with 34 home runs, 128 runs, 101 RBI, and 36 steals. Elly De La Cruz hit .289 with 25 homers, 94 RBI, and 33 steals, while James Wood hit 29 home runs and drove in 110 runs. Trent Grisham led the club with 36 home runs, and Tyler Soderstrom added 20 homers and 86 RBI. Pitching remained inconsistent, with the staff posting a 4.49 ERA. Brady Singer led with 11 wins and 164 strikeouts, while Reese Olson impressed at 7–2 with a 2.32 ERA. Kris Bubic contributed eight wins and 133 strikeouts, and Roki Sasaki showed promise with a 2.68 ERA. The bullpen struggled, particularly Cole Sands, who recorded nine saves but also nine losses. Despite another losing season, the Wombats' improving offense and young talent offered genuine optimism. With continued development and stronger pitching, Walla Walla appears increasingly capable of challenging for a winning record.
